Dear Mike:

I will be happy to schedule Saturday, May 24 for your Youth Rally. I would enjoy being with you on Sunday but I have a Sunday night radio program aired lived from KRBC here in Abilene called "Campus Call-In."

It must be understood, Mike, that I will have to come at your expense. Herald of Truth travel budget for radio has already been expended through July, 1969. I will certainly understand if you do not feel it worthwhile to have me come for that one day at your expense, but if this meets your approval, I will definitely plan to be with the Multitude!

Your brother,

Dear John:

Thank you so much for your letter. It sounds exciting to us that we might have the cooperation of men like you and Landon Saunders and others speaking on Christ to the youth of America in our area.

Yes, we have established a date and I pray it will not conflict with any other project on your schedule. The time we have selected is May 24, 1969.

We have had two definite commitments as yet and only you and Jimmy remain.

Just think, a crowd of young people assembled to hear about Christ, not just a crowd, a MULTITUDE!

We think this will be an "Earth shaking" day for the Lord. We pray that you can be a part of it on May 24, 1969 when thousands amass around beautiful Lake Charles to hear the sweet words of Jesus and sing Glory to God in the highest.

I'll be waiting your reply.

Brotherly,

Mike Wilson

P.S. - This will be an all day Saturday affair. You should have plenty of time to fly to Memphis for the engagement + return for Sunday services.
