Dear Dr. Ford,

My name is Lisa Fuller and I am a librarian at Harding University. I am contacting you on behalf of Dr. Stephanie Eddleman, who is a contributing author to Persuasions: The Jane Austen Journal.

Dr. Eddleman is a faculty member at our university and would like to deposit the full text of the following article(s) from Persuasions into Scholar Works, our institutional repository. Dr. Eddleman has authorized me to seek permission on her behalf in order to include her work in our repository.

Article:

Eddleman, SM , 2015, Past the Bloom: Beauty and Aging in the Works of Jane Austen, Persuasions, Vol 37, 119-133

Scholar Works is a not-for-profit service for our academic authors and seeks to provide access to the full-text of their publications for our learning community. Full bibliographic details are given for each article, including the journal of original publication, etc.

When possible, it is preferred to archive the finalized pdf version as it appears in print. The pdf version has an advantage over using the author's own version, in that it maintains consistency in appearance of the article wherever it is read. This also maintains a closer association of the article with the Journal, through the header-title and journal house-style.

I would be grateful if you could contact me to give your permission for including this article and to pass on any conditions that are associated. If it would be possible to use the published pdf version of the article for this purpose, then please confirm this. Additionally, if it is possible for you to give ongoing permission for future submissions by Dr. Eddleman it would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your attention with this and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Lisa Fuller

Dear Lisa,

I'm sorry it's taken me so long to respond to your inquiry. (I'm recovering from surgery, and I seem to have lost track of a few things.) Of course you may have permission to deposit Stephanie Eddleman's essay "Past the Bloom" in Scholar Works. Please include the information related to its original publication. Please also let me know if you need a pdf version; I'll have to ask for it from our Publications Secretary.

Best--

Susan

Do we want a pdf or do we want to link to it online?

I say get the PDF if that's the option. We can always link out to the online version as well to give them additional traffic, but it's ideal to have a copy of our own just in case the host site ever goes down.

Thank you so much, and I'm sorry to hear of your recent surgery. I hope that you have a smooth recovery and that all will be well.

If we could acquire a PDF version, it would be appreciated.
