

HARDING ORAL HISTORY LIBRARY

The Dr. George S. Benson Story

I. Statement on the purpose of the Oral History Library and the George S. Benson Story

II. Early life

A. Location and date of birth

B. Parental philosophy and instruction

C. Educational experience

D. Church activities

E. Work requirements

III. Teenage experience and early adulthood

A. Educational opportunities

B. Work experience

C. Principles and philosophy gleaned from these experiences

D. Professional experience

IV. Far Eastern service

A. Dream of mission work

B. Moving to the Far East

C. Problems and difficulties encountered

D. Methods of operation

E. Educational endeavors

F. Missionary principles and philosophy

G. Interest in political, economic and social conditions

H. Extensive travel and study

V. The Harding story

A. Election to presidency, 1936

B. The state of the college

C. Philosophy of education

D. Philosophy of administration

E. Spiritual emphasis

F. Growth of the college

G. Financial needs and methods of achievement

VI. The National scene

A. Awareness of political and economic problems

B. Personal appearances

C. Newspaper column

D. Land of the free

E. Monthly Letter

F. National Education Program - A part of Harding

G. Production of films

H. Freedom Forums

I. The National voice of Harding - Freedom Foundation

VII. Extended service and retirement

A. Interest in Christian education

B. Interest in mission activities

C. Local work of the church

D. Retirement from presidency of Harding College

E. Continued service to others

1. Harding College

2. Oklahoma Christian

3. African missions

4. College church

VIII. The National Education Program today

A. Philosophy and objectives

B. Methods of operation

C. National influence

IX. A Life of service

A. The Benson Family

B. Philosophy of life

C. Satisfactions and regrets

D. Personal honors and awards

E. The Future