

We're Spreading the Flame

The Harding family. We lived, worked, struggled, prayed and stuck together in spite of difficulty. We went through varied stages of maturity and change but left a part of ourselves behind when we moved on. We came in many sizes, ages and generations; but we were still able to enjoy our reunions on special occasions. Whether students of the future, of the present, or of the past, all were attracted to Harding, a special place which ignited a fire within us that will fuel our lives as we go throughout the world spreading the flame. ♦

THE TRESTLE AT JUDSONIA. A favorite subject for photographers, the old train trestle at Judsonia holds a special appeal for students. Due to the age and dangerous condition of the structure, authorities posted the area with "No Trespassing" signs during the fall.

The 1992 Petit Jean staff would like to thank Josten's representative Dean Bawcom and the entire staff at the plant for their patience and cooperation during the production of this edition of the Petit Jean. We would also like to thank David Crouch and the entire Public Relations office for their support, encouragement and help throughout the publication of this book.

The editor would like to extend a special thank you to Tom Buterbaugh who spent countless hours with her designing, planning and creating this book, to Eric French, Archie Shelton, John Noah, Virginia Collins, Kay Gowen, and Tom B. who helped key-in and format this crazy Index, to Peggy Huckleba for those numerous nights of late permission, to Mrs. V who was so understanding about her late hours, to all her teachers and friends who were so supportive throughout the year, and to Lori Girdley for, well, for just being herself. ♦

COLOPHON

The 1992 Petit Jean was a student publication of Harding University. Volume 68 had as its theme We Didn't Start the Fire, and as many as 70 individuals contributed by taking photographs, writing copy, designing pages, typing, and indexing.

The book was printed by Josten's Yearbook of Visalia, California; Abbey
Foster was our in-plant consultant, and Dearn Bawcom of Searcy was our representative. Josten's set most of the type and pasted up most of the pages. The index was sent camera-ready and prepared on the Apple Macintosh and Laser Writer.

The theme and the cover and division page designs were conceived by Anissa Campbell one long summer night and perfected by Public Relations editor/artist Tom Buterbaugh. The cover was craftline embossed on Matte Black #480 with a French Straight
grain. The applied colors were Yellow Gold #371, Red Orange #365, and Black
#326. Endsheets were Snow
White #280 paper stock with Black #326 and gold foil as the applied colors. The book consisted of 320 pages of 80 lb. high gloss enamel stock, 9 x 12.

Most headlines were typeset by Josten's with a few set by the Apple Macintosh and Laser Writer, Harding Press (Futura Condensed), and Tom Buterbaugh (Ietraset -- Rage Italic and Bordeaux Roman). Text was set in 10 point Benguiat, captions in 8 point Benguiat, and photo credits in 6 point Benguiat.
Initial letters were 36 point
Benguiat.

All photographs were taken by students and developed in the Petit Jean darkroom.
Over 250 rolls of black and white film were processed, and The Color Lab in Searcy developed and printed approximately 70 rolls of color film for the book.

The Petit Jean office is located on the second floor of the Hammon Student Center. Address any correspondence to Box 812,
900 East Center Street, Searcy, AR 72149. The office can be reached by phone at (501) 279-4275.

The cost for a 1992 Petit Jean was included in student registration fees and totaled $18 for the year.
The Petit Jean is a member of the Arkansas College Media Association and the Associated Collegiate Press.

In memory of Dr. George S. Benson

*"In the forest of humanity
A giant tree has fallen . . ."*

J. D. Bales

Dr. George S. Benson, son, father, teacher, preacher, and administrator, "graduated to glory," as Dr. Virgil Lawyer said, on Dec. 15, 1991. We will remember him as the president who personally interviewed every Harding employee, the elder who always had time to visit with the seemingly insignificant student, and—most importantly—as the servant who continuously gave of himself and his resources to the honor and glory of Christ.

He was instrumental in the foundation of Harding; and he personally raised much of the money that has allowed Harding to become the modern university it is today. His most accomplished tasks, however, were not those for which he received awards and honors, but those by which he intimately infiltrated the lives of all those around him.

He was a born leader, a man who rose to the forefront of activity and silently modeled the glory of servanthood and the humility of greatness. Whether he was addressing a room full of prominent Congressmen or a small group of students in an African hut, his message and his influence were the same: he spoke of the power of Christian education, and he left his audience thirsting for the conviction that gave him the strength to stand boldly on behalf of the nation and the Christ.

From the beginning he directly worked with others to ignite the Harding fire; and for his efforts, he will stay in our hearts forever. As long as Memory and History remain, Dr. George S. Benson will be remembered as the man who sacrificed himself for the Harding blaze and who, in the name of Christ, helped start the fire we still stir today.♦

We Didn't Start The Fire

Is it really over, guys? Did we really finish all 320 pages? It seems like only yesterday we started; who would have thought that so soon all the planning, working and hoping would come to fruition in such a cool book? Where do I begin thanking people? Tom, you've been an incredible encouragement to me, and without you we'd have lost flair! To Vicki, I thank you for bringing your hairbows and polka-dots into our otherwise drab office! Don't forget, tall, dark, and BASSI! Trina, I'm grateful for your hours of editing and your sweet friendship. Just think, you never have to walk home from the office in the dark again!

Busy, busy Amy — just say NO! I'm thankful that you stayed with me — your dedication has been priceless. Leah, Leah, Leah, I love you so much!!!! What would I have done without your medusa hair flopping around during our all-nighters or your crying over your busted eggs (were they sunny-side-up or what?). Remember, you will NEVER understand boys!!!! And you Oxy-Mo-Ron, Buz, you about drove me out of my tree with sorry; but I still remember you flagging me down in the library asking me if you could have this job (were you crazy or and their dog knows that you have arrived and that you have spoken (yeah, they do!), would you Puh-leeze take down those Rules? You are the greatest sister, roommate, and friend in the whole world (even if you still sometimes feel like a frog!). Kristy? Could I even begin to tell you how much I appreciate you? You have served beautifully in such a difficult role. I understand how tough this year has been for you — but we've gained a lot of insight into ourselves and the lives of others. Thanks for all the fun! There's Willy, Joey, GreenElla, Margaritaville, that incredible Michael Bolton concert, the blitz to Heber (singing on a rock was great, huh?), and, oh yeah, Luke the Duke! You're simply the best (even though you did get wore out with Mariah), and don't forget — Wild Women Do, and we want to be Impulsive! I still think you're great — even though I know what you did to my blanket!

And my dear photographers — Jerry, thanks for the incredible sports action shots. You took some thrilling pics, and you gave me a lot of encouragement when I really needed it. David, thanks for stepping in and helping us finish up a tough job — your service was invaluable. Montgomery, if you hadn't shared your negs, there'd be a lot of empty spots, dear! And, Jeffrey — you've taught me so much about photography and people; and I am so appreciative of the thousands of hours you worked with me creating this book. When I look at these pages I will always remember you. Thanks for the memories, my dear Knight. May you successfully convert all of Africa AND get that 600mm zoom! I'll never forget Spain, Patrick, and staying up four nights in a row (ugh!) Stay in touch; and keep up that great work in the dark!

To Kay — you did it. thanks for the vote of confidence and your willingness to hear my ideas. Things turned out okay didn't they? (Hey, did you ever find that stuff in Scott's drawers?) And to all the others — Archie (by the way, may I consume?), Kevin (watch that inquisitive reporter mind — especially in D. C.), Baine-brain (what did Rod Stewart withdraw from the bank?), and Eric (are you sure I'm the only "gorgeous" girl you know?) — never forget all the laughter and fun! Dragonbreath and Myra Lou-coming-down-the-chimney will be here next year. I will be too — NOT!!!

And to those people who kept us "staffers" together — thank you. Mom and Dad, your wisdom has been invaluable. No one knows like I do the sacrifices you've made for the production of this book. Erm, Ash, (KS forever!), Kirk, Lynnitia, Girdle (thanks for the flowers and all the cokes), and sweet Dell (What was your favorite flavor? Don't forget moonrises, MERCY, Mariah, and how important it is to smell good! (Yeah it is!)), your friendships and your prayers have made the biggest difference in my life.

I know I've been long-winded, but God only knows how thankful I am to be writing this to those of you who have made a mere idea a wonderful reality. I will never forget the fun, the tears, the frustration, and the laughter that created this book. You are each very special to me — take my love and go your separate ways. But when you're old and gray sitting in front of a campfire, chunk a stick on the blaze and as the sparks fly up into the sky, remember your college years, the fun we had, and that although we get to sit and soak up the warmth of the flames, we didn't start the fire. ♦

Fanning The Flames

In the midst of continuous changes—our majors, our relationships, our crazy Arkansas weather—the fire burned on. Although we were a diverse group separated by individual preferences and goals, we were all attracted to the same Light, the same Warmth, the same cozy hearth. We came to Harding searching for stability; and underneath the sheltering portals of her traditional ideals, we unified ourselves into one body, with one purpose, fed from one Flame.

With strong Christian leaders at the helm, we grew individually through cooperative service to others. We stood in the flickering shadows of men who were living testimonies to the ideals of Truth and Service, and those of us who chose to follow began a journey toward the fiery future. We knew that the friends by our sides would one day leave; we knew the loves we treasured most would one day die; but we also knew that the value of friends and the influence of love would live forever. And so we held hands, brushed away our tears, feared the change, and kept walking toward the Light.

We had felt the heat of the Flame on our faces, and we knew that we couldn't turn our back to the Blaze without despising the coldness of the world and longing for the warmth of the Light. We left Harding and returned to different parts of the world, but we took with us a spark of life that ever-reminded us that although we didn't start the fire, it was our job to fan the flame. ♦
