This school year began with a tragedy.

Amid the devastation in New York and Washington, U.S. citizens rose in unity. As Christians, we struggled with our reactions to the tragedy while supporting the nationalistic unity that swept the country.

We hoped that our anger was just, our sorrow real and our patriotism noble. Though our country turned to God in its time of desperation, Christians are called to a much deeper, more constant faith.

At Harding, we are trained to govern our reactions to the crises that inevitably accompany life. These reactions often indicate that the faith we profess is actually a part of our inner lives—part of the gut reaction that escapes when we are cut off in traffic by an arrogant driver, told of the death of a dear friend or irritated daily by a roommate's quirks.

I don't know what the results of that day's horror will be. But, I do hope our reactions are governed by the same self-control that restrains our reactions to life's annoyances and crises. Looking back, I see the value of friendships and professors that shaped my reactions to the little things. We are surrounded by life-changing people who serve a life-changing God.

As you leave, perhaps for the summer or for the rest of your life, hold the shape into which you have been molded; let your reactions be governed by God. You inhabit a world filled by people whose responses are shaped differently than yours, and your daily reactions will mark you as a believer.

The people around you will notice.

faces of memories

Kristin Altman

Dara Cossey

On Jan. 16, the Harding family suffered a loss with the death of Kristin Kay Altman. Kristin, a 20-year-old junior professional sales major, died as a result of a car accident Sunday morning, Jan. 13, in her hometown of Plano, Texas. She was the granddaughter of the late Ted and Barbara Altman, Searcy residents who had been active in supporting the university. Kristin's parents, Dane and Carol Altman, were Harding graduates, and her sister Dana was a freshman at Harding this year.

A memorial was held for Kristin in the Administration Auditorium Jan. 22. Friends shared some of their favorite memories, read scriptures and offered prayers of comfort. They thanked God for the blessing of knowing Kristin.

—Emily Richardson

Dara Anne Cossey died of liver failure Saturday, Oct. 6. A sophomore graphic design and public relations major from Cabot, Cossey was 23.

Cossey had liver problems for many years. She first attended Harding in the fall semester of 1996, but she had been going to Arkansas State University—Beebe for some classes since then. She enrolled at Harding again this fall as a full-time student.

Cossey was survived by her parents, Brady and Lori Cossey; a brother, Seth Taylor Cossey, and four grandparents.

Fresh snow covers the area in front of the Administration Building the evening of Feb. 5. The overnight snowfall, the first major snow in two years, gave students an opportunity to participate in snowball fights and build snow creatures all over campus the next day.

Sailors aboard the aircraft carrier USS Theodore Roosevelt lower the U.S. flag off the coast of Norfolk, Va. Sept. 19. The carrier began air operations within hours of leaving the port and heading into the Atlantic Ocean. Navy officials declined to say whether the Sept. 11 attacks had changed the battle group's destination.

Colophon

The 2002 Petit Jean yearbook of Harding University, Volume 78, Faces of Growth, was printed by Jostens Printing and Publishing of Topeka, Kan., and was produced on Macintosh computers with Adobe PageMaker and Jostens Yeartech.

COVER: The cover is custom crafline embossed in Laredo (498) with no grain. Copper foil ink (382) was laid on the cover theme; the date and name of the yearbook, the headline and the spine were blind embossed. The cover was produced by Jostens in Topeka.

ENDSHEETS: The endsheets were printed with Black (395) and Metallic Copper (876) ink on Smoke Gray (297) stock. The endsheets were designed by Jennifer Thompson, editor-in-chief, and Dustin Vyers.

THEME: The theme was conceived by Jennifer Thompson, editor-in-chief, with the assistance of Jim Miller, adviser, and Kay Gowen, associate professor of communication.

COLOR: 31 pages were printed in four-color process.

TYPOGRAPHY: Opening and closing headlines were set in Carpenter ICG and Futena typefaces; division pages in Futena; Student Life headlines in XP Schooner and Lubalin Graph; People headlines in Comicbook, Verdana, Tahoma, AGaramond Bold, Avant Garde, Gadget, Bookman and XPCopperhead; Academics headlines in Technical; Social Clubs headlines in Bordeaux Roman Bold and Clearface; Athletics headlines in Arial Black and Machine; and Organizations headlines in Oxford and Bookman. All captions were set in 8 point Helvetica. All body copy was set in 9 point Palatino.

PHOTOGRAPHY: All photographs were taken by Daniel Dubois, assisted by Curtis Seright and Andrea Waters, unless otherwise noted. Several group pictures were taken by Jeff Montgomery, Ashlee Johnson and Jalaina Hammett. More than two hundred rolls of black and white film and more than 30 rolls of color film were taken. All color photographs were developed and printed by The Color Lab in Searcy or were taken with a digital camera. The portraits in the People section were taken by Holland Studios of Memphis, Tenn.; most faculty portraits were taken by Jeff Montgomery. Photos of national events were supplied by AP World Wide Photos, Inc.

DESIGN: The endsheets, opening, closing and division pages were designed by Jennifer Thompson, editor-in-chief, with the assistance of Jim Miller, adviser, and Dustin Vyers. The cover was designed and prepared as artwork by Dustin Vyers. The sections were designed by the section editors, with consultation from the adviser and editor-in-chief.

APPRECIATION: The 2002 Petit Jean staff is indebted to many people who helped us achieve our goals. Thank you to Mrs. Judy Baker for her dedication and work typing and indexing. Thanks to Jostens: Mary Nell Sparks, our local representative, Mike Barnes, our in-plant consultant and Carol in the art department. Our appreciation to Mike Chalenburg and Jim Baird for technical support. Thank you to Sara Miller for her patience and hospitality. Special thanks to Jim Miller, who remained calm through everything and made the job fun for all of us.

The Petit Jean office is located on the second floor of the Hammon Student Center in room 211. Any correspondence can be sent to the Petit Jean, Box 10812, 900 E. Center, Searcy, AR 72149-0001. The office phone number is (501) 279-4139. Students who are enrolled for 12 hours or more both semesters have paid sufficient general fees to cover the $30 cost of the yearbook. Depending on their enrollment status for the year, others are charged full or half price.

The Petit Jean is a member of the Arkansas College Media Association, the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, and is a member of the Associated Collegiate Press Hall of Fame.

faces of growth

We've come to the end.

Not only to the end of this yearbook, but the end of months spent working together on this finished product. As I write this, the staff still has a few weeks to go before all the loose ends are tied up, the pictures are taken and the captions are written, but I know that I only have a few Tuesday nights left to spend with this group of people I've come to know since August.

I wish the rest of the student body could know how hard we've all worked to give you the best that we could. I know I speak for the rest of the staff when I say we're proud of this book. All the time we spent editing stories, cropping pictures, writing captions and designing layouts has paid off, and the end product is in your hands. We hope you enjoy it as much as we enjoyed making it.

Andrea, Ashlee, Ben, Chrissy, Curtis, Daniel, Emily, Jalaina, Laura and Renee—thank you so much for all that you gave. I will treasure this book, but more I will remember the birthday parties, “anonymous” notes of encouragement, screams at the printer, dart gun shots, quotes of the evening and delirious 3 a.m. laughter. Dustin—your creativity and expertise have been priceless. Thank you for providing artistic opinion and entertainment when you didn't have to be up here. Miss Judy—your help and presence up here is invaluable. Thank you! Jim—we'd have no one else to stay up with us, keep us sane and give us advice. I am so grateful for each one of you and the time I had to get to know you. I'm proud of our work and proud of the relationships we've built. Now our work here is done.

Giddyup.

Making last-minute corrections, Jim Miller, adviser, and Dustin Vyers, graduate assistant, look at a proof of this year's cover. Vyers, who graduated from Harding in 2001 with an advertising degree, designed the cover and helped staff members with layout design.

Junior Ben Carrigan looks through contact sheets as he decides what pictures to include on the basketball spread. Carrigan was the athletics editor of the 2002 Petit Jean.

Putting the finishing touches on her section, senior Jalaina Hammett, organizations editor, searches for student portraits for her Alpha Chi spread. Section editors were responsible for designing their master layout, choosing pictures, writing captions and placing stories.

Waiting for their table at the Cracker Barrel in Springfield, Mo., sophomore Renee Lewis, junior Chrissy Ingram, and seniors Ashlee Johnson, Jennifer Thompson and Jalaina Hammett try on fashion accessories in the "country store." Petit Jean staff members took a trip to Topeka, Kan. in September to tour the Jostens plant where the 2002 yearbook was published.

Talking on a "Harding swing," senior Jill McDonald and junior Joey Kincheloe enjoy an early fall day. The front lawn was traditionally a popular gathering place, especially on pleasant afternoons.

At the end of a year, our inclination is to reflect—to think about where we've been, what we've done, who we've become. But our reflection on the past should never surpass our focus on the future. Our reflection should lead to growth, inspiring us to become even better than before.

The faces of Harding are in a continual state of change. Students and faculty come and go; we mature in our years here, learning more about ourselves, about our fields of study and about our God. My prayer is that this change is used for good—that these faces of change will truly be faces of growth.

Helping out at Fall Fest, men's basketball coach Jeff Morgan teaches children basic basketball skills. The carnival, organized by the Student Association, brought many students and faculty members to Kensett to host booths and games for the town's children.

Painting a wall at the Sunshine School, junior Stephanie Giesemann joins a group from her 9:45 class on the Day of Outreach. The SA organized the project, held Feb. 20, to bring about 2,000 members of the student body together to serve Searcy and the surrounding area through visiting widows, painting, reading to elementary school students and other service projects.

With lights flashing behind him, Michael Britt, guitarist for Lonestar, plays Feb. 1 before a nearly sold-out crowd in the Benson Auditorium. The concert was one of several events planned by the Student Activities Committee this spring.
