On stage in the Benson Auditorium Dec. 13, sophomore Ryan Davenport persuades freshman Adam Colvin to meditate so he can steal Colvin's wallet during a scene, which counted as the final exam, for the Theater Movement class. "I loved the freedom we had in this class; it was uncontrolled, yet controlled at the same time," Davenport said. —Russell Keck

Performing in the cafeteria Dec. 6, David Woodruff, director of media services, Susan Dillard, Harding Academy teacher, Dr. Joli Love, associate professor of foreign languages, and Wendy Neill, wife of music instructor Kelly Neill, sing a Christmas song. Nine members of the faculty and staff gathered to entertain the students, faculty and staff with their medley of holiday songs. —Russell Keck

To get ready for the Bison basketball game against Henderson State University Jan. 28, senior Adam Thomas paints his face in the lobby of Allen Hall. "Even though I always go to the games, I wanted to take it to the next level by painting my face in support against our biggest rivals," Thomas said.

colophon

The 2006 Petit Jean yearbook of Harding University, Volume 82, "Definitions," was printed by Jostens Printing and Publishing in Topeka, Kan., and was produced on Macintosh computers using Adobe InDesign, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator and Jostens Yeartech.

COVER: The cover is a True Life lithograph in material number 478. Process color 317 was used. A gloss lamination was applied.

ENDSHEETS: The endsheets were printed on Snow White 280, flooded in Process Type C.

THEME: The theme was conceived by Cynthia Noah, editor in chief, with the assistance of Renee Lewis, adviser.

COLOR: 62 pages were printed in four-color process. 31 pages were UV coated.

TYPOGRAPHY: Opening and closing headlines and division pages were set in Century Gothic Regular; Student Life headlines in OCR A Std and Century Gothic Regular; People headlines in Century Gothic Bold and Century Gothic Regular; Leadership headlines in Impact and Optima Regular; Academics headlines in Marcelle Script, Century Gothic Regular and Century Gothic Bold; Organizations headlines in Futura Condensed Medium and Futura Medium; Social Club headlines in Helvetica Neue, Century Gothic Regular and Century Gothic Bold; and Athletics headlines in Poplar Std Black, Century Gothic Regular and Futura Medium. All captions were set in 10 point and 8 point Futura Condensed Medium, 9 point Century Gothic and 7 point Wingdings. All body copy was set in 9 point Adobe Garamond, 9 point Futura Condensed Medium and 7 point Wingdings.

PHOTOGRAPHY: All photographs were taken by Russell Keck and assisted by Jonathan Lindsay and Amber Bazargani, unless otherwise noted. Several photographs were taken by Chelsea Roberson and Jeff Montgomery, director of photographic services. All photographs were taken on digital cameras and were balanced in Photoshop. The portraits in the People section were taken by Holland Studios of Memphis, Tenn. Most faculty portraits were taken by Jeff Montgomery.

DESIGN: The entire book was designed by Laura Brown, layout editor, with assistance from Cynthia Noah, editor in chief, and Renee Lewis, adviser. The cover was designed and prepared as artwork by Laura Brown, Russell Keck, Dustin Vyers, director of student life, and Cynthia Noah. Endsheets were prepared as artwork by Laura Brown.

APPRECIATION: The 2006 Petit Jean is thankful for the many people who helped make the publication a success. Thank you to Joy Tittle, assistant to the director, for all her help with portrait pages, finding names and the completion of other office tasks. Thank you to Jim Baird, director of desktop computing, for compiling the index. Thank you to Jostens: Natasha Durham, local representative, Judy Huffaker, in-plant consultant, and Carol Stelljes, artist. Thank you to the Bison staff for help in many areas, including photography and writing. Thank you so much to Renee Lewis, director of student publications and Petit Jean adviser, for your dedication and commitment to helping students live to their potential. Your advice and guidance will not be forgotten.

The Petit Jean is located on the second floor of the Hammon Student Center in room 211. Any correspondence can be sent to the Petit Jean, Harding University Box 10812, Searcy, AR 72149-0001. The office phone number is (501) 279-4139. The office e-mail address is petitjean@harding.edu. Students who enrolled for 12 credit hours or more both semesters have paid sufficient general fees to cover the $30 cost of the yearbook. Depending on their enrollment status for the year, others are charged full or half price.

The Petit Jean is a member of the Arkansas College Media Association, the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the Associated Collegiate Press Hall of Fame.

Gathering together, attendees at the World Mission Workshop pray about their commitment to missionary work Oct. 15. More than 300 people devoted their lives to mission work during the ceremony. •Chelsea Roberson stirred.

Registering for Student Impact Aug. 18, freshman Leslie Wilkinson talks with sophomore Bethany Chandler. "My energy group leaders were great, and they gave me a lot of insight of what goes on [at Harding]," Wilkinson said. •Russell Keck

Listening to one of the speakers, College of Business Administration graduate Justin Shubert pays attention at graduation May 15, 2005. Dr. Dean Priest, distinguished professor of math, delivered the keynote address. •Jeff Montgomery

more than words

Mentor:* a trusted adviser.
Friend: one attached to another by mutual affection.
Servant: one who serves others.

Determination: firmness of purpose.

Faith: complete trust and confidence in someone or something.

Baptism: act of immersion into water to symbolize acceptance of Jesus Christ.

Who am I? How many times have I asked this question as I have matured over the years? Many of us face this question as we try and define who we are.

Trying to sum up who we are in one word is challenging for most of us — one word that says everything about who each of us are. The thing is, it's not the words themselves that define who we are, it's the meanings behind them that say it all. It's not who I am on the outside that counts, but it's who I am inside, at my core.

There are so many words in our language that we can choose to define us: smart, kind, encouraging, unique, funny, sarcastic, happy ...

At Harding, one word that can describe our campus is Christian. It's one word that says so much about who we are. It sets us apart from the world and says we are going to live our lives differently. We're going to be in this world, but not be of it. It means we are committing our lives to following the teachings of Christ.

I pray as you read this today and many years from now, you find the words that will define you and that you will see their underlying meanings while you continue to grow and be defined as a child of God.

—Cynthia Noah, editor in chief

Trying to get the steps right, junior J.P. Allen and sophomore Travis Eslinger play Dance Dance Revolution in Keller Hall Feb. 14. "I wish I was better because I would play it a lot more," Allen, who was playing the game for the first time, said. —Chelsea Roberson

Carrying the flag, junior Josh Lee leads the Rhodes Rowdies to cheer on the Bisons at the Jan. 16 game against Central Arkansas University. "[School spirit] plays a huge role in the outcome of a lot of the games," Lee said. •Jonathan Lindsay

Maneuvering around President David Burks, junior Matt Kiefer attempts to make a shot as freshman Lindsey Fielder and Jeff Morgan, men's basketball coach, assist Jan. 16 during chapel in the Benson Auditorium. The Student Association sponsored the chapel program to serve as a reminder for students to attend the basketball games. •Chelsea Roberson
