

We are a student body of more than 6,800 people from 49 states and 53 countries. Our varied backgrounds and talents have led us to pursue different goals for our degrees, activities and social lives. Despite these differences, we are also the same. We have all had to force ourselves to make friends and to try new experiences. Over time, our unfamiliar dorm hallways full of new faces have become a support system of close friends. The once faceless names of the students on our freshman class rosters now hold important places in our hearts. This is our family that we rely on to carry us through hard decisions and moments when giving up seems to be the only option. They might not be especially extraordinary in the eyes of the world, but to us, they mean everything. Together we have built deeply rooted relationships strong enough to withstand the trials of life. We are thankful for the permanent impression these people have made on us, as they molded us into something better than we ever could have become on our own. Above all, we are grateful that, on the road to find ourselves, we connected with each other.

Appreciation

The completion of the 2013 Petit Jean depended on the dedication and encouragement of several people. Thank you to Dennis McCarty, administrative assistant, for always being willing to discuss AP style and grammar rules as well as answering all of our other questions. Thank you to Walsworth Publishing Company for all of your help with the production of this book. Special thanks to Tod Traughber, local representative, and Jill Fowler, in-plant consultant, for providing us with all of the information and materials needed for the book. Thank you so much to Katie Ramirez, director of student publications, for always being willing to brainstorm and discuss all of our ideas for the book. Your advice and expertise are invaluable to this publication.

The Petit Jean is located on the second floor of the Hammon Student Center in room 211. Any correspondence can be sent to the Petit Jean | Harding University Box 10812 | Searcy, Ark. 72149-0001. Students enrolled in 12 credit hours or more both semesters have paid sufficient general fees to cover the $30 cost of the yearbook. Depending on their enrollment status for the year, others are charged full or half price. The Petit Jean is a member of the Arkansas College Media Association, the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the Associated Collegiate Press Hall of Fame.

The 2013 Petit Jean is my eighth yearbook to complete. Since the ninth grade, I have thrived off of the writing, editing, designing and conceptualization that goes into making a yearbook. Over the years, I have learned that yearbooks are much more important than they seem. Many schools have cut the yearbook out of the budget because they no longer see a need for a printed publication when people have free access to social media tools that allow them to instantly share information. For these schools I am sad. You see, the truth is that a yearbook is much more than a bunch of stories, photos and captions that a staff of 15 students puts together on Tuesday nights. A yearbook is a history book that records the events of the year. It allows us to document the important details that would otherwise easily be forgotten. It is the one publication that has been around since Harding's establishment in 1924. The Petit Jean is Harding's legacy, and it is for that reason that I chose Legacy as the theme of this book.

My goal for this year was to create a yearbook that could be a reference book for years to come. Throughout this book you will find facts, statistics, and establishment dates recorded for the first time in one single document. My hope is that this book will provide students, faculty, staff and alumni with a "gold book" that is a compilation of Harding's Legacy.

Dr. Ken Neller unexpectedly passed away Jan. 10, 2012, from a heart attack. Neller, 58, was an important member of both the Harding and Searcy communities, serving as a professor of Bible and Greek since 1992 and as a preacher and elder at Downtown Church of Christ.

Coach John Prock

July 17, 2012, Harding lost a longstanding and integral member of its athletic community, Coach John Prock, who served as the Bison football coach from 1960 to 1987. Prock's successful career included membership in several halls of fame, four National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics Coach of the Year awards and a position as Dean of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference. After 64 years of marriage to his wife, Charlene, Prock preceded three children, eight grandchildren, three step-grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren in death.
