Foreword

The mystery of life is love, which radiant joys unfold;
As we receive it from above, and dear at Harding hold.

Devoted souls that guide our thoughts, and for our welfare strive;
The faculty that love has bought, to keep its flame alive.

'Tis in God's book, a story clear that captivates the soul;
And in our study, this is dear—our Christ, and heav'n the goal.

Our lives with purity are blessed; and godly virtues true,
And thus we choose some of the best to represent our school.

The fellowship of classmates here, with joy our beings fill—
And in our memories ever near, they're kept by God's goodwill.

By literature and cultured arts, aesthetic taste is given;
And they become a tender part of striving on to Heaven.

The times of laughter, fun, and wit; our functions and our dates,
The social lives of each one fit, and friendships consecrate.

The academy of Harding is with eager youth adorned,
Where character and love are stressed, and souls for Christ are born.

Our sports with competition keen, and with athletic skill
Are dedicated to fair play, and tempered with goodwill.

The love that blossoms in our hearts, we share with one another;
And happy homes become a part of fellowship together.

The mystery of life is love, which radiant joys unfold,
As we receive it from above, and dear at Harding hold.

—JOE CANNON

OUR

1947 PETIT JEAN

to

L. E. PRYOR

For the years of humble unassuming service that he has rendered to Harding College, for the inspiration of his honest and upright Christian character, we, the Senior Class of 1947 gratefully dedicate the PETIT JEAN to L. E. PRYOR.

WARD K. HALBERT

(Assistant to the President, 1942-46)

1892-1946

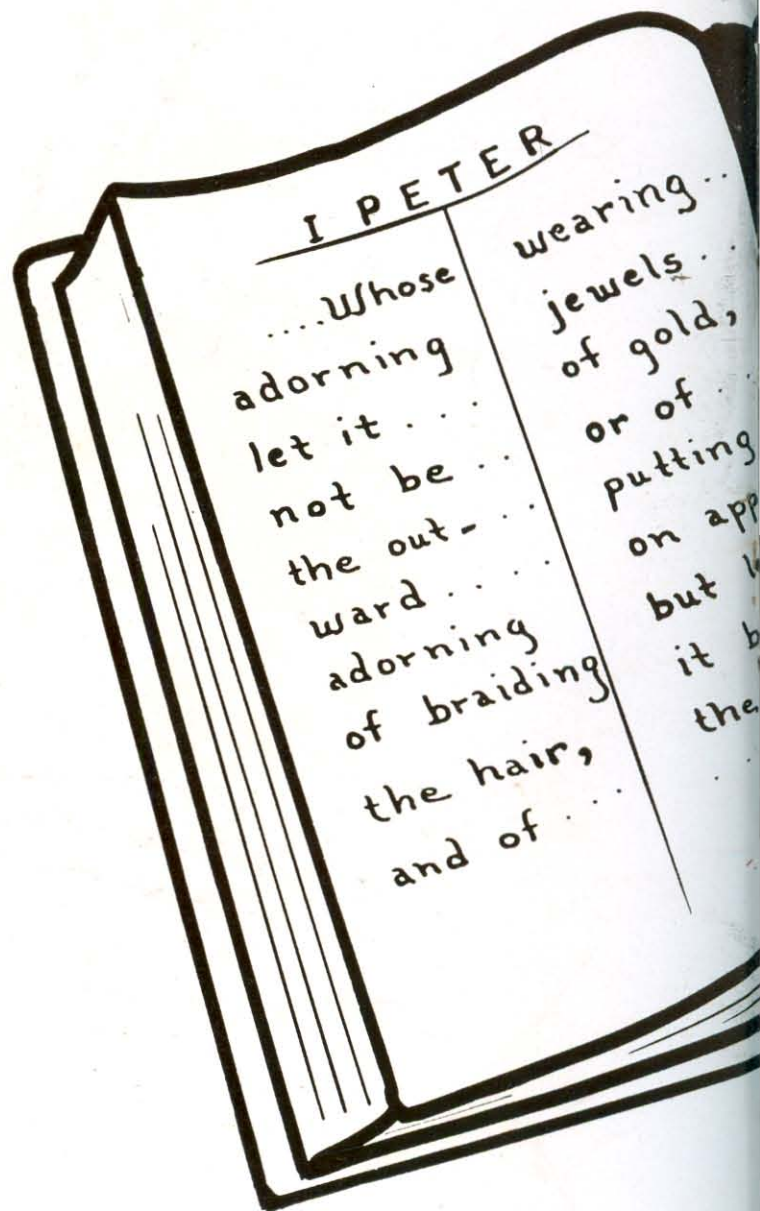

— 30 —

---

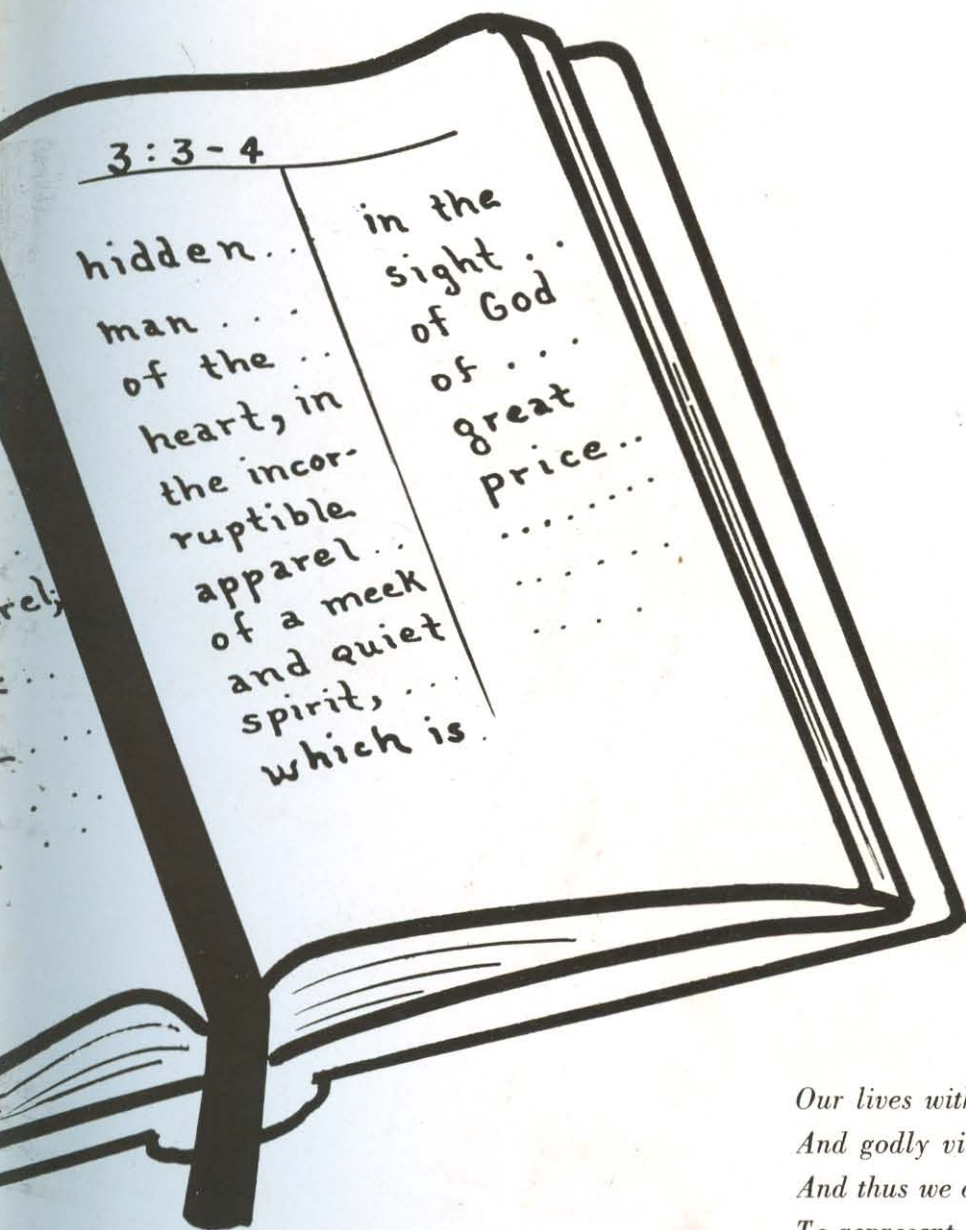

*"Life's race well run,
Life's work well done,
Life's crown well won,
Now comes rest."*

He was a man who was quiet and unassuming in Christian service, a champion of the poor and unfortunate, and a helper of all who came to him with their problems. He was a man who "just liked words" and who found joy and success in a journalistic career. This is the memory those who knew him have of Ward K. Halbert.

In Memoriam

GEORGE RUSSELL JOHNSON

1928 - 1947

"A youth to whom was given so much of earth—so much of heaven."

He was but a youth when God called him home; but he was strong in faith, noble in life, mature in judgment and stalwart in body. He was quiet, unassuming and courteous, deporting himself as a real Christian gentleman. His friendliness drew all closer to the people of Canada, his native country. He was a pre-engineering student and had come to know the great Engineer and His rules for building true manhood — the greatest of all structures. His last speech on Saturday evening before the accident the following morning is an exhortation to all — "Keep your eyes on Christ."

INCOME TAX

As a result of the expected income tax cut in 1947, individuals are beginning procedures to let their salaries for this month run over until January before drawing.

It is indicated by recent reports reaching Washington that farmers are finding it the easiest to delay income beyond the December 31st deadline. They are beginning to hold back sales on non-perishable commodities.

However, the average salaried worker will have little opportunity to take advantage of this expected reduction. The payment of taxes and interest before the deadline is his only chance, if he can do it.

INDUSTRIES AGAIN IN LINE
Eight hundred and eighty thousand idle workers are now returning to their respective jobs throughout the nation. Of these workers 400,000 are striking miners and 150,000 are furloughed rail workers. Most organizations expect to resume operations within a week.

William Blizzard, UNW District 17 president, said: "The men are very sore, but they'll carry out orders and go back to work. They're not sore at Mr. Lewis, but they are very sore at President Truman and (Interior Secretary) Krug for forcing the situation in such a manner."

JUST IN CASE YOU HAVEN'T HEARD

Shot—In Logansport, Indiana, a woman who was fatally shot by a hunter who mistook her for a turtle crawling along the river bank, as she sailed past in a boat.

Appointed—By President Truman, D. Max Gardner, former governor of N. Carolina, as ambassador to Great Britain.

Dismissed—Federal charges against James C. Pettillo, president of the American Federation of Musicians, by a Chicago judge who held the Lea Act unconstitutional.

Enrollment To Be Completed Monday Preceding Holidays

Those who wish to complete their enrollment before December 29th, registration date, must finish it on Monday, December 16, according to Dr. W. K. Summitt, registrar. On this day advisors will be available for conference, and it is believed that all pre-registration can be cared for. Each student has been assigned a personal advisor and a curriculum advisor.

Courses not to be offered again until the winter term of 1946-49 are: Synthesis 212, Prose and Poetry of the Golden Age, and Biology 215. Hereby:

English 101 will be repeated this term for those entering in January, and a new course, English 100, will be offered for those who wish to improve their skill and rapidity in reading.

G. C. Brewer will be teaching courses in "Problems of the church and Doctrinal Problems," Thursdays and Fridays at 2:15 and 3:15 respectively. Bible classes at these hours will meet irregularly, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays, to allow students to attend these classes.

Alvin Hobby is to teach a course in "Missionary Technique," Bible 255, at 3:15 Tuesday, Wednesday, and Saturday.

History 209, "History of the Frontier" which has not been given for several years, will be offered again under Dr. Frank Rhodes. Mathematics 100 on the schedule is to be changed to Trigonometry 105 for the benefit of those who wish to take Analytic in the spring and Calculus next year. Another course which has not been offered for some time that will be given this winter is Education 210, "Curriculum Development."

Saturday Is Date For Annual Christmas Dinner

Highlighting the social calendar for the week will be the formal Christmas dinner, held annually for boarding students, in the college dining room at 7:00 p. m., Saturday, December 14, under the sponsorship of the GATAS. Musical numbers for the evening's program are being arranged by Mrs. Florence Jewell.

The dinner will be served by members of the GATA club.

As it will be necessary to seat everyone in the way they come in, it is requested that those desiring to sit together at the dinner be in line that way.

Once Active Club Is Reorganized By Home Ec Head

The Harding Home Economics Club is now being reorganized by Mrs. S. A. Bell, head of the department of home economics, according to an announcement made last week. The club has been inactive during the last few years when Mrs. Bell was at the University of Chicago working on her Ph.D. degree.

The club is affiliated nationally with the American Home Economics Association for Colleges, regionally with the association for Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee, and with the state association for Arkansas.

The club will be in two divisions. One of these will be for home economics majors only, and will be the affiliate of the national association. It will carry out the projects set forth by this association.

The other division will be the local group for anyone interested, and will function as a hobby group.

Meetings will be carried on in the manner of a workshop. Business will be transacted by committees and con-

Large Chorus Sings For Radio Program In Sunday Broadcast

Sunday morning the first radio program of the Searcy churches of Christ utilizing the services of the large chorus was presented over station KLRA, Little Rock.

Plans were made several weeks ago to carry out this method of presenting a program of hymns before the regular address by some minister of one of the two congregations, but were necessarily postponed pending the arrival of new equipment essential to their completion. It is believed that the services of this large group will enhance greatly the quality of the weekly program, and already several appreciative comments have been made on the part of those who listen regularly to the broadcast.

Operation of the new equipment is under the supervision of Dr. Joseph E. Pryor. The chorus is under the direction of Prof. Andy T. Ritchie, and Bill Collins is serving as announcer.

Three Debate Teams Make Jackson Trip For First Tourney

Three teams from Harding entered the annual warm-up debate tournament, held this year at Millsap College, Jackson, Mississippi, last Friday and Saturday.

Those making the trip were: Emmet Smith, coach, Bill Harris, Joe Cannon, Summie Swin, Guthrie Dean, Charles Draper and Charles Stovall.

All three teams cleared the first day's competition. In the senior division, the team of Swin and Dean reached the quarter-finals before being eliminated.

Seven states were represented in the tournament, and included in the competition were teams from such schools as the University of Florida, L. S. U., and Mississippi State.

The group stopped over enroute to Geraldine Young, Janet Rea, Thelda Healy, Lois Church, Dorothy Manger, Lou Dugger, Lois Hemingway and Jo O'Neil have been named by the Harding boys' social clubs as those girls on the campus most nearly possessing the qualities attributes required to become contestants in the Petit Jean Queen general election to be held in chapel tomorrow.

Chosen by popular vote last week, the girl who obtains a majority vote of the entire student body will be crowned Queen of the Petit Jean at the formal yearbook dedication near the end of the school year. One of the highest social honors offered on the Harding campus, its recipient is expected to be endowed with all the virtues and to have typical school spirit.

Geraldine Young, classified as a senior, is a business administration major who comes from Bartlesville, Okla.

Janet Rea, accounting major, is from Cordell, Oklahoma, and served the chorus last year as its pianist.

With English as a major, Thelda Healy comes from Fort Collins, Colorado.

Lois Church, business administration senior from Nashville, is an active member of the press club, serving this year as co-circulation manager of the Bison.

Lois Dugger, Texas junior who calls Hillsboro home, is also an English major.

From Hickory Ridge, Arkansas, comes Dorothy Manger, last year's Queen of the May Day fête.

Lois Hemingway, senior from Detroit and home economics major, heads the 1946-47 Petit Jean staff.

Directed by Coach M. E. "Pinky" Berryhill, Harding's Intramural Sports Program was more than a success this year. This is Coach Berryhill's first year back at Harding after a leave of absence during which time he attended Peabody College and served in the Navy.

The primary purpose of Harding's Program of Intramurals is to encourage every student to take part in athletic competition and to gain all the advantages of a well-played game.

This year due to the increase in enrollment, the sport's department is awarding jackets to the top ten men. Points are awarded for performance, sportmanship, and leadership.

"GO WEST,"

said Horace Greeley...

And west they went in thousands—far sighted and courageous. Out of a mighty wilderness they forced an empire—resplendent, beyond their wildest dreams.

Little did they know that in going they turned their backs on riches the like of which history has never known.

Greeley would be amazed today. Gold is here!—Black—but in far greater abundance. And land—endless stretches of fertile soil—literally steeped in Bauxite, Coal, Iron, Sulphur, Lignite, Salt and Diamonds—right here in our own wonderland—the SOUTH.

To you, her future leaders, we say, "Stay South."
