Central Church, Valdosta, Ga. 3-14-78

LAST SUMMER a girl told her sweetheart she couldn't think of marrying him until he had saved at least a thousand dollars.

Towards the end of the year, she asked him how much he had saved.

"Oh, about thirty-five dollars."

"Well," she said, "that's close enough."

"Thank you," said the man. "We have chains. Please don't worry."

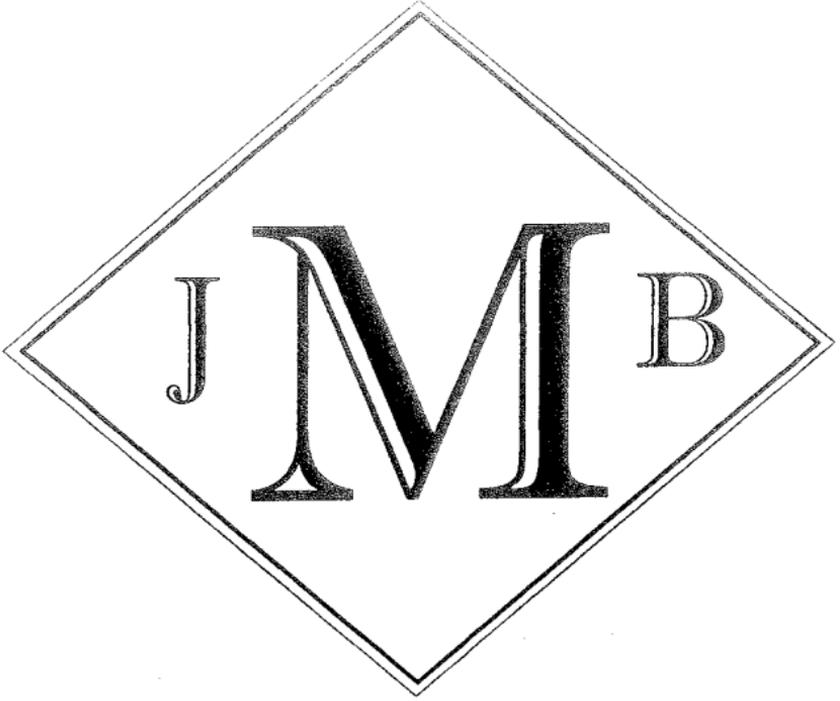

At the kitchen door, Mrs. McGinnis turned back to them. "Make yourselves at home; I won't be long."

Sandra and David were already looking around the

*To love others makes us happy;
to love ourselves makes us lonely.*

It is not our fault. Abraham Lincoln put it aptly when he explained the reputation of a village scoundrel by saying: "He's got the can't-help'its." The man was forever explaining his behavior in terms of people and things over which he had no control. Other people made him the way he was and he could not help it. The world is full of people who have "the can't-help-its." Persons who learn nothing from unwise decisions and find no means for growth in hurts brought upon themselves.
