We live in a land of constant beginnings — new concepts, new technological developments, new people — and yet we consider the past and benefit from the ideas, inventions, and historical personalities which comprise our heritage. Because of the emphasis on our history throughout the preparation and celebration of the bicentennial year, Harding, aware of the threshold in time, proposed the theme, "A New Beginning — Rise and Shine." The Student Association initially derived this concept from Proverbs 4:18, "But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day." Each individual at Harding was encouraged to adopt this as his personal plan for the 1975-76 year.

Harding's "New Beginning" had many facets which were evident throughout the year. Peaking all-time enrollments, a body of 2,601 students and 137 faculty members initiated the academic year on August 24. The opening of the 300-capacity New Women's Dormitory was advantageous for the added population while the freshly renovated Hendrix Building enabled the nursing program to materialize after months of preparation. The Hendrix installation also benefited the Home Economics Department with new equipment and classrooms. In February, the building program saw another "New Beginning — Rise and Shine" with the opening of the $2.8 million gymnasium.

Paralleling the physical growth of the facilities at Harding, the students grew in other, perhaps more subtle, avenues of life. On the spiritual level, growth was nurtured by devotionals held in dorms, Shores Chapel, and at the Lily Pool on Thursday evenings. For many people, spiritual growth came from associations with faculty members, friends, and families of the community. These bonds were a beginning for those new to Harding, while old ties were strengthened. Intellectual growth was evident by long hours and diligent efforts spent in the library, labs, classes, and dorm rooms. While academic areas were stressed, much encouragement was given to the student body to learn to interact with those around us and develop concern and love for others. Service projects such as the Toy and Dolly Drive at Christmas time for children's homes and the Red Cross Blood Drive gave opportunity to help friends and make friends.

"A New Beginning" seemed a very appropriate idea with the arrival of the Bicentennial Anniversary of the country: for the birthday was not only a time to recall the past, but to mold the future. While noting this special occasion of history with events such as Robert Pierpoint's visit, the designation of Harding as a Bicentennial campus, the presentation of the Arkansas Continental Color Guard, and the American Studies trip to Washington D.C., Harding has traditionally stressed Americanism. Dr. Kenneth D. Wells, president of Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge made the following statement about the emphasis given to American Ideals and principles at Harding College: "The program in American Citizenship education at Harding College is one of the greatest things being done in America."

After the initial goal of beginning is accomplished, there must be a followthrough or "Rise and Shine." At the dawn, the sun peers over the horizon, flashing the first rays of a new day. We, like the sun, cannot remain on the horizon. There must be an ascent upward to illuminate the full day. We must light our lives in every aspect whether religious, social, academic, or physical. In bringing ourselves to "full day" we give light to others.

In starting anything new, certain things should be remembered and other things forgotten. We can recall the beneficial lessons taught to us by past mistakes and the numerous good times given to us. With each season of the 75-76 year, happy memories were created. Other events such as wrongs done to us and unavoidable mistakes made should be deleted from our thoughts if we are to begin each new day in the right framework.

While eventful beginnings directly effected Harding Students, world happenings were of major concern for many. Campus interest reached high proportions as Patty Hearst was finally captured but as subsequent months revealed, her saga had only begun. Two assassination attempts on President Ford shocked the nation and started a controversy on presidential security. More controversy raged over Mrs. Ford's frank views on marriage and abortion. South Vietnamese troops were evacuated and many refugees were brought to the U.S., including Fort Chaffee at Fort Smith, Arkansas. Bussing in Louisville prompted demonstrations and teacher strikes were rampant all over the country. Inflation continued with the price of postage going up three cents on first class mail.

Yet America began celebrating its existence in that world with its 200 year anniversary. Harding was assured of its place in the celebration when it was named a Bicentennial campus.

In the sports world, T.V. sets were crowded around as students watched Cincinnati win the World Series in seven games and the Pittsburgh Steelers take its second straight Super Bowl victory.

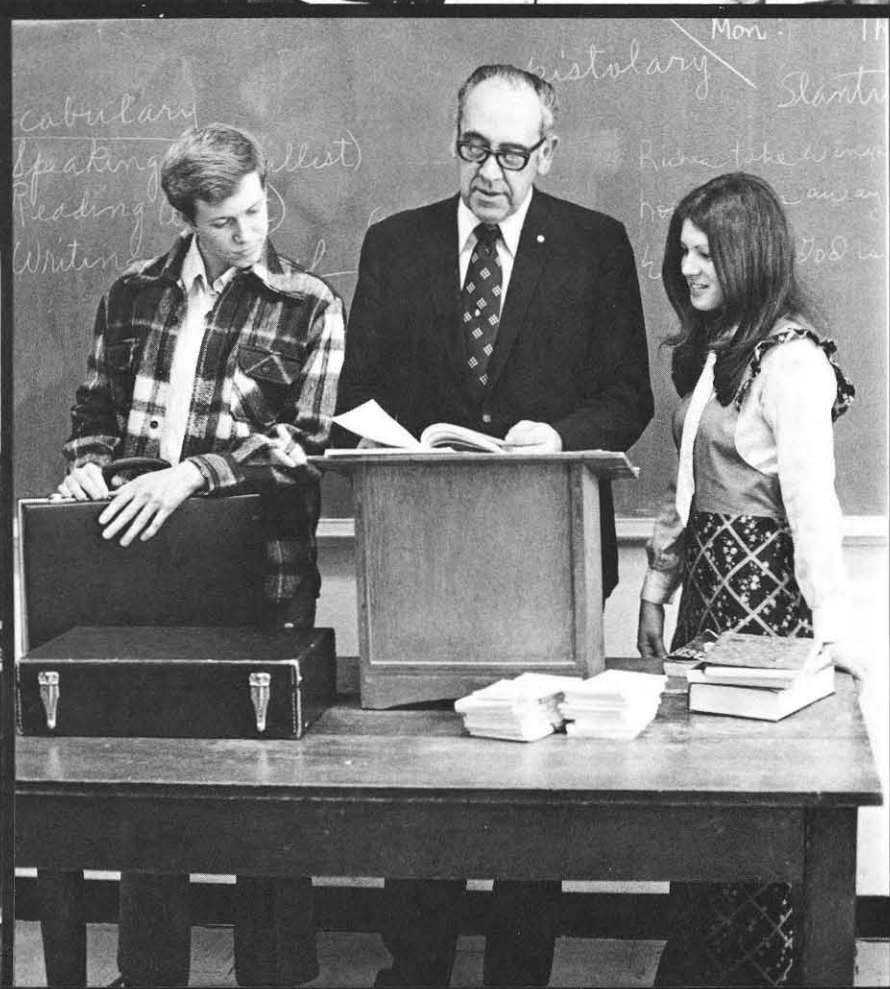

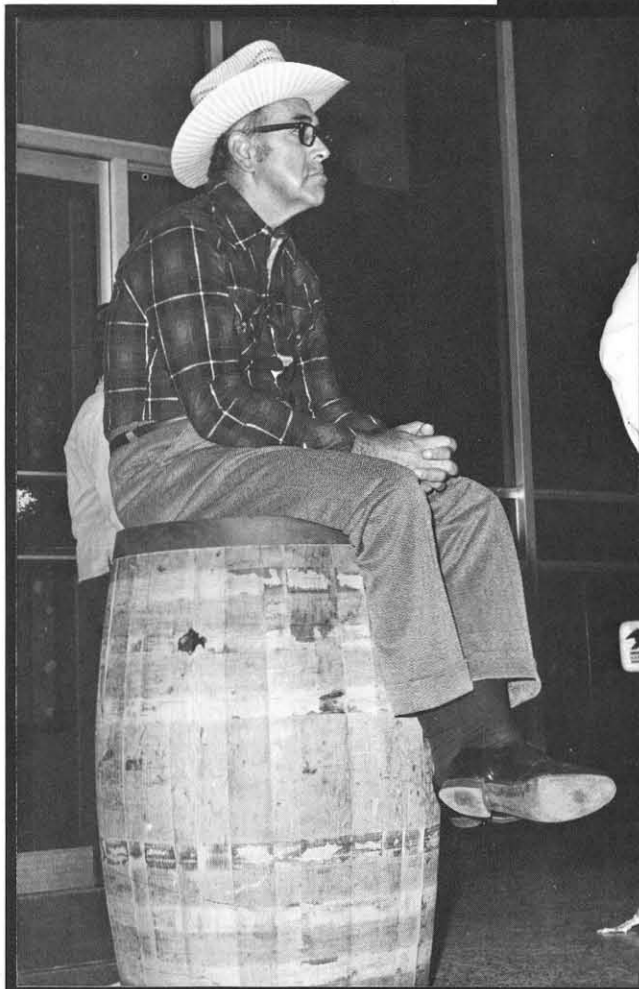

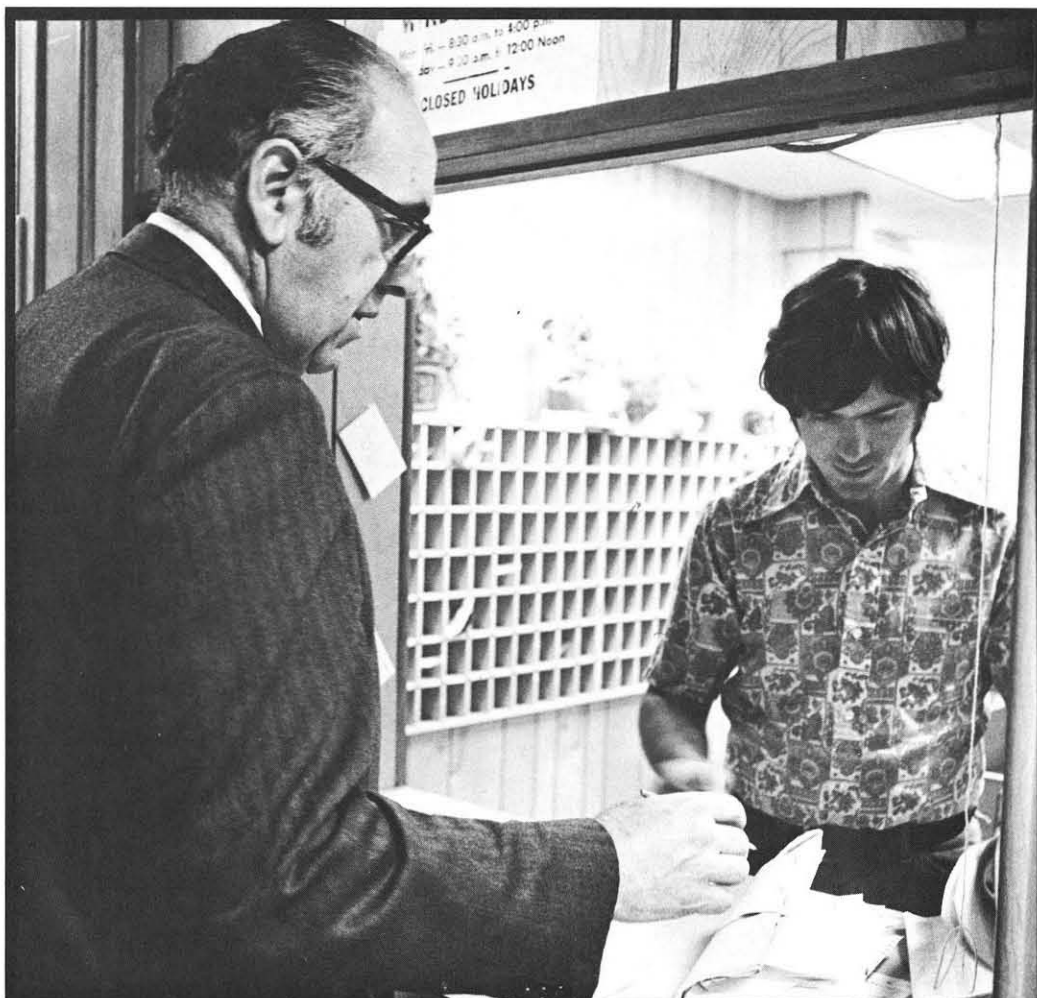

From the time we are small children, we find those whom we look to as examples. These "hero figures" capture our respect, love, admiration, and devotion. We carry these feelings even to adulthood for those strong personalities who effect our lives. One such figure in the lives of many Harding students is Mr. Ed White. Mr. White, in addition to serving the students as English professor, is an active sponsor of Kings Men Social Club.

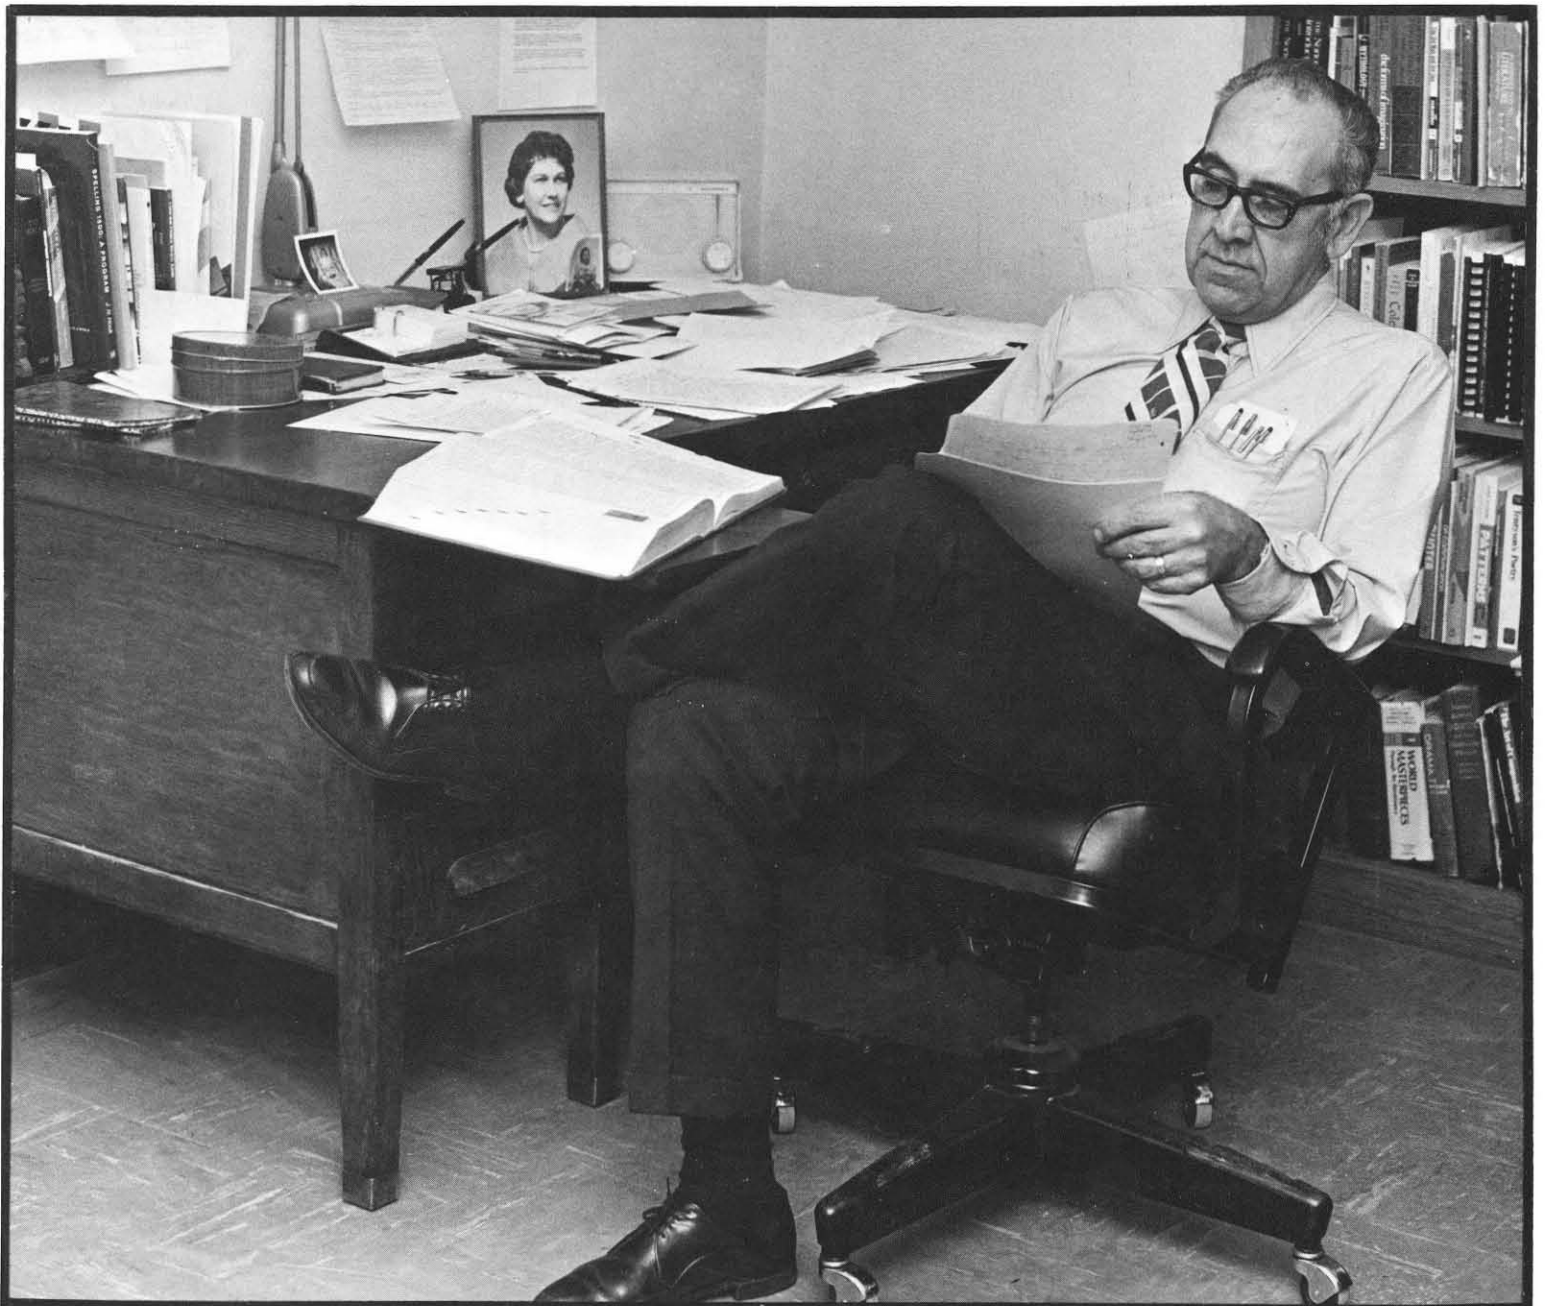

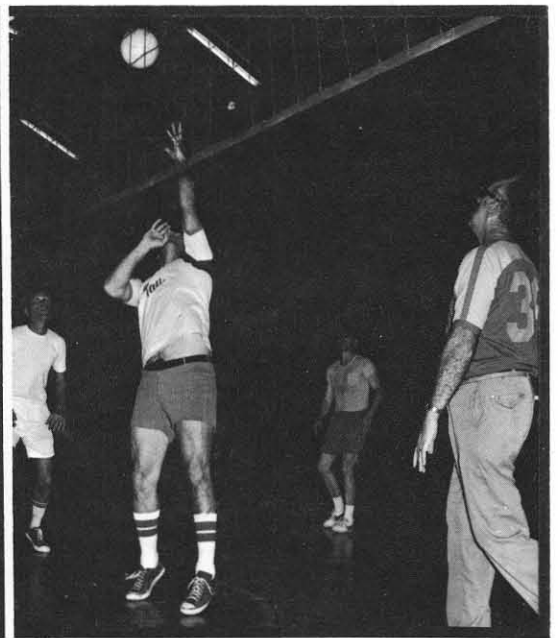

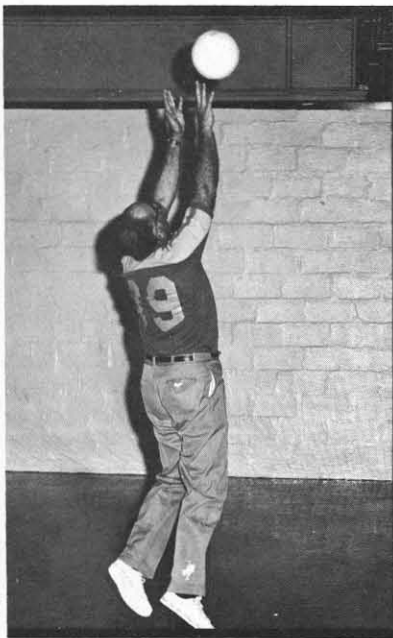

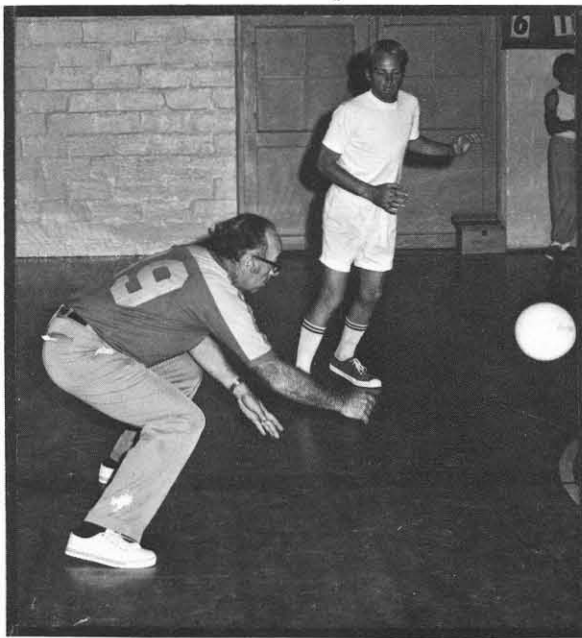

An avid sports fan, he plays intramurals and serves on the athletic committee.

In the community, Mr. White is on the board of the Searcy Optimist Club. He has donated eight gallons of blood to the Red Cross.

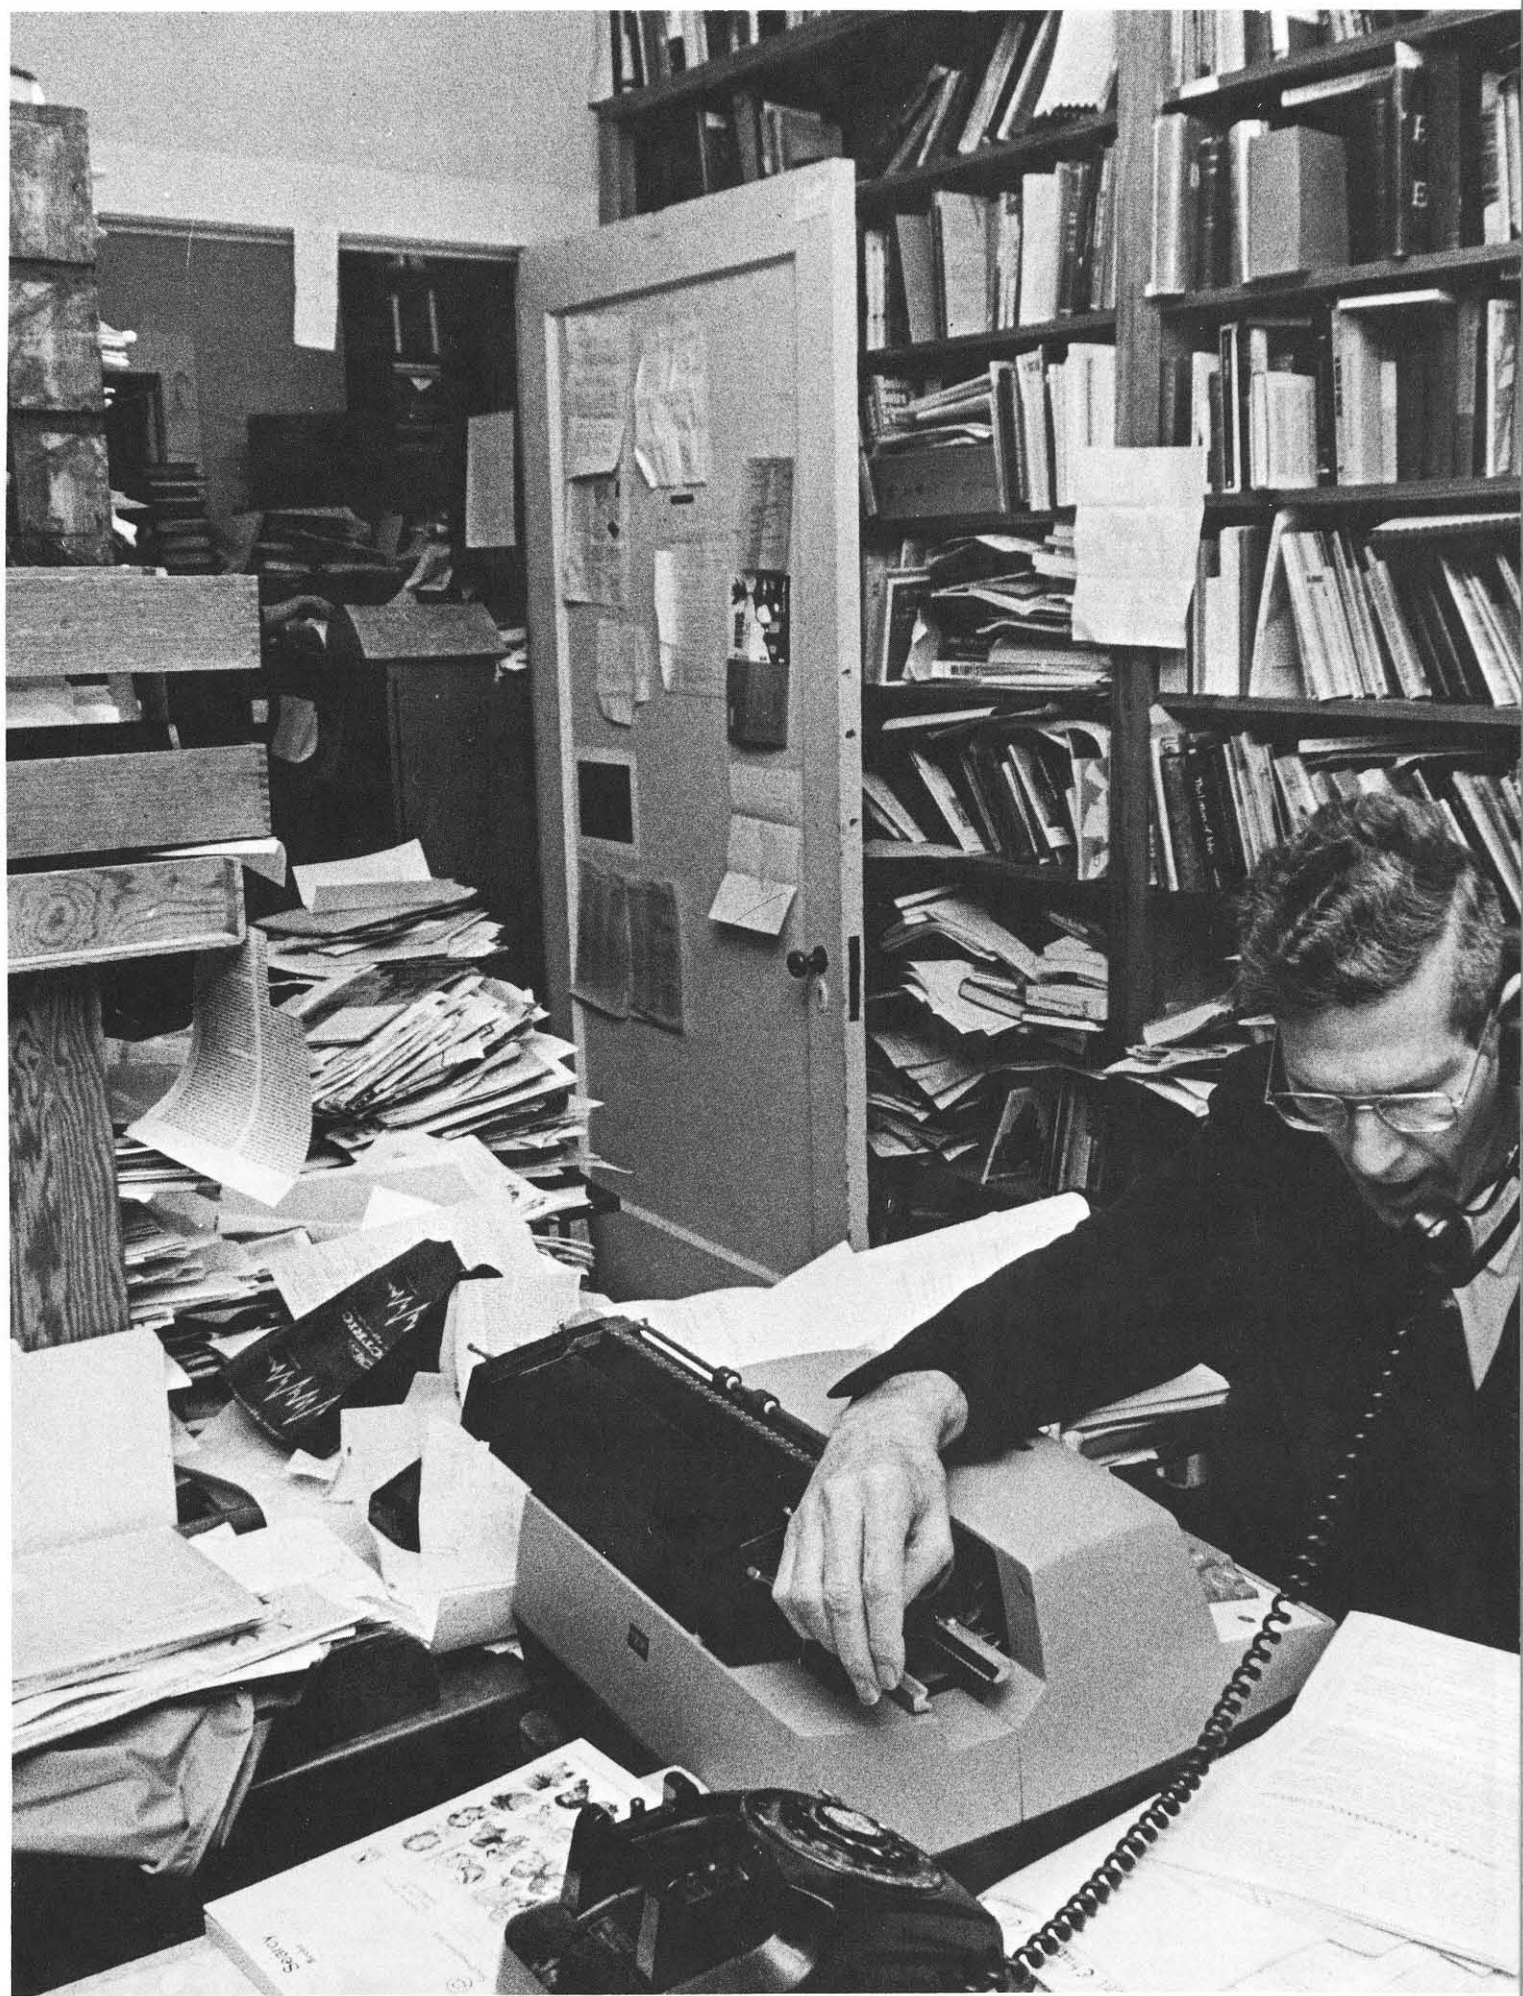

He and his wife Evelyn have three children.

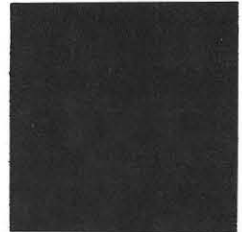

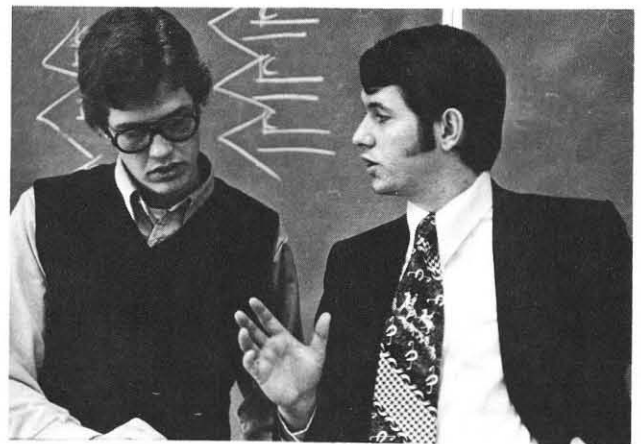

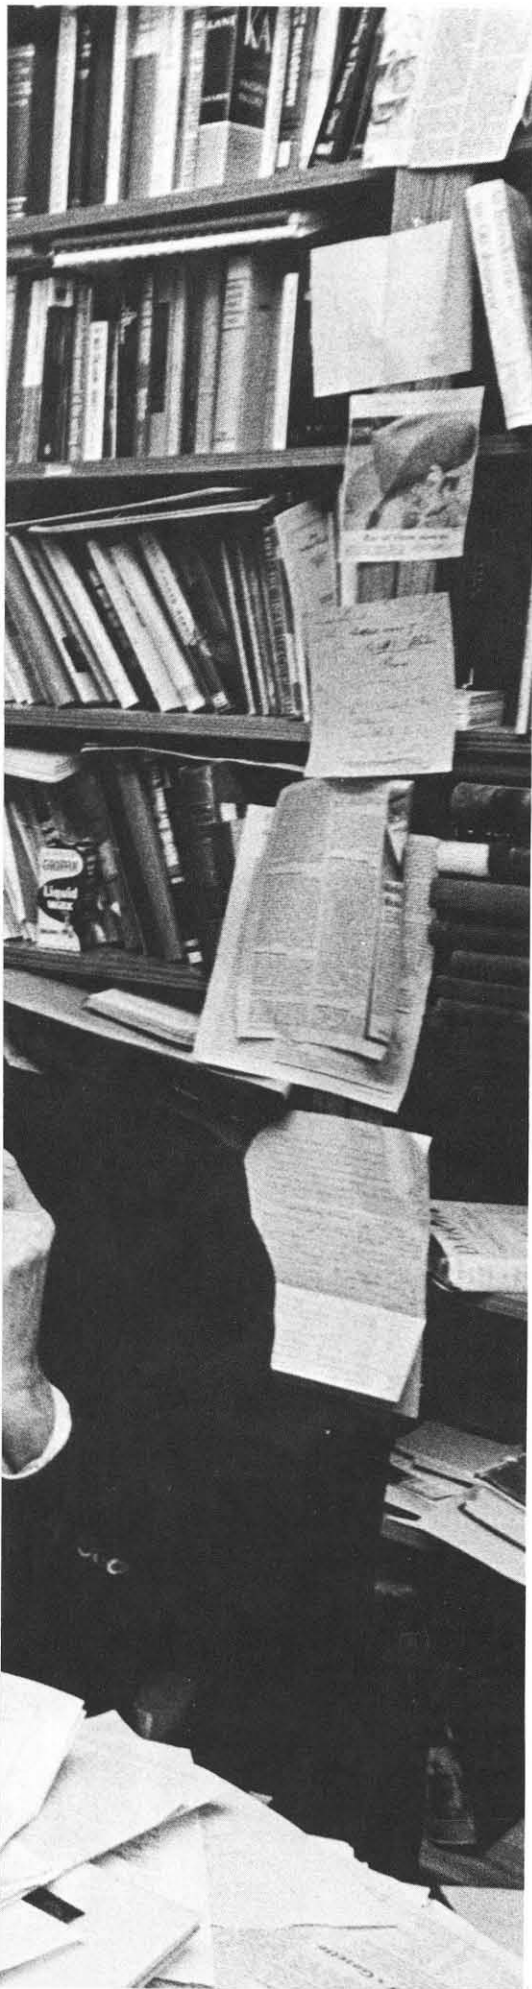

It is the privilege of the Senior Class to dedicate the 1976 Petit Jean to Mr. Ed White.

ACADEMICS

Dr. Ganus speaks in commemoration of the Bicentennial

CLIFTON L. GANUS, Ph.D., in addition to his heavy duties in administration and development as president of Harding College, maintained a busy schedule of speaking. His scholarly background in American history made him a popular speaker for the bicentennial year. He was a keynote speaker for Citizenship Seminars in Texas, Arkansas, Missouri, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota.

In March, he spoke for the 53rd national meeting of the Producers and Texas Livestock Marketing Association in Kansas City. He was also the speaker for the $100-per-plate-fund-raising dinner at Freed-Hardeman College and he dedicated the Christian Services Building at Lubbock Christian College. "The Birth of America" was the speech he delivered over KNOE-TV in Monroe, La.

During the summer of 1975 he traveled to Spain, Portugal, and Morocco to study the culture of these countries and the influence of communism there. He served as president of the Arkansas Foundation of Associated Colleges, participated in the Governor's Conference on Post-Secondary Education and the Southwestern Bell Economic Seminar, and he conferred in Washington with Arkansas senators and representatives on legislation affecting higher education.

1. VISITING with his son Cliff, daughter Debbie, and daughter-in-law Debbie, Dr. Ganus attends the annual Black and Gold Banquet. 2. BOARDING the college plane, Dr. Ganus prepares for another trip in the interest of Christian education. 3. CLIFTON GANUS laughs as he celebrates the beginning of another year. 4. DILIGENTLY working during "Pizza Hut's Harding Night," Dr. Ganus helps raise money for Harding College. 5. A TYPICALLY interesting cheerleaders' skit amuses Dr. Ganus. 6. IMITATING the actions of his granddaughter, Clifton Ganus hugs Johnna's new rag doll. 7. DR. GANUS congratulates Kirk Davis at the Olen Hendrix Building dedication. 8. IN the middle of a hectic day, Dr. Ganus takes a break with his wife, Louise. 9. PRESIDENT GANUS. 10. CONVERSING with track team members, Dr. Ganus enjoys attending meet. 11. AT THE Student Association's fall reception for new students, President Ganus shows his interest in the real business of Christian education.

Dr. Cox oversees growing American Studies organization

BILLY RAY COX, M.B.A., LL.D., C.P.A., Vice President, traveled extensively contacting foundations and individuals for gifts to the $11.3 million Phase III Development Program. As visiting lecturer for the University of Arkansas Industrial Research and Extension Center, he conducted seminars in many Arkansas cities. He served as director of the American Studies Program and in March sponsored a nine-day study tour to Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, and Williamsburg in commemoration of the national bicentennial. He was instrumental in obtaining the DEC PDP 11/45 computer which became operational during the fall semester.

Cox received many invitations to address important conventions. Among these were the Power and Communications Contractors Association in Bermuda, the Wisconsin State Telephone Association in Madison, the Central Arkansas Personnel Association in Hot Springs, and the Mid-South Management Conference in Biloxi, Mississippi. He received an award from the Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge for his speech, "Our American Heritage of Great Values." "Rebirth of a Nation" was another one of his speeches relating to the Bicentennial Celebration.

He serves as a deacon of the College Church of Christ and teaches a Sunday morning Bible class for college students.

1. AS ASSOCIATE professor of business, Dr. Cox lectures on the key points in American business law. 2. VICE-PRESIDENT COX. 3. BILLY RAY COX and Michele Pullara display the spirit of the Bicentennial on the patriotic Junior class Homecoming float.

Dr. Pryor honored by national societies and student groups

JOSEPH E. PRYOR, Ph.D., Vice President of Academic Affairs and Dean of the College, served the students in various roles — teacher, academic counselor, advisor to several activities, and personal friend.

Pryor was elected president of the Arkansas Deans Association for 1975-76 at the annual meeting on October 6-7 in Jonesboro. He was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the National Council of Alpha Chi for a four-year term at the October 24-25 meeting of the Council in Dallas. Speaking at the 1975 meeting of the Associated Collegiate Press in St. Louis and chairing a discussion session at the Governor's Conference on Post-Secondary education in Little Rock were November activities of the Dean. He also installed chapters of Alpha Chi in Arkansas, Kansas, North Dakota, and Tennessee. He represented Alpha Chi at the annual meeting of the Association of College Honor Societies in Indianapolis in February. He was elected vice president of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in December.

On campus he served as advisor to the Petit Jean, completing 32 years of service to yearbook staffs, and as one of the sponsors of the TNT social club and of the Arkansas Eta Chapter of Alpha Chi. Pryor served as an elder of the College Church of Christ and as chairman of the worship committee.

1. DR. JOSEPH E. PRYOR, Dean of the College. 2. ACTING in his capacity as Alpha Chi sponsor, Dr. Pryor officially initiates an inductee into the honor society. 3. ALONG with his wife Bessie Mae, Dr. Joe Pryor relaxes after a challenging day. 4. DR. PRYOR, AIC official, controls the clock at a Bison basketball game. 5. YEARBOOK editor, Andrea Mannen, and Joseph Pryor, sponsor, look over some Petit Jean layouts. 6. IN the classroom, Dr. Pryor, professor of physical science, teaches in addition to his duties as Dean.

Civic activities and campus duties keep Dr. Carr occupied

JAMES F. CARR, JR., EdD., Assistant to the President, served on many faculty committees, promoted public relations in Searcy, and directed the summer session. His friendly smile and his greeting, "It's great to be at Harding," endeared him to students, fellow faculty members, and patrons of the college. He worked closely with the Alumni Association and the Downtown Bison Boosters in promoting various campus activities.

During the past year, he served as president of the Searcy Kiwanis Club, chairman of the Civic Improvement Committee of the Searcy Chamber of Commerce, and chairman of the White River District Boy Scouts of America. He was a member of the Arkansas Advisory Committee on Vocational/Technical Education, the Board of Directors of the Sunshine School, the Board of Directors of the Delta-Hills Health Systems Agency, and the Executive Board of the Quapaw Council Boy Scouts of America.

Carr served as a deacon of the College Church of Christ.

Tucker delegates $2.9 million budget for athletic coliseum

LOTT R. TUCKER., B.A., Vice President for Finance and Business Manager, administered an operational budget of $12,500,000 for 1975-76 and supervised the construction of the $2.9 million physical education-gymnasium complex so that it was ready for use by the beginning of the spring semester. He made numerous trips to Dallas and Washington, D. C., to confer with various foundations and government offices. During the year, he converted the operations of his office to the computer that was installed in July, greatly speeding up the services provided by his office.

He was an active member of the Searcy Chamber of Commerce, the Searcy Planning Commission, and the Searcy Kiwanis Club. He also served on the board of the Searcy Federal Savings and Loan Association. He was a member of the Southern Association of College and University Business Officers and the National Association of College and University Business Officers.

Tucker served as an elder of the College Church of Christ and was chairman of the Building and Ground Committee and a member of the Finance Committee.

1. MR. LOTT TUCKER, Vice President of Finance. 2. TAKING time out from his busy schedule, Lott Tucker and his wife Mae Anne relax while watching an intramural softball game. 3. SUGGESTIONS on improvements in cafeteria service are discussed by Mr. Tucker and Mr. Curry.

Floyd Daniel serves as developmental adviser to college

C. FLOYD DANIEL, B.S., Vice President for Development, was busily involved in the third year of Phase III of the Decade of Development, with a total goal of $11.3 million to be raised in a five-year period. He worked closely with the development program of the Harding Graduate School of Religion in Memphis.

Daniel served as a member of the Board of Directors of Camp Wyldewood, as a fund-raising consultant to the Children's Home of Paragould, and as development consultant to Crowley's Ridge Academy in Paragould. He served as president of the Christian Service Committee and as deacon of the College Church of Christ.

1. FLOYD DANIEL, Vice President for Development. 2. HALTING in front of the Heritage, Floyd Daniel enjoys the cool day. 3. RECEPTIONIST Andee Lawyer chats with Mr. Daniel.

Registrar's office keeps occupied with increased enrollment

VIRGIL M. BECKETT, BA, began another year of work by processing a record enrollment of 2,601 during the fall semester — the largest enrollment in Harding's history. Harding also enjoyed her largest spring semester enrollment ever with 2,447.

Beckett was a member of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers. He also sat on several college committees, including the Academic Retention Committee and the Executive Committee.

1. VIRGIL BECKETT, Registrar. 2. OFFERING helpful information, Virgil Beckett answers Denise Power's questions. 3. REGISTRATION appears to be Virgil Beckett's most active time as he helps Donna Turner with her IBM packet.

Altman interested in academic and moral status of students

TED M. ALTMAN, Ed.D., effectively implemented the objectives of Harding College as Dean of Students through a broad-based "low key" approach and close personal contact with students.

Altman served as vice president of Region IV of the National Association of Student Personnel Deans and was a charter member of the Three Rivers Arkansas chapter of Phi Delta Kappa organized in the fall.

Dean Altman directed students as Foreign Student Advisor and as Veterans Advisor. He was listed in Outstanding Educators of America and Outstanding Personalities of the South. During the summer of 1975, Altman led a campaign group to Bremen, Germany.

1. TED ALTMAN, Dean of Students. 2. LEAVING chapel, Dean Altman walks with Neale Pryor. 3. CONCERNED with issues relevant to the students, Ted Altman gives his opinion at a Bison interview.

Deans Campbell, Downing strengthen ties with students

MARIBETH DOWNING, M.Ed., in her second year as Dean of Women, maintained empathetic rapport with the women students while effectively implementing the student personnel policies of the College. She also served as sponsor of the Women's Student Representative Organization and of the Women's Interclub Council. She attended the joint annual meeting of Christian College Counselors and Christian College Student Associations sponsored last fall by Freed-Hardeman College. She held membership in several national and regional guidance and student personnel organizations. For diversion, she did pen and ink sketches and watercolor paintings.

EDDIE RAY CAMPBELL, MAT, Dean of Men, supervised the induction of new members into the men's social clubs in the fall and sponsored the Conquerors at youth rallies throughout the year. He was supervisor of Harbin Hall and director of the 1975 session of Camp Salado. He was program chairman for the fall meeting of the Southwest Association of College and University Housing Officers held at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville. He served as an elder of the Downtown Church of Christ and as director of their youth activities.

Library increases staff; Alexander recruiting for 76-77

WINNIE E. BELL, M.A.L.S., after serving as assistant librarian for 16 years, was appointed head librarian effective July 1, 1975, upon the resignation of Shirley Birdsall Alexander. She served as chairman of the Resources and Technical Services Division of the Arkansas Library Association and as implementarian chairman of the Searcy branch of the American Association of University Women. She made plans to host the 1976 meeting of Christian college librarians following the spring commencement exercises.

FRED J. ALEXANDER, M.Ed., Director of Admissions, administered an admissions program that set a record enrollment of 2,601 students for the fall semester, an increase of 132 over the previous high set in the fall of 1974.

He used the Time of Day and Morningside, two popular student singing groups, effectively for student recruitment at youth meetings in various cities.

1. MISS WINNIE BELL, Librarian. 2. MANY times throughout the day, Miss Bell employs the card catalogue. 3. FRED ALEXANDER, Director of Admissions. 4. AQUAINTING students and parents with Harding, Fred Alexander converses at the freshman tea.

Research, Graduate, and Testing directors challenged daily

WYATT JONES, Ed.D., Director of Graduate Studies, joined the Harding faculty in August after having served 13 years as professor of education and director of teacher education at Pepperdine University in Los Angeles. He replaced Dr. Nyal D. Roysse.

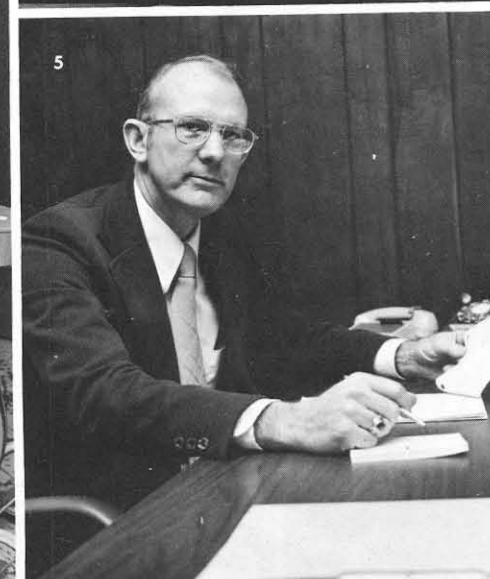

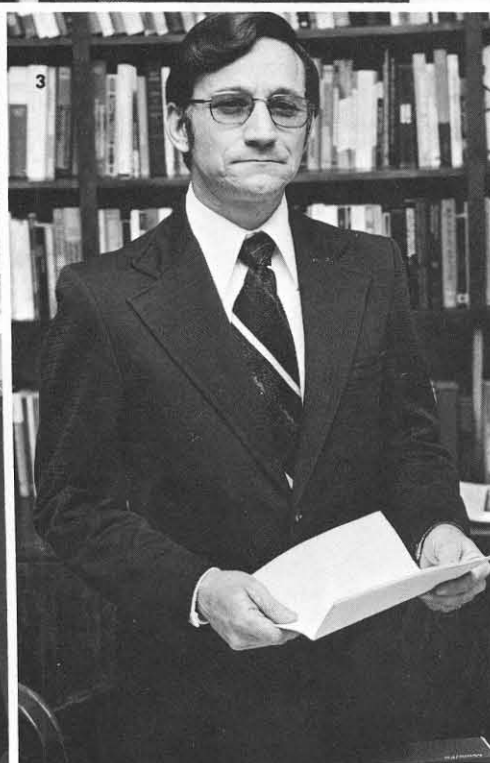

Jones hosted the annual meeting of Arkansas Graduate Deans in April and was a charter member of the Three Rivers Arkansas Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa installed in Searcy in October.

BOBBY L. COKER, Ed.D., Director of Institutional Testing, represented the institution on the Board of Department of Higher Education of AEA and was the local member of the AACTEA. He attended several workshops related to testing. Dr. Coker helped charter the Searcy chapter of Phi Delta Kappa and currently serves as its President.

HARRY D. OLREE, Ed.D., Director of Research, completed nine years of physical fitness research for NASA and also initiated a cooperative research project with Oral Roberts University on physical fitness levels in college students. He served as secretary of the NAIA Research Committee and chairman of the NAIA Medical Aspects of Sports Committee. He also worked as chairman of the Research Section of the Arkansas Association for HPER.

Olree was elected president of the Harding Alumni Association. He also acted as chairman of the committee that planned the new $2,900,000 Gymnasium-Physical Education Center.

1. WYATT JONES, Director of Graduate Studies. 2. FUNCTIONING in the capacity of testing consultant, Dr. Coker clears up questions at registration time. 3. BOBBY COKER, Director of Institutional Testing. 4. PROGRESS in fitness is charted for Layna Wheaton by Dr. Harry Olree. 5. HARRY OLREE, Director of Research.

Dr. Burt, Chairman, challenges Harding Board of Trustees

Under the chairmanship of Dr. Richard E. Burt, an alumnus of Harding College and a dentist from Richardson, Texas, the Board of Trustees exerted a strong influence on maintaining the goals and objectives of Harding College. Effective in the fall of 1975, the Board adopted a policy to eliminate overcrowding the residence halls. The Board at its fall meeting passed a resolution of thanks to the faculty and administration for the excellent job done on the Self-Study Report to the North Central Association that continued the accreditation of Harding College for the maximum period of 10 years, as announced at the July meeting of the Association. Dr. Burt implemented various means of getting the members of the Board acquainted with the faculty and students and the on-going activities of the college. James A. Thompson, who had been a member of the Board for 39 years, died at his home in Searcy on September 16.

Council donates time, effort, and money to Harding

Serving as the "eyes and ears" of Harding College in hundreds of communities throughout the nation, 305 members of the President's Development Council assisted the administration of the College in many ways. Chief among these were recruitment of students, search for qualified staff members, public relations, development, and financial contributions. In Phase III of the Development Program, the Council pledged more than $1,789,000. Completing its eleventh year of functioning, the Council met on campus twice during the year to hear reports on the College and to share ideas for implementing its program.

1. NEW MARRIED STUDENTS APARTMENTS. 2. NEW WOMEN'S DORMITORY. 3. PRESENTING lively musical numbers, the Belles and Beaux perform for the Development Council at their fall gathering. 4. HONORING Harding with his attendance, State Representative Ray Thorton congratulates the college on its growth program. 5. STUDENT speaker Kurt Picker humorously amuses the Development Council with a talk on Dr. Ganus's baseball glove. 6. OLEN HENDRIX BUILDING.

Report of the President

Harding's most precious commodity and greatest uniqueness is the student body and the complete thrust of the entire institution lies in commitment to them. There is a determined direction toward developing the student as a whole person physically, academically, socially and spiritually. This year's excellent student body is no exception to the rule.

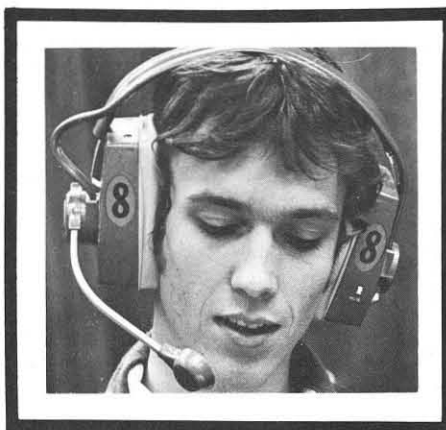

The number of students continues to climb. A record 2,601 enrolled on the Searcy campus this fall. At Harding Graduate School of Memphis another 242 registered. There are 401 at Harding Academy of Searcy and 2,925 at Harding Academy of Memphis for a total of 6,169 in the Harding family.

With the addition of numbers comes the addition of opportunities. However, with greater numbers it is increasingly more difficult to maintain the degree of closeness possible with a much smaller number. Yet the administration, faculty and staff attest to the fact that extra effort exerted toward this valuable goal is worth it.

Service-oriented professions continue to top the list in chosen careers of the students. Each year half of the graduates prepare for teaching careers. This year majors with the most numbers are business 421, education 256, Bible and missions 219, pre-professional fields 158, nursing 140, physical education 128 and home ec 119.

Extracurricular activities also reflect the desire for Christian service. About 500 students and faculty were involved in evangelistic campaigning throughout the United States and in foreign countries during the year.

In May a group of about 200 campaigners worked at 10 congregations in Little Rock to canvass the city to offer Bible courses and invitations to preaching services.

Many missionaries regularly visit the campus and a strong emphasis on world missions is evident among the students and faculty alike. A world Evangelism forum on the campus last fall attracted hundreds of students from colleges throughout the nation.

The Christian Communications Program of preacher training, a concentrated two-year study with 50 men currently involved, is in its second year. The Alpha Class will be graduated next summer and a second campaign to Jamaica will be held.

Overwhelming response continues to be shown for various service projects. Students, through organizations and individually, daily serve in visits to nursing homes and hospitals, work with the Sunshine School for the mentally retarded and the Buddy Program for fatherless boys. On weekends students often assist in youth retreats. The annual toy and doll drive provides gifts which are sent to children's homes throughout the country. Admission to a recent Halloween party was a can of food, the collection of which was distributed to the needy. The Red Cross blood draws on the campus are highly successful with students waiting in line to make a donation. Quotas are generally exceeded and competition for participation in social clubs is highly competitive.

Visits are often made to nearby children's homes and a recent request for specific items for a home had tremendous results as students brought cleaning supplies.

Spiritual growth and development among the student body is a continuous challenge by all mediums of activity, whether in athletics, social club activities or informal student groups.

Achievements begin with the opening of the semester and continue through the year. The Petit Jean yearbook won a 16th consecutive All-American rating. The Bison was named a First Class publication.

Music groups continue to make outstanding contributions. The Belles and Beaux completed an eight-week entertainment tour of the Far East, the A Cappella Chorus and Chorale were invited to sing with the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra for a concert in Little Rock and the Symphony also came to Searcy for a campus performance with the groups. The Band attracted the largest number of members in history. The Time of Day group, a musical trio, travels throughout the year to perform for youth groups and in recruiting. A weekly "Hymns from Harding" radio program is heard on stations across the nation.

Already this fall the varsity debate squad won sweepstakes in the Louisiana Tech Forensic Tournament over 25 other colleges and universities from Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas and Alabama. The Harding squad won over University of Arkansas and University of Southwest Louisiana to take first place.

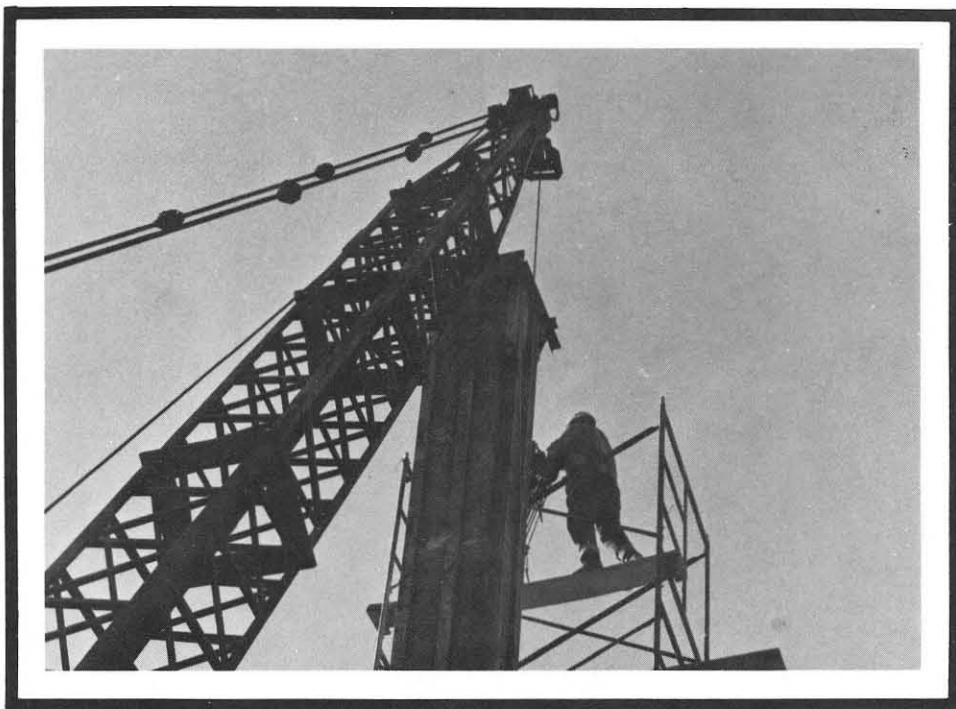

Two science students placed first and second in the Arkansas Academy of Science college section with research papers they had conducted. Harding students consistently win honors in the science field.

In athletics, Harding reached a high mark with the college recording a close second place finish in the All-Sports competition in the conference. The Bisons won a fourth National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics bowling championship and conference and district championships in both bowling and cross country. Swimming and tennis teams were runnersup in the conference and baseballers were runnersup in district playoffs.

Individually, three Bison athletes gained NAIA All-American honors and a fourth won the national singles title in bowling. A football player was drafted by a professional team, a basketball player received national recognition and a high jumper won the NAIA championship. Harding bowlers won both the singles and doubles events in the national tournament and a bowler was selected to the United States team in the Federation International des Quilleurs World Tourney in London.

A Harding student placed second in competition among Arkansas athletes in the Cliff Shaw Scholar-Athlete Award.

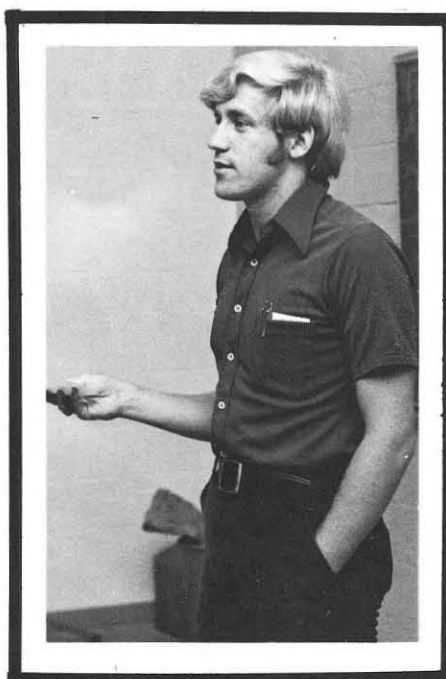

In the spring about 2,500 high school students attended the annual Youth Meeting on the campus and in the summer 400 young people were on campus for the challenging Citizenship Youth Seminars conducted by the American Studies program.

Christian education is probably more important today than at any other time in the history of our country. Harding College faces a tremendous challenge to serve as effectively as possible each of the 2,601 students who enrolled for the fall semester. The capacity enrollment has presented the College with the greatest challenge and responsibility she has yet faced.

For the current academic year, the instructional faculty consists of 110 full-time equivalent faculty members to give a student-faculty ratio of 22:1. This year, 39.4 per cent hold the earned doctorate and 54.8 per cent hold the Master's or higher but not the doctorate. Ten lack only the completion and defense of the dissertation for the earned doctorate.

In 1966-67 the College began offering Distinguished Teacher Awards to three teachers annually, presented at spring commencement with a stipend of $1,000 each. The three recipients for 1975 were Dr. David B. Burks, assistant professor of business; Dr. Dean B. Priest, professor of mathematics and Dr. Neale T. Pryor, professor of Bible.

With the exception of the faculty of an institution, the library is probably the most significant facet of the academic program. Harding College is blessed with excellent library facilities and the library services are administered by four capable professional librarians who are highly dedicated to their work. They are assisted by a capable staff which relies heavily on student help. The library contains 133,917 volumes, including 7,231 microfilm volumes. The library also contains 245 cassette tapes and 2,337 records in music, speech and biology. The library receives 943 periodicals and 12 daily newspapers. During the past year, 6,629 volumes were added to the collection. The library has stack space to accommodate 170,000 volumes.

This year, an evaluation team from the North Central Association of accreditation visited the campus. An extensive self-study report involving all of the faculty had been submitted to the association. The five-man team made a thorough investigation of every facet of the College and wrote a very favorable report. The following comment is representative:

"Overall, Harding College has achieved an unusual balance and standard of quality in almost every aspect of collegiate life, of which these students are the beneficiaries, and to which they are justifiably proud contributors."

The evaluation team made the following recommendation: "The committee finds that Harding College is an institution with a clear sense of educational purpose, to which all of the constituent elements are committed and which they carry out very successfully. The College has consistently attracted and retained capable students and competent, dedicated faculty and staff. Morale is exceptionally high. The physical plant is functional, attractive, and well-maintained. The financial operation of the College is sound and prospects are good for continued support.

"We recommend, therefore, that Harding College be continued on full accreditation at the Master's degree level, and that the institution be placed on decennial evaluation schedule."

In the Financial Resources section of the North Central Report, the following quotation concerning finances presents fairly, I believe, the overall financial strength of the institution.

"As did previous NCA teams, we found Harding College to be a very well-managed institution. At a time when many colleges and institutions are in serious, if not dire, financial straits, Harding seems to be in sound condition, and with excellent prospects of remaining so."

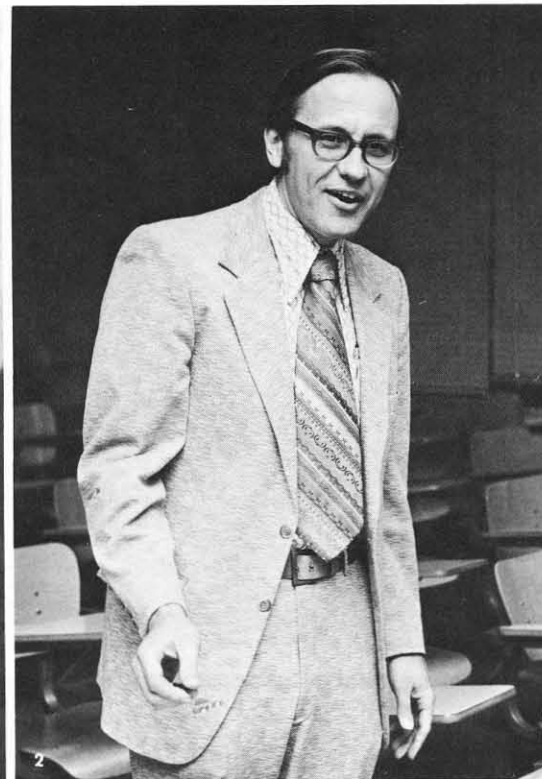

—Condensed from the "Harding Bulletin" November 1975.

Lectures, forums, seminars provide spiritual atmosphere

"They Being Dead, Yet Speak" was the theme of the 1975 Biblical lectureship on October 8-11. Special seminars were conducted during the fall semester by Jack Gray, Parker Henderson, and Carl Mitchell. The eighth annual Preacher's Forum was conducted March 16, developing the theme, "Establishing Biblical Authority." Strong emphasis was given throughout the year to developing campaign groups to work in various parts of the United States and several foreign countries during the summer of 1976.

Frank Worgan of Corby, England, served as visiting professor of missions for 1975-76. A major in religious education was added to the curriculum. The second year of the two-year Christian Communications Program, and adult education program for preachers, was added.

New gymnasium is completed; Kappa Delta Pi chartered

Completion of the Gymnasium-Physical Education Building in January was the highlight of the year for the Education Division although various members of the division continued leadership in their areas regionally and nationally. Dr. Edward G. Sewell served on the NCATE Evaluation Board; Dr. Harry D. Olree served as chairman of the NAIA Medical Aspects of Sports Committee; Dr. Bobby L. Coker was appointed to the Board of the Arkansas Department of Higher Education; and Lois Brown served on the Governor's Council of the Study of Special Education.

Dr. Sewell led in the chartering of a chapter of Kappa Delta Pi and Dr. Wyatt Jones joined the education faculty as Director of Graduate Studies upon the retirement of Dr. Nyal Royse. With the resignation of Shirley Birdsall Alexander, Winnie Bell was promoted to librarian and Travis Cox, Franklin D. Hayes, and Suzanne Spurrier were added as assistant librarians.

Honors in art and Beethoven's work highlight activities

With the addition of Travis Cox to the music faculty, majors in violin and viola were made available to students and an orchestra and string ensemble were organized this fall. The A Cappella Chorus and the Chorale joined the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra in presenting Beethoven's Symphony No. 9 in D Minor at the Little Rock Convention Center Music Hall on October 6 and on campus the following evening. The Christian College Choral Festival was hosted January 10 and the Arkansas NATS Convention was hosted February 27-28. The A Cappella Chorus made plans for a tour of Europe during the summer of 1976.

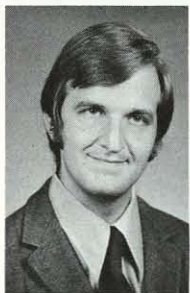

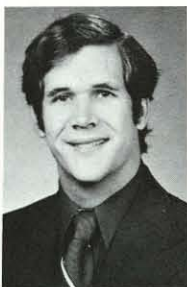

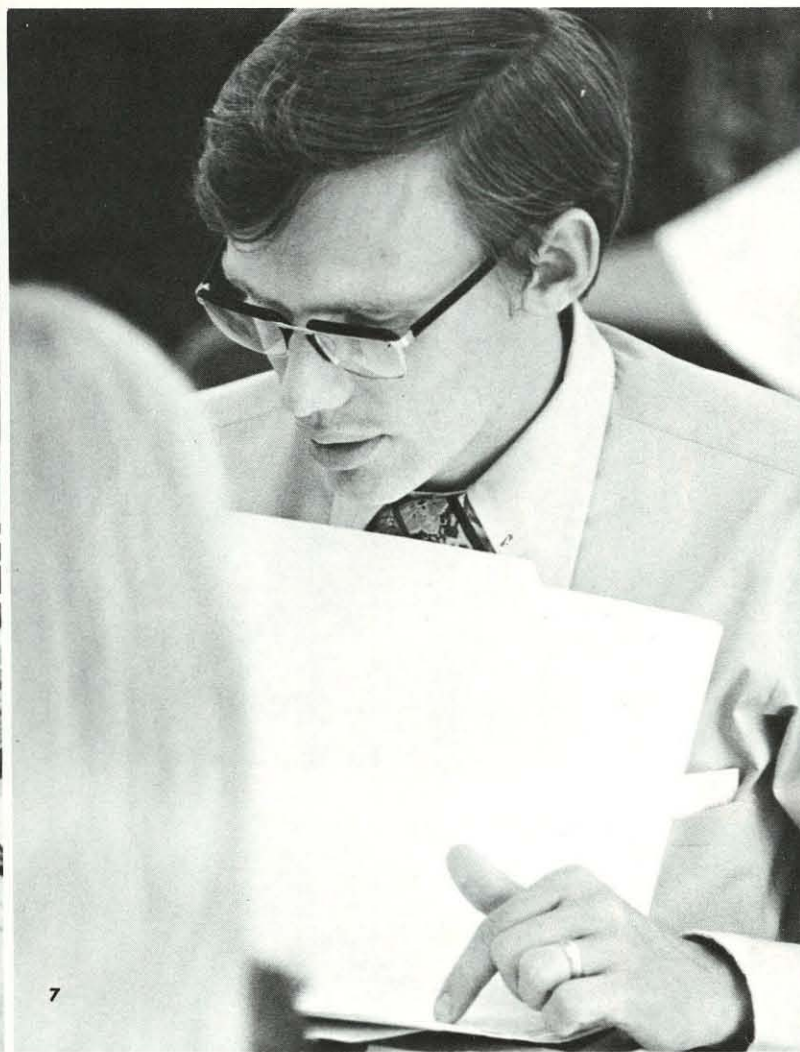

Art faculty members and students exhibited in a number of shows and festivals. Don Robinson received first place in acrylics at the Batesville Art Show; Elizabeth Mason placed second in the North Arkansas Show; Stan Green received All-American honors on his sports brochures, and Dr. Faye Doran and Arnie Anderson had works accepted in several exhibits.

Division expends overtime with contests, productions

Creative writing is encouraged by the annual Creative Writing Contest sponsored by the Humanities Division. Dr. Walter McDonald was brought to campus for a Creative writing Workshop.

Drs. Winfred and Dorothy Wright directed eight students on a six-week Work/Study Tour of French-speaking countries of Europe in the summer of 1975.

Dr. Evan Ulrey served as national president of Pi Kappa Delta and also coached the debate team to first place in the Louisiana Tech invitational meet.

Dr. Richard Walker was appointed to the Congressional Action Committee of the American Speech and Hearing Association. Annie Get Your Gun and The Cherry Orchard were major drama productions directed by Larry Menefee and staged by Morris Ellis. Dr. Jack Ryan directed the third annual Spring Sing presented by the social clubs.

Hendrix Building, computer installation update department

Launching the baccalaureate degree program in nursing was the highlight of 1975-76 for the Natural Science Division. Dedication ceremonies for the Olen Hendrix Building — the renovated Old Science Building providing modern facilities for nursing and home economics — were held September 20 with Congressman Ray Thornton giving the dedicatory speech.

The Biology Department received a $13,215 NSF grant to conduct a summer workshop for elementary science teachers conducted by Dr. George Woodroof and Bill Rushton.

The Physical Science Department participated with the University of Arkansas and several other colleges in a NSF-supported traveling instrumentation laboratory. Dr. Don England was accepted into Sigma Xi, a national research society.

Installation of the PDT-11 Model 45 DEC computer facilitated the work of the Mathematics Department. Drs. Steve Smith and Bill Oldham spoke at Name of Site meetings of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

Added business and psychology majors enlarge department

Scholarly activity characterized all departments of the Social Science Division. Dr. Raymond Muncy was commissioned to write A History of Searcy, Arkansas as a Bicentennial project.

The Department of Psychology made a thorough revision of its curriculum and made available two majors, one in academic psychology and the other in applied psychology. Special group programs to improve the study habits of students on academic probation were offered by Bob McKelvain, a new member of the department.

New majors in economics and marketing were offered by the Department of Business and Economics and a major in gerontology was offered by the Department of Sociology and Social Services. Bernie Egly was promoted to Director of the Social Work Program and work continued on professional accreditation of the program. Dr. Bill Verkler was appointed to the Executive Committee of the Arkansas Mental Health Association and Bill Culp served on several state committees dealing with problems of youth.

Auxiliary workers maintain essential positions of college

Efficient functioning of more than 300 full-time staff members with diversified responsibilities enabled Harding to function with a minimum of outside services. The construction staff completed the $2.9 million physical education center while maintaining campus facilities. The dining hall staffs provided meals for more than 2,000 students who lived in the residence halls. Dormitory directors provided supervision and counsel for students away from home. Nightwatchmen patrolled the campus for security measures. Secretaries implemented departmental and administrative services to students. Staff members in various auxiliary enterprises — Bookstore, Bison Lanes, College Farm, Campus Post Office, College Inn, and College Press — served the needs of students and community. Approximately 500 students were directed in part-time work by staff members.

STUDENT LIFE

Initial week sees record occupancy and new dormitory

With the slamming of trunk lids, over 2,600 students converged on campus the week of August 24.

The new women's dormitory, housing 300 women, helped to relieve overcrowding. The Heritage Center reversed roles as male students took over the dormitory.

A reception in honor of freshmen students and their parents was held on Sunday afternoon. Counseling sessions were held Monday and Tuesday and registration activities were moved up a day to Wednesday. By Thursday all the line-standing and form-filling was completed as all classes met and chapel seats filled for the welcome from President Ganus.

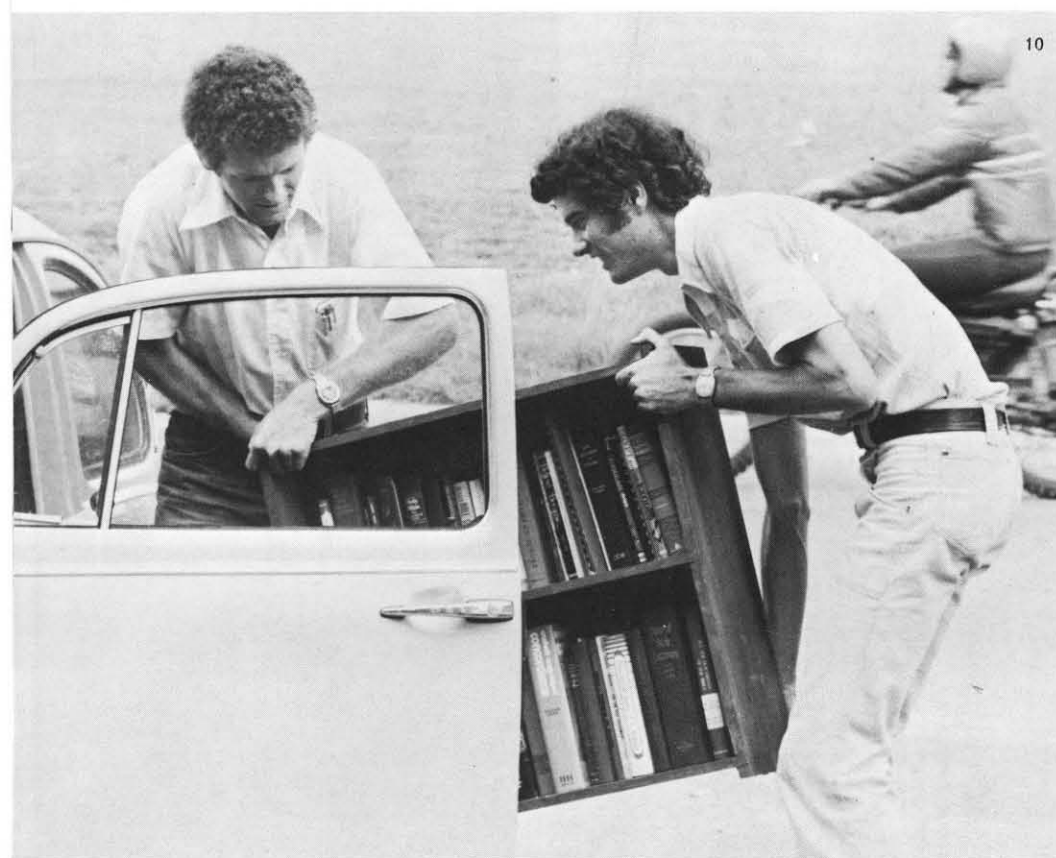

The S.A. helped relieve the frustrations of the week by supplying free cokes during registration lines Tuesday and Wednesday, sponsoring a lily pool devotional and offering nightly movies, including "The Sting." Many students participated in the freshman-transfer talent show Thursday night, and all enjoyed the watermelon feed on Friday. On Saturday night the first lyceum of the year featuring The Overland Stage Company concluded the week's activities. A new year at Harding had begun.

1. FRESHMAN Doug Burns is aided in scheduling by Jimmy Allen. 2. FORMS are filled out by Joan Wei as she completes registration tasks. 3. SINGING and playing, a member of the Overland Stage Company performs in the first lyceum of the year. 4. PAYMENTS are made to a post office worker as students secure campus mail boxes. 5. NEW students Carol and Linda Allen and their mother visit with Mrs. Cochran and S.A. hostess Suzy Priddy at the annual freshman reception. 6. PARTING with their money, Cindy Harvey and Glen Adams buy new books from Mrs. Tucker. 7. PATIENTLY waiting, students enter the Heritage building to register. 8. LUGGING a heavy box, Dan Bettis moves into the dorm. 9. BOOK lists are checked by Dianne Reed as she finds out what supplies are needed for the semester. 10. STRUGGLING, Dale Pavatte and James Rickaway unload a heavy bookcase. 11. TALENTED Pam Path performs for a large audience at the Freshman-Transfer talent show.

Sunrise to sunset, new experiences and routine intermingle

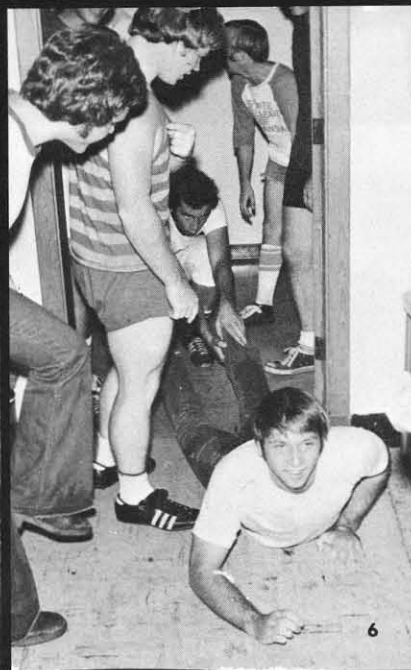

With the ringing of alarm clocks, a typical day begins. Dragging oneself out of bed is a necessary chore as each student prepares for a new day.

After a shower and a trek to breakfast, the daily hustle to classes begins at eight. The morning slips by with classes ending at eleven. The midday break for chapel and lunch provides a welcome relief, followed by the daily trip to check the usually empty mailbox.

Going into the last half of the day, students continue with classes and studying. Leisure time is enjoyed by some while others less fortunate are busy at jobs.

Afternoon fades into dusk and another meal is eaten in the cafeterias. Darkness arrives and so does a busy night life. Club meetings and activities, studies, and fun in the dorms fill the time. The evening winds down and gradually students make it to bed and get some sleep, thus ending another day.

1. STUDENTS walk to and from buildings between classes. 2. SUPPER provides a time of conversation for Jim Erickson, Ivan Benson and Randy Mullis. 3. READY to take down notes, Stan Granburg listens attentively in class. 4. ASSIGNED pages are read by Sibyl Cooper as she lays on the grass. 5. STUDENT CENTER booths provide a place to relax and talk for Jeff Hughes, Lou Ellen Head and Debbie Corbett. 6. GOOFING off in the dorm, Keith Gunverdahl crawls on the floor. 7. HELPLESS Jackie Allman is thrown into the lily pool by Eric Tyler, James Beam, Wayne Kinney and Monte Tatom. 8. WEARY from a busy day, Mike Patterson rests on his bed. 9. PENSIVELY looking into her box, Debbie Bryant hopes a letter awaits her.

'They Being Dead Yet Speak' annual Lectureship theme

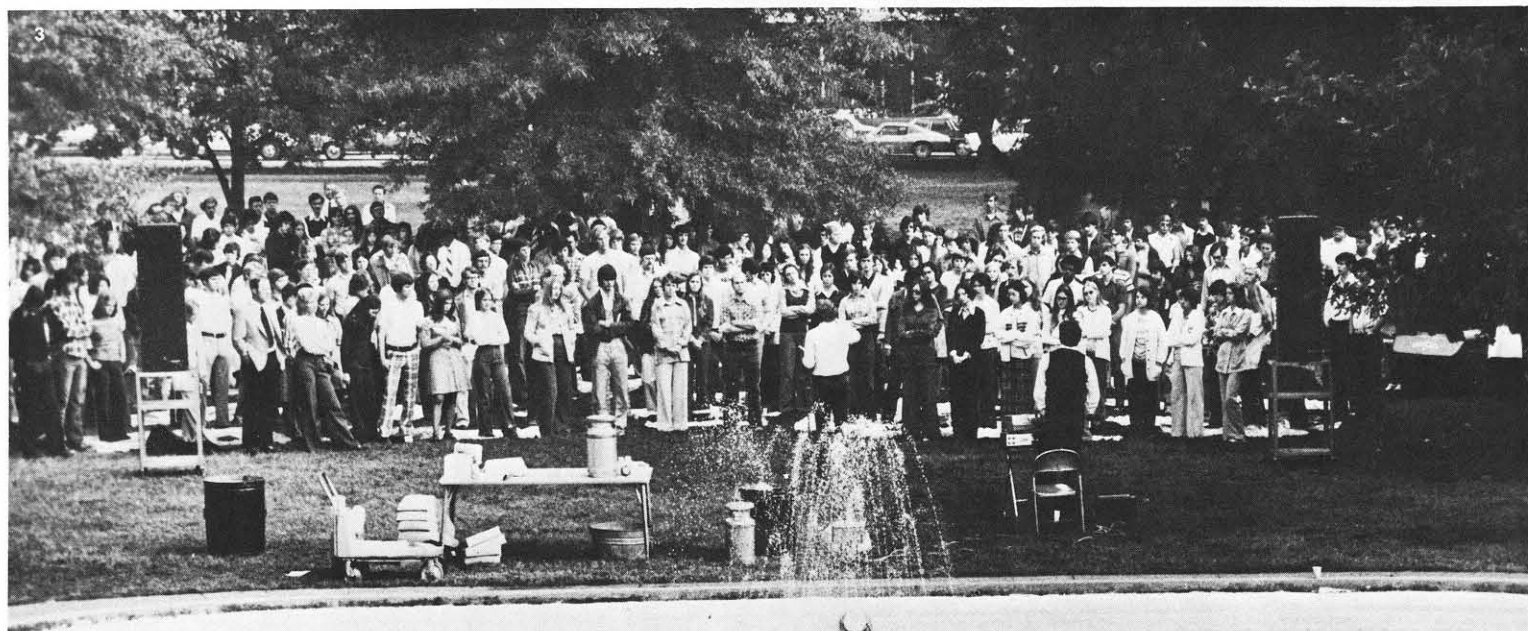

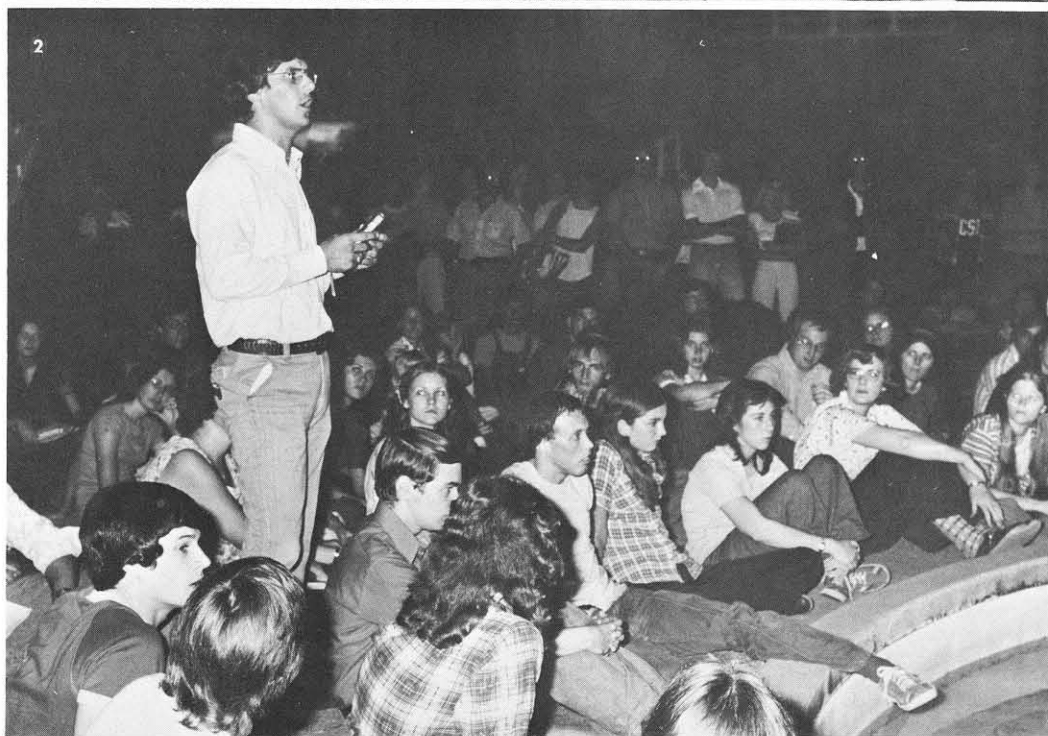

Beginning with the first lily pool devotional the first week of school, spiritual growth on campus was nourished this year through the activities of the S.A. Spiritual Life committee. The committee placed social clubs in charge of Thursday night lily pool devotionals and sponsored weekly devotionals in the dorms.

The annual lectureship took place from October 8-11 with the theme being "They Being Dead Yet Speak." Wednesday's lectureship speakers were selected by students for the annual student day activities.

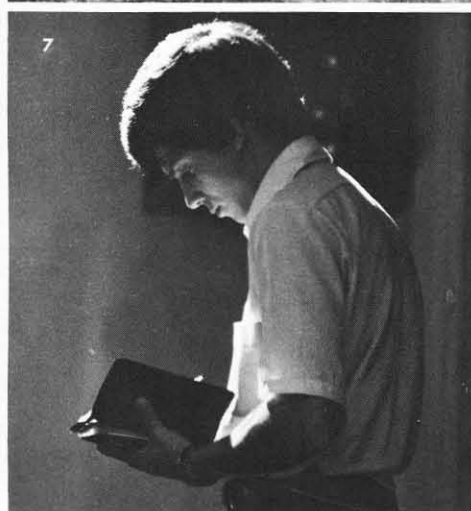

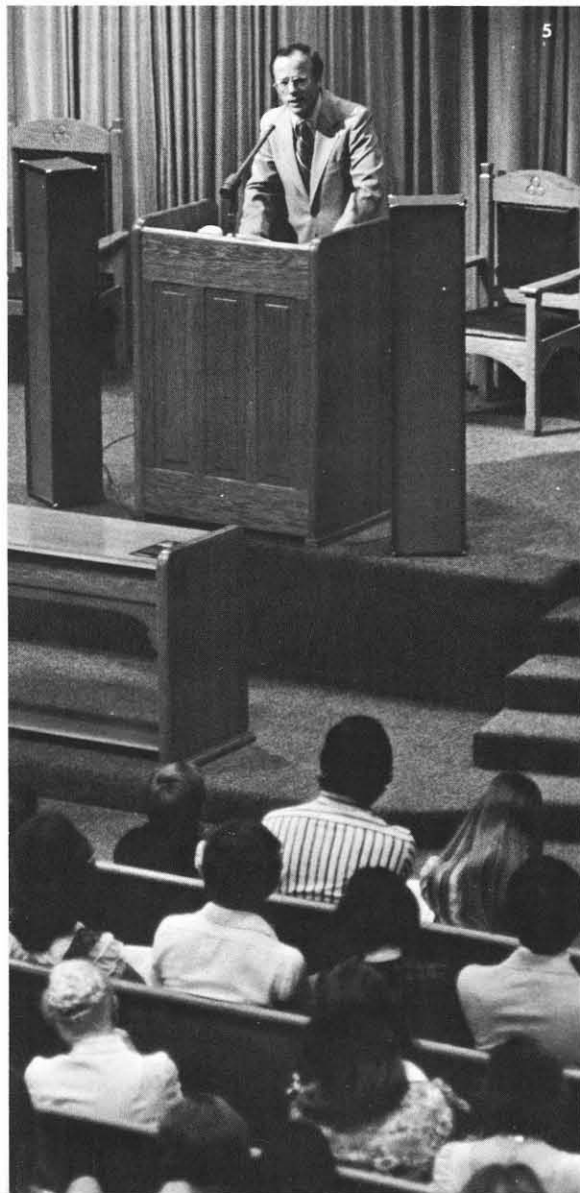

Daily chapel gave students a time in the midday to relax and worship God together. The auditorium was filled for both chapel periods due to increased enrollment while the CCP program held their own devotionals in the Bible building.

Mission emphasis was stressed throughout the year as many students attended campaign meetings to prepare themselves for their summer's work for Christ.

Emphasizing individuality in their search for God, many students developed a quiet time for daily scripture reading and prayers.

Rough night ends initiation activities as pledges join clubs

The campus became full of all varieties of animals and germs with the arrival of Pledge Week, October 15-17. Pledgemasters dictated orders forcing pledges to become involved and meet new people. This year there were more projects to benefit the campus along with the traditions of funny clothes, pledge books and date after date. The ordeal of joining a club concluded with rough night activities Friday evening, followed by a much needed shower.

1. ZETA RHO and TNT pledges join in a song on the administration building steps. 2. JULIE TUBBS and Linda Gray highlight the Tri-Kappa pep rally skit. 3. HOLDING cotton to his eyes, Mike Patterson gets ready to be blindfolded. 4. ENJOYING a break from pledging activities, Harold Ann Morris drinks a bottle of Coke. 5. PROVIDING a Pledge Week lyceum, the Riverbluff Clan performs. 6. EYES are well blindfolded before one pledge begins Rough Night activities. 7. CHOP-STICK use is learned by pledge Sue Millirans. 8. KYLE ASBILL gets the privilege of signing Sue LaMunyon's rolls. 9. COVERED with grime, a Theta Tau pledge endures Rough Night. 10. PROUDLY, Wenona Gray shows Kappa Delta's scrapbook to Sydney Smith and Melissa Hilburn at Open House.

Madonna Wallace selected to reign as 'Bison-ennial' queen

Homecoming activities started off with a bang Wednesday evening with the first presentation of 'Annie Get Your Gun.' The traditional chili supper and devotional were held at Wyldewood Friday for the students, while the alumni held their annual Black and Gold banquet in the Heritage cafeteria. Students returned to campus for the bonfire pep rally sponsored by the cheerleaders.

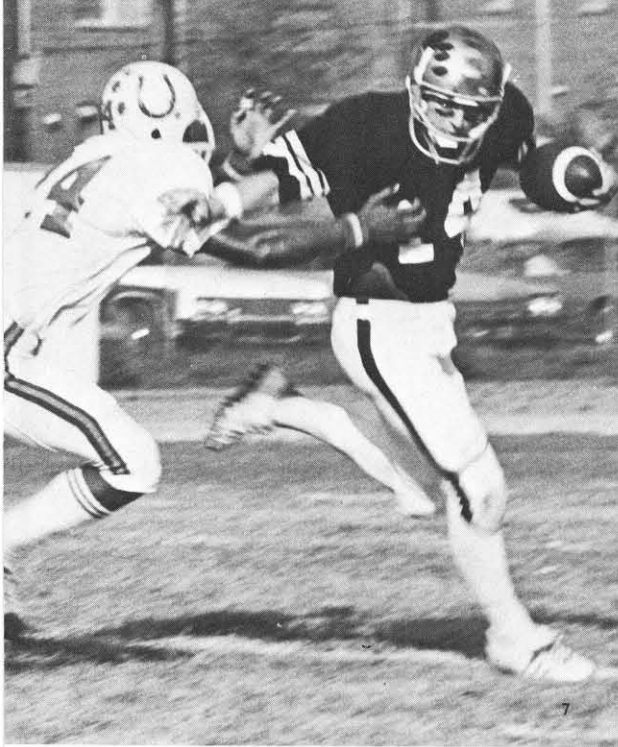

The floats in Saturday morning's parade, led by Grand Marshall L. C. Sears, depicted the 'Bison-ennial' theme of Homecoming. Alpha Omega and Delta Chi's float placed first in club division, while the senior float took top honors in class competition.

The Continental Color Guard provided pre-game entertainment for the all-important Homecoming game against Southern State. The presentation of the Court occurred at half-time with junior beauty Madonna Wallace receiving the Homecoming crown. The 3-0 Muleriders scored 23 points in the second half to take a 23-3 victory.

Social clubs, S.A., classes, A Cappella, and the Bison Band held reunions throughout the day, with 'Blackout 75' concluding Saturday's activities. Homecoming 75 was truly a Homecoming worth coming home for.

1. ACCORDION music is provided by Dean Wright at the talent show. 2. HAPPY faces characterize Kathy Armstrong and David Vaughn as they enjoy the chili supper. 3. BOWLS of chili are eagerly served by Laura Lewis. 4. RIDING in the parade, Janet Hall sits atop the Knights/Phi Delta float. 5. LAST year's Homecoming queen Carol Franks prepares to ride in the Homecoming parade. 6. LEADS in the Homecoming production were Tom Lawson and Pam Paul. 7. TRYING to elude a Southern State opponent, Joe David Smith runs the ball. 8. PRE-GAME ceremonies featured the Continental Color Guard from Little Rock. 9. QUEEN Madonna Wallace beams radiantly after receiving the 1975 homecoming crown. 10. HOME-COMING COURT. ## 'Annie' is autumn musical; performed for capacity crowds

"Anything you can do I can do better," argued Frank Butler (Tom Lawson) and Annie Oakley (Pam Paul) in one of the noted songs from this year's homecoming musical. "Annie Get Your Gun" played to delighted audiences the four evenings of homecoming weekend November 5-8. The western show featured an amazing Indian torch dance.

"The Cherry Orchard" played in the Little Theatre February 19-21, 23 and 24. The story of the play concerned the close of the czarist era in Russia and its effects upon a once-wealthy noble family.

"Spring Sing 76" was presented during the annual Youth Forum. Social Clubs and hosts and hostesses put in many hours of practice and received their much deserved rewards with applause from the overflow crowds and trophies for the winning clubs.

1. ALPHA TAU jerseys are worn by Jim Sanford and Glenn Graham at an intramural football game. 2. HARDING jersey, jeans, white socks and tennis shoes are casual items worn by Alan Beach as he studies in the library. 3. SPORTING contemporary styles, Greg Cannon wears a leisure suit to Sunday dinner. 4. LONGER hemlines are fashionable items worn by Gail Setliff and Becky Parker. 5. MANY different kinds of shoes are worn daily including the ever popular tennis shoes and the new wedgies. 6. STROLLING down the sidewalk, Sharon Bradley and Chris Harper wear jeans and identical hand embroidered western shirts. 7. ENJOYING Hilarity, Greg Nance and Greta Gilbert dress comfortably in jeans and bib overalls. 8. ON the back of Larry Barnett's shirt is an embroidered horse head. 9. TAKING advantage of a sunny afternoon, Myla Davis embroiders a shirt as she enjoys the outdoors. 10. ANITA WALKER wears a personalized shirt she embroidered featuring a tiger on the back.

Leisure suits and longer skirts new fashions on campus

New directions in the fashion world were evident on campus as students enjoyed a variety of styles.

Guys could be seen in the new leisure suits for dress up occasions. Prewashed jeans became popular as did bib overalls. Tennis shoes were often donned on and off the courts.

The new longer skirts were quickly accepted by the female population as were wedgies and shell necklaces. Embroidery could be seen on all types of clothing including jeans, jackets, and skirts.

Married couples keep busy pace with home and school activities

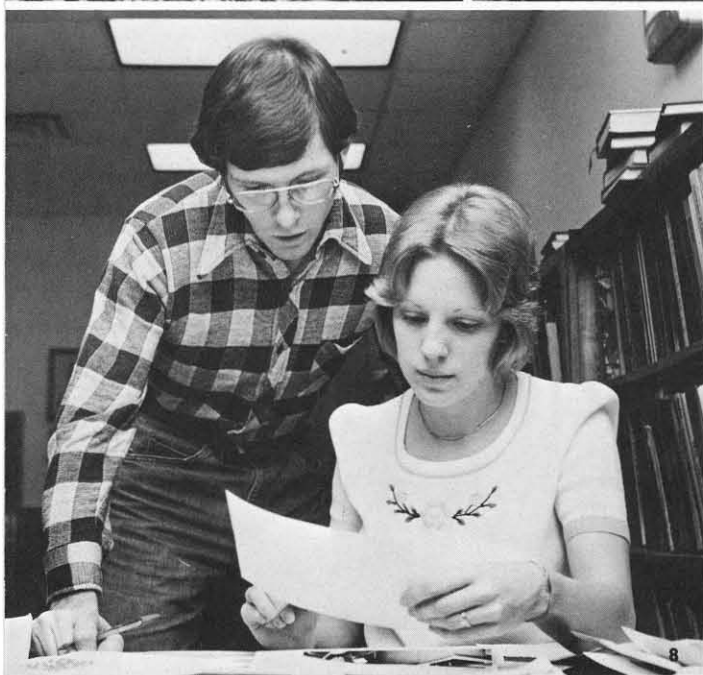

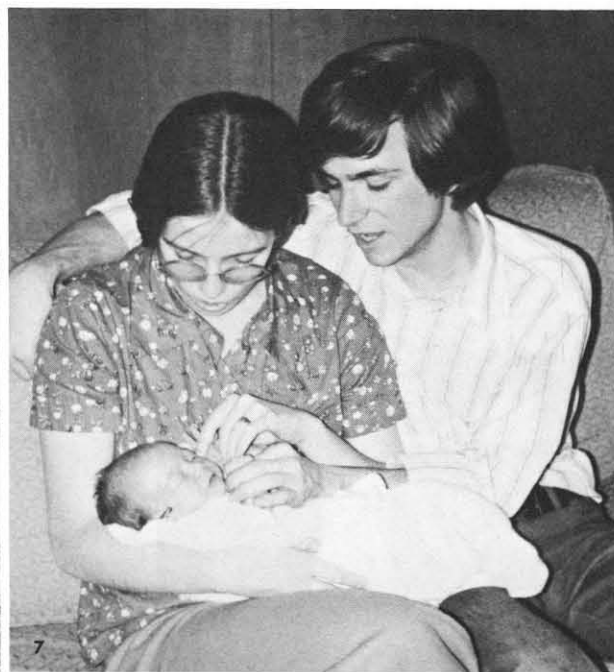

Facing the challenges of child rearing and a household to maintain, married students looked at life from a different angle than the average student. Building a home working at odd jobs, and keeping up with studies constituted a major part of their time. Friendships and student activities were not lost, as many married students were members of TAG social club. Cooperation existed among the couples as they enjoyed playing cards and rapping with each other.

Using their voice in student government, they elected Roxie Whittemore to serve as their SA representative on the executive council.

New and old married students' apartments, the Harding trailer park, and off-campus housing provided a variety of living conditions.

1. DAVID WATSON peers around the corner in the Student Center. 2. CARVING the roast, Bob Williams helps prepare the evening meal. 3. LOVE radiates between Dave Samanie and his daughter, Linda. 4. CHARCOAL briquets are poured into the grill by Don Finley as his wife Kay watches. 5. MODERN cooking facilities make Terry and Sherry Baldy's life easier. 6. MEETING on the sidewalk allows Darlene and Tom Williams to converse between classes. 7. PROUD parents Mickey and Bob Williams enjoy being with two week old Cara. 8. WORKING together on the Petit Jean, Greg Blake assists his wife Mary in preparing the Advertisement section. 9. ENJOYING one another's company, the Whittens and the Elliotts play cards. 10. HAVING dinner at Dr. Joe Pryor's, Debra and Doug Cave and Chris Clark enjoy fine cuisine.

Country music and student versatility characterize lyceums

Students enjoyed a wide variety of talent in this year's lyceum program. The Wright Brothers Overland Stage Company received a standing ovation at their concert the first week of school. The Riverbluff Clan, featuring Harding student Tony Sneed, gave many pledges a major date during the hectic days of Pledge Week.

"In Concert" featured student entertainment including juggling, solos and bands. Concluding Homecoming activities, the annual talent show "Blackout 75" was held in the gym.

A rock group from Freed-Hardeman College, Natural Sounds, opened the second semester's activities January 8. Providing a relaxing evening after a week of tests, Shiloh Morning performed February 12 and 13.

Profits from 'Winter Festival' help send youngsters to camp

Participation in local and national service gave many students a sense of fulfillment. 400 pints were given in the annual fall blood drive. Students turned in an overwhelming response when blood was needed for fellow student Kim Richards and Brother Robert Street. Community children benefited from the Big Brother and Sister programs. Canvassing the community, students brought cans of food as their admission to the Halloween Party in the gym. JOY performed various acts of service and provided devotionals for the girls. The Christmas Toy and Dolly Drive once again met with success. Gata sponsored the Winter Festival for the purpose of crowning the basketball queen and raising money to send children to Camp Wyldewood.

Graduate

After awarding the Master of Arts in Teaching degree since the graduate program was begun in 1954, the Graduate Council changed the degree to the Master of Education in August, 1975. In the spring of 1976, the program was expanded to include certification as an Elementary School Principal. Upon the retirement of Dr. Nyal Royse in May as Director of Graduate Studies, Dr. Wyatt Jones joined the faculty in this capacity, bringing many years of experience in teacher education from Pepperdine University. During 1975, 20 degrees were conferred.

CCP

With 19 students enrolling for the Beta Class of the Christian Communications Program and 29 of the 32 members of the Alpha Class returning, the two-year program of special preparation for preachers became fully implemented. Intensive study, extensive laboratory work in preaching, and evangelistic campaigns to Jamaica were important parts of the program. Various members of the Bible faculty shared time in the CCP under the direction of Dr. Jerry Jones, Chairman of the Bible Department, and Ed Sanders, Director of CCP.

ON FACING ADVERSITY: I really don't understand why I did so badly on that test today. I drew a blank on those verses I tried so hard to memorize and I could not remember the answers to many other questions. Father, help me to accept on faith that just as all things work together for good for those who love you and are called according to your purpose, that failing this test will work out for my good as well. I love my teacher, and he loves me in spite of my grade. I'm so thankful that I have you to turn to and that I have this opportunity to learn. Help me to be thankful.

ON THE MEANING OF LIFE: Every day of our lives we take a step never before taken, and experience feelings new to our hearts. Tears fill our eyes when we fail something important, and we've grown. When we stop experiencing new feelings, when we stop taking new steps, when we close our minds and hearts — we stop growing. And when we stop growing, we cease to live.

— Janet Thompson

ON EQUALITY: It is the nature of a child to be selfish with his toys until mother comes in and lays down the law: "Share with your sister — or else!" One mark of maturity is the attitude that says "I want to share what I have with others even though Mother no longer forces me to do it." Similarly, a mature Christian wants to treat his fellow men — and women — fairly, before the law requires him to do so. As a Christian woman, I do not seek to demand my rights, but to encourage others to share this desire for justice, which is one of the "weightier" matters of the law.

ON EQUALITY: This essay concerns sexual equality from the male point of view. After nine months of no small discussion with my wife, I have developed a rather disperse viewpoint. Sexual equality appears to mean that he man and woman each does his or her fair share of any given work load. They equally share the responsibility to see that the job is done. And finally, they divide equally the reward for doing said given amount of work.

ON IDENTITY: I am many things to many people. Everyone views me in a way that is uniquely his own. Nothing I say or do can change that. I am a sister, a daughter, a child, a friend, a woman, a student, a Christian. I am all of these and much more. I am not quite the same today as I was yesterday because my life has been touched by new people and new events. Only God knows all that I really am.

ON FRIENDS: I have so many friends, one for each corner of my mind. One, a friend, because we share the splendor of a sad book and sweet music; another because we understand the job of junk and the pleasantries of peanut butter and jelly sandwiches; still more for the discussing the progress of our plants over a cup of hot tea. Such a rainbow of friends, sharing separate jobs, our complexities merged, transforming the "because" into "anyways" through the simple unifying strength of Jesus.

ON SPRING: Remember? It rained here for days and days; the sky was filmy white for weeks, but one morning, several blades of grass had sprung miraculously from the red and brown mud and the tan stubble that covers the ground as an Arkansas winter's snow. Nobody wanted to stay inside any more. Nobody cared for algebra, economics, or biology lab, as much as for the relief of breathing and running in outside air. When the fog had been rinsed away, and left the air clean and new-smelling, or for watching rivulets from the last rain running away, or for riding bicycles and climbing trees that were still mostly transparent.

ON THE FUTURE: When I came here four years ago, I thought this day would never arrive. Graduation seemed so far away but now, all of a sudden, it is here, and I must say that I face it with mixed emotions. I am ready for a new experience. I am looking forward to getting a job and becoming more independent. Yet I'm sad too, because I will be leaving my friends and others I have grown to love very much. I am so thankful to have been able to come here, and though I'm excited at the prospect of something new, I'm also apprehensive and sad at the thought of leaving Harding and all those people who have become such an important part of my life.

ON ECOLOGY: Waste is such a despicable sounding word, yet that is exactly what we Americans have so thoughtlessly done with our rapidly diminishing abundance of wealth. We have been using our natural resources and their products as if they all grow on trees, when in actuality the "trees" are themselves disappearing at an alarming rate. Frugality is the answer if our nation is to survive another 200 years.

ON INVOLVEMENT: Life is simply involvement — whether in college classes, personal life, or one's relationship with Christ. Each individual must search himself for what aspect of involvement will most fulfill his needs. For some, gratification comes through individualism; for others life is more or less a spectator sport. But for most involved in college life, involvement becomes a combination of the two.

ON CHRISTIANITY: "An when he was in affliction he besought the Lord his God . . . and God heard his supplication. Then Manasseh knew the Lord He is God." Most of the time we go to God only when in trouble. This means something is missing in our spiritual lives. If we learn that the Lord He is God, we will go to Him always. Not only in affliction, but when we are happy, proud . . .

ON PLEDGE WEEK: Every fall, well meaning students and faculty members begin discussing the pointlessness of pledge week. These concerned folks argue that the students do not really enjoy it, that it takes up too much study time, and that injury may result. They don't see the rewarding side of this week. They just do not see the long and lasting friendships that are forged by enduring a few hardships together.

—Doug Shay

ON HARDING: "I am a stranger here, within a foreign land, my home is far away ... I am a foreign student here at Harding and from the moment of my arrival I have found friendliness and kindness. We have a beautiful campus, a Christian atmosphere, and high standards. I am blessed by having this opportunity to be a part of Harding.

ON MAN: In a world of constant changes where man has almost developed the power to totally annihilate himself, where knowledge often surpasses reason, he searches for purpose in his existence. Where, why, and how are often questions only to be answered by a depressing, "I don't know." People are grasping for meaning while the answer is only a thought away. The world is quickly approaching the zenith of its existence, and in doing so it ignores its Creator as a mystical fable. Has the world come any closer to finding a better solution? Look and see.

— Steve Pylkas

QUIETLY reflecting over the first week's activities is freshman Kellie Sisson.

SOCIAL CLUBS

Clubs offer students opportunity to serve, fellowship, develop

For 75% of the student body, the social clubs were an avenue for friendship, activity, and service. The clubs — twenty for women, eighteen for men, and one for married students — met the needs of the individuals on and off campus.

The year began with pledges being subjected to the usual humility and hardships and ended with most agreeing that the lasting effects of the pledge week were more beneficial than detrimental. Club activities varied from devotionals between brother and sister clubs to service projects and participation in the annual Spring Sing.

TAG holds two garage sales

Theta Alpha Gamma began with the largest membership it has had in several years. Fall semester projects included holding two garage sales with proceeds being used in many different areas; AWH was given a donation for the gift fair, a child was sent to Camp Wyldewood, a contribution was given to the Bangladesh Bible Fund, and other projects around the Searcy area were contributed to. Also in the fall, the members enjoyed an authentic Mexican dinner in their sponsor's home. In December, Santa Claus visited the children of the members at TAG's annual Christmas party.

Koinonia issues diplomas

The members of Koinonia began the year with a get-together at Wyldewood. During the year, Koinonia participated in club sports. Big Daddy's in Batesville was the sight of Koinonia's spring banquet with a theme of "Climb Every Mountain." As their service project, Koinonia took on the task of issuing diplomas to the class of '34, who did not receive them due to financial difficulty of the school. Members also treated the boys in the Big Brother program to an afternoon of skating.

Adopted family enjoys party

During the time the Omega Phi social club was not competing enthusiastically in all club sports, they enjoyed roller skating, an outing to the Pizza Hut and movie, and attending a country church. A Christmas party with the club's adopted family was a very fitting climax to the fall semester. Highlights of the spring semester included a float trip and joint production with Kappa Phi of "Go Bananas," a very captivating Spring Sing number.

Pancake breakfast enjoyed

Members of Galaxy began a busy year by enjoying a pancake breakfast with Ju Go Ju, their sister club. Other activities they shared with Ju Go Ju included an outing to Camp Takodah, a skating party, and numerous devotionals. Besides supporting the S.A. Toy and Dolly Drive, members also collected toys for a needy family for Christmas. Always a tough competitor in club sports, Galaxy took "C" team football and "B" team volleyball.

Petit Jean sight for outing

Theta Psi began the year with an outing to an area farm where members enjoyed an afternoon of fishing. Showing their love for others, the girls sang Christmas carols at the hospital during the holiday season. Activities rounding out the fall semester were an outing to Petit Jean Mountain and participation in all club sports. Academic ratings earned Theta Psi the second highest GPA of women's clubs for the fall semester. Spring saw the club busy with a bunking party, sponsorship of a child at the children's home, a banquet, and a Spring Sing act entitled "Singin' in the Rain."

Club earns highest GPA

Utilizing the motto of "To Our Father Ever Be True," Tofebt participated in devotionals with its brother club, Fraters. The club was active in sports, winning 1st place in "A" team volleyball and competing in the ping pong tournaments with Fraters. Visiting and entertaining the children at Morrilton's Children's Home was the club's service project. Scholarship of members earned the club 1st in GPA among the clubs. Participation in Homecoming activities was rewarded as Tofebt won 3rd place for its float entry. A March banquet was enjoyed by members and their dates.

Kojies visit children's home

"Happy Birthday, America," was the theme of Ko Jo Kai's very colorful Homecoming float. Reflecting their motto "Universal friendship and appreciation of life," Kojies presented a touching chapel program on friendship. Events of the fall semester included winning 2nd place in girls' softball, a November hayride, participation in volleyball and decorating a Christmas tree with the children at the Morrilton Children's Home. Highlighting the Spring semester was Ko Jo Kai's production, along with Sub-T, of a very unusual Spring Sing act with the theme of babies.

Knights build winning float

The Knights had an especially profitable year that began with winning first place in small club "A" team football and second place in "B" team football, as well as participating in all other club sports. Knights' tradition of weekly devotionals with Phi Delta, their sister club, and sending the girls roses was continued this year. Also a visitation program was initiated in conjunction with Phi Delta, at Leisure Lodge. Knights and Phi Delta also participated in Spring Sing with a program entitled "Daises."

Alumni honored at breakfast

United under their motto "Pure love is undefiled before God," the members of Kappa Delta had a very busy and fulfilling year. As a service project the club visited the elderly in the community and helped them in various ways. Activities filling the Fall semester were construction of a Homecoming float, a Homecoming alumni breakfast, a Halloween hayride and Christmas caroling. Closeness in the club was brought about by morning devotionals every second and fourth Monday and participation in all club sports. Ending the Fall semester with a bang, Kappa Deltas achieved 100 percent participation in the Toy and Dolly Drive for the third year in a row.

Italian campaigners supported

Growth in all areas characterized Alpha Omega this year. Their membership of over 70 was the largest in the club's history. Known for their spirituality and enthusiasm, Alpha Omega's efforts this year were directed toward brotherhood in Christ. As service projects the club supported two International Campaigners in Italy and participated in an out-of-town campaign.

Christmas decorations made

First semester, Zeta Rho enjoyed a skating party and competed in softball and volleyball. Zeta Rho also had a work day at Wyldewood with TNT, their brother club. Christmas time was made brighter for the people in local hospitals by the colorful decorations the girls made and distributed. Spring semester saw the club busy with a bunking party for underprivileged girls in the area and participation in club basketball. "It's a Dog's World" was the title of Zeta Rho and TNT's very unusual Spring Sing number.

GATA holds bowling party

Enthusiastic involvement characterized GATA this year as they began the semester by having homemade ice cream and a devotional at Wyldewood with their brother club, Alpha Tau. Putting others first, GATA visited Oakdale Nursing Home each week, collected money for the Arkansas Association for Retarded Children, participated in the Toy and Dolly Drive, and sponsored a child at Camp Wyldewood. GATA and Alpha Tau frequently shared in devotionals and also had a bowling party.

KKK sponsors walk-a-thon

A new closeness with Kappa Sigma, their brother club, marked the beginning of the year for Tri Kappa. Early in the fall both clubs ventured to Petit Jean Mountain for a picnic and devotional. Activities filling the rest of the semester were a hayride and a walk-a-thon for the National Association for Retarded Children which profited more than $500. The girls enjoyed a float trip and skating party with Kappa Sigs second semester.

Outing enjoyed with Zeta Phi

The key work for the Mohicans this year was diversity, beginning the year with an outing at Wyldewood with their sister club Zeta Phi. Later on, members raised funds for the Southern Christian Children's Home in Morrilton by sponsoring bowling and football tournaments. A Christmas party was held in December at the Wyldewood Retreat Center with the members of Zeta Phi. The Mohican club was a tough competitor in all club sports, placing high in football. In the spring, members enjoyed a banquet at Cajuns Wharf in Little Rock. Combining their talents with those of Zeta Phi, Mohicans presented as their Spring Sing theme "Indians."

Grandparents adopted by girls

Delta Chi began a very busy year by having a fall skating party with Alpha Omega, their brother club, and an all-female bowling party later on. Other brother-sister club activities were building a Homecoming float and having a breakfast at Wyldewood in the Spring. Sponsoring a Christmas party for the children at the Sunshine School and performing various acts of kindness for their adopted grandparents at Oakdale nursing home, the members of Delta Chi kept uppermost in their minds their club motto "Greatest happiness comes from service to others."

Fraters collect used clothing

This year Frater Sodalis emphasized spiritual and service activities in the course of their social events. Every two weeks they gathered with their sister club, Tofebt, for a devotional. They collected used clothes from Searcy residents and after repair work was done they were donated to a children's home. Frater's other activities included a float trip, helping Tofebt in the toy and dolly drive and a banquet in February with a Bicentennial theme.

'Space Age' show staged

Capturing the "B" team softball championship was Lambda Sigma's way of beginning a prosperous season. Lambdas also participated enthusiastically in football and volleyball the first semester. Brother-sister club activities with Kirei Na Ai included singing and visiting each week at Oakdale Nursing Home, roller skating occasionally, and sharing in inspirational devotionals at Bee Rock. The club also enjoyed a hayride in November. Spring semester, the members displayed talents in basketball, bowling, track and floating down the Buffalo River. Lambdas and Kirei labored together many hours creating a spectacular Spring Sing act entitled "The Space Age."

Softball caps acquired by club

Remaining a contender for the all-sports trophy, Sub-T participated in all club sports. A new dimension in softball was added as Sub-T was first to acquire club softball caps. They also enjoyed several devotionals at Wyldewood with their sister club Ko Jo Kai. A new club banner was presented to Sub-T by Kojies. Members of Sub-T began the second semester by aiding the Optimist Club in several service projects.

Club mans Red Cross booth

Starting off the year with fun and fellowship, the members of Regina enjoyed an outing to Blanchard Springs Caverns. Joint activities of Regina and their brother club, Chi Sigma Alpha, included building a Homecoming float, a hayride at Wyldewood, visiting the Children's Colony in Alexandria, and growing closer to God and each other in frequent devotionals. Staying busy, Regina's service projects were manning the Red Cross booth at the Country Fair and sending patterns to missionaries.

Needy family given dinner

Theta Tau Delta's activities for this year were centered on the themes of friendship, fellowship, and sports activities among Christian brothers. Brother-sister club activities with Tri Sigma included an ice cream social, a hayride and production of their Spring Sing act, "On Cloud Nine?" During pledge week Theta Tau and Tri Sigma pledges enjoyed a period of worship to God each morning before the day's activities began. Club members provided a Thanksgiving dinner for a needy family in the Searcy area. Theta Tau members excelled in all sports activities, taking 1st place in small club "A" team softball and repeating as "B" team football champions.

Alpha Tau takes softball title

Excellence in athletic ability, one of Alpha Tau's many outstanding attributes, was clearly demonstrated as they finished second in the all sports competition last year. Continuing on this high note, Alpha Tau won the championship this year in "A" team softball, "B" team football and both "A" and "C" team volleyball. Alpha Tau's sister club, GATA, enjoyed a bowling party and several inspiring devotionals with them this year, promoting closeness among the club members.

Mental Health clinics aided

Fall semester activities kept members of Shantih busy with several outings and picnics. In order to welcome new members into the club a picnic was held in College Park the day after rough night. This served the purpose of allowing the new girls to become acquainted with one another as well as other members. Fellowships held at Casa Bonita and Wyldewood were enjoyed in the fall. With the theme of "Roaring Twenties," Shantih participated in the annual Spring Sing activities. Members of the club set up a road block and collected money for the Searcy and Arkansas Mental Health Clinics.

Oege helps 'Our Way'

OEGE began a busy year by sharing a float trip, a skating party and a bowling party with their brother club Kings Men. At Halloween, members of OEGE and Kings Men were responsible for the most food collected at the S.A. Halloween party. Other service projects included helping with the Blood Draw, donating money to the Eye and Kidney Foundation, and aiding missionaries in Ireland. Later in the fall members enjoyed a hayride and in December, a Christmas party.

Phi Delta aids handicapped

An outing to Blanchard Springs marked the beginning of a very busy year for the members of Phi Delta. Weekly devotionals with their brother club, Knights, helped bring the two clubs closer together. As a service project the two clubs also made weekly visits to Leisure Lodge. Activities highlighting the Spring semester were a float trip with Knights, a chapel program dealing with handicapped children, and a Spring Sing program entitled "Daisies."

Hedrick Fund established

Alpha Epsilon Chi began the first semester by having an unusual Hawaiian luau with Delta Theta Epsilon, their sister club. "The Toyshop" was the theme of AEX and Delta Theta's exceptional number in Spring Sing this year. A memorable event of the Spring semester was the club's banquet at the Stockholm Restaurant in Heber Springs. AEX established the James Hedrick Scholarship Fund in memory of Dr. James Hedrick who was sponsor of the club for many years.

Campers sent to Wyldewood

Wyldewood was the site of Zeta Phi's first major function this year where Mohicans, their brother club, joined them for an outing. A Christmas party at the Wyldewood retreat center climaxed the first semester. Frequent devotionals with Mohicans drew the clubs closer together. Spring saw lots of activity as the members enjoyed a cookout at their sponsor's home, another outing, and a Valentine banquet. As a service project Zeta Phi collected money to send children to Camp Wyldewood.

Bison placed in new gym

The fall semester found Sigma Tau participating in all club sports, as well as other activities. As Homecoming rolled around, members were busy working on their lifesize bison which is now in the new gym. Members were busy in December collecting toys for the SA toy and dolly drive. In the spring, members again participated in all club sports. The Stockholm Restaurant in Heber Springs was the sight for Sigma Tau's banquet in February. Later in the spring members enjoyed a float trip down the Buffalo River.

Money raised for missionary

Service projects were a major concern with the members of Beta Tau this year. Singing in local nursing homes with their brother club, Beta Phi Kappa, and raising money for an Austrian missionary were two of their main projects. The members also participated in several activities with some Philippino nurses in the surrounding area. Highlighting the Spring semester was Beta Tau and Beta Phi's production of a Spring Sing act entitled "Jaws." Other activities of the club this year included a hayride and cookout at Wyldewood, a spaghetti supper with Beta Phi, a spring banquet, bunking parties and participation in all club sports.

Club aids Red Cross

Winning the participation award for "The Impossible Dream" in Spring Sing last year spurred the Woodson Harding Coeds on to an active year. The oldest club on campus, WHC began the year's events with a sack-lunch outing and devotional at Petit Jean Mountain. Their major function for the fall semester was the annual country supper/hayride. Other activities of the fall included the very colorful appearance of the members as clowns in the Homecoming parade. During the Spring semester WHC members collected money for the National Red Cross.

Luau held with brother club

A Delta Theta Hawaiian luau with their brother club, Alpha Epsilon Chi, provided fun and fellowship for both clubs as well as bringing happiness to the needy families in the city who received the remainder of the roasted hog. The month of December saw excitement as the members had a hayride — Christmas party as one of their functions. Joint production of a Spring Sing act entitled "The Toyshop" helped bring Delta Theta and Alpha Epsilon closer together. Adopting grandparents at Leisure Lodge, having a bunking party at Joe Webb's Stables and canoeing on the Buffalo River all made the year an exciting and eventful one.

Chi Sigs prepare calendar

Chi Sigs began the school year by assisting the female students move in. Members enjoyed building a Homecoming float with Regina, their sister club. Other brother-sister club activities included Christmas caroling, joint devotionals and participating in Spring Sing. The club aided the student body by placing a school calendar in the Student Center to keep the students informed of campus activities.

Spring break campaign held

In their third year of existence, King's Men set as their goal new heights of spiritual development and closer fellowship among members and their sisters in OEGE. Various events beginning with a float trip early in the fall, collecting funds for the Retarded Children's Drive, conducting church services, and participating in the S.A. Toy and Dolly Drive filled the year. Second semester members began meeting weekly in small "life groups" composed chiefly of members of King's Men and OEGE who spent their spring break evangelizing the campus of Ohio State University.

'Jaws' staged in Spring Sing

The fall semester found Beta Phi presenting a chapel program, showing the opportunities for service within the Searcy area. Singing at Leisure Lodge was a regular service provided by Beta Phi. The club enjoyed a spaghetti supper and monthly devotionals with their sister club, Beta Tau. Other fall activities included a campout, a Christmas party, all club sports, and an outing. In the spring, the club presented "Jaws" as their Spring Sing theme. A float trip down the Buffalo, a banquet, and an outing with Beta Tau were some of the other activities enjoyed in the spring. They ended the year with an ice cream and strawberry social honoring the graduating seniors.

Spring Sing theme is 'Fire'

Ju Go Ju social club began the school year by initiating purple clad "cutie pie" pledges. Their interclub sports program included softball, volleyball and basketball. Ju Go Ju again sponsored May Fete in which upper classmen nominees from each women's social club participated. They ventured to Camp Milesylvania in the west central portion of the state for their fall outing. Ju Go Ju combined their talents with their brother club, Galaxy, to take part in Spring Sing with the theme of "Fire."

Group holds Christmas banquet

For the first time the Tri Sigma pledges were called Tri Sig Signals this year. Giving a Halloween party for the children at the children's home in Conway was one of Tri Sigma's many and varied activities this year. Christmas was a very special time for the members as they had a formal party at Wyldeewood and again achieved 100% participation in the annual Toy and Dolly Drive. Participation in Spring Sing and frequent devotionals with Theta Tau, their brother club, helped promote closeness among the members.

National honors, positions awarded Alpha Chi members

Ten members of the Arkansas Eta Chapter of Alpha Chi attended the biennial national meeting of the 140 chapters of Alpha Chi in Atlanta, Ga., on April 3-5, 1975. Scholarly papers were presented by Ted Fish, David Hatfield, Rohn Kennington, Curtis Linge, and Brandt McCorkle. Richard Paine gave a dramatic reading and Janet Gallman was the recipient of a $300 Alfred H. Nolle Scholarship for 1975-76. Linge was elected as one of the six student members to a two-year term on the National Council, and Dr. Joseph E. Pryor was re-elected to a four-year term as Secretary-Treasurer of the National Council.

Inducting 56 members on Oct. 22 and 38 members on Feb. 18, the chapter had the largest membership in its history. On Feb. 11, the chapter hosted an open session on graduate study by a panel of faculty members who had recently pursued graduate study. Sponsors of the chapter — Dr. Pryor, Dr. England, and Dr. Neale Pryor — hosted informal meetings of the chapter in their homes.

1. INDUCTING new members Blair Hill and Becky Hinkle into Alpha Chi, Dr. Don England conducts the candlelight ceremony.
2. SPONSORS Dr. Joseph Pryor and Dr. Neale Pryor admire Alpha Chi charter.

ORGANIZATIONS

Theme of 'A New Beginning' chosen by SA for '76 year

Functioning under the theme of "A New Beginning," the Student Association sponsored many projects and activities during the 1975-76 school year.

The Movie Affairs Committee used proceeds from movies to supplement the new projector fund. Highlighting the movie list was "The Apple Dumpling Gang," "Camelot," and "The Sting."

Social Clubs were utilized by the Spiritual Life Committee in organizing weekly Lily Pool devotionals.

The Social Affairs Committee promoted lyceums which included the Wright Brothers, Whole Wheat, and T & M Express.

Not forgetting those in need, the S.A. led the students in a food drive on Halloween and a toy and dolly drive before Christmas.

After a thorough revision of their constitution, the S.A. presented it to the student body to be voted on.

1. COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN. Carey, Melson, Baten. 2. S.A. President, Lot Therrio addresses students at the Freshman-Transfer talent show in September. 3. NANCY COCHRAN, SA Secretary, inquires about an upcoming program. 4. EXECUTIVE COUNCIL. Cochran, Bryant, Wilson, Therrio. 5. WAITING for the coffee house to begin, Suzy Carey, Social Affairs Chairwoman, waves to a friend. 6. SA REPRESENTATIVES. FIRST ROW: Ulrey, Wittemore, McCutchen. ## Workshops attended by staffers, '75 book wins All-American

Eight members of the Petit Jean staff traveled to Little Rock for a workshop sponsored by the Arkansas College Publications Association. The 1975 Petit Jean was awarded an All-American rating by the ACPA. This gave the Petit Jean its 16th consecutive All-American rating. The book also won first place in copy and photography.

Editor Andrea Mannen, assistant editor Kim Moss, and advisor Dr. Joseph Pryor participated in the Associated Collegiate Press convention held in St. Louis, Missouri, in October. Dr. Pryor led a group session on "Yearbooks — Treasures of Undergraduate Years."

Changes in the 1976 Petit Jean were evident in the modified layouts, the extensive use of line work, and special effects in the form of screens and duotones. With the theme, "A New Beginning," the book attempted to cover all aspects of campus life by using more candid photos. Covering the first half of the Bicentennial year the book endeavored to capture the 'Spirit of '76.'

First Class rating awarded by ACP to Spring '75 Bison

The 1975 spring semester entry of the Bison was awarded a First Class rating by the Associated Collegiate Press. Three marks of distinction were earned in content and coverage, writing and editing, and editorial leadership.

Lengthening each issue of the 1975-76 Bison gave students more insight on current happenings and informed them better of news on campus. The staff strove to cover more vital news and relate national issues to the campus. A more extensive use of double page spreads and in-depth interviews gave a more complete representation of campus life. The "Facts in Focus" section became an important part of the paper by offering news of future happenings along with current news. Students and others often took advantage of the opportunity given them by "Feedback" and wrote letters to the editor on various issues concerning school activities. Members of the Bison staff participated in the ACP/NCCPA convention in St. Louis in November and the ACPA workshop in Little Rock in October.

Bands raise school spirit, entertain with concerts, tour area

Half time festivities at home football games were highlighted by performances of the Bison Band. The band also sent a large pep unit to most out-of-town games. Along with game performances, the band marched in three parades and presented an outdoor Christmas concert on December 9.

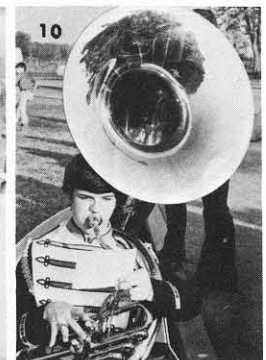

Major spring activities included a five state tour in February, the annual Pops concert, and a performance at the Awards Banquet in April. Also in April, the band combined with the choruses in a Bicentennial celebration. The band was directed by Dr. Eddie Baggett.

Under the leadership of student director, Johnny Nash, the Pep Band added spirit to pep rallies and played during the Junior College Basketball Tournament in January. Among its other activities, the Pep Band performed on tour with the Bison Band and acted as an ambassador for the college in concerts at high schools in the area.

Orchestra's first year proves active, Stage Band enjoys trips

In its first year, the Orchestra made excellent progress as a new group on campus. Combining the talents of Harding students with those of residents of the Searcy community, the group performed in three major concerts during the year. In the December concert, the Orchestra was aided by the Academy's first grade in performing "The Nutcracker Suite." A special presentation of "Peter and the Wolf" for the Academy students and an April concert constituted spring activities. The group was directed by Travis Cox.

Providing entertainment as the back up band for Spring Sing '76, the Stage Band was directed by student director Warren Casey. The group toured Arkansas and neighboring states in February and combined with the Pep Band for basketball game performances and a December concert.

The Woodwind Quintet and the String Quartet were both subsidiary groups of the Orchestra. Each ensemble performed classical as well as modern tunes specially written for groups of their size. Under the direction of Travis Cox, they presented a chapel program in the fall and performed with the Orchestra in its three concerts.

Varied talents and styles show musical diversity of groups

With a spring break tour of Florida, Georgia and North Carolina highlighting the year, the Time of Day continued to spread the story of Harding College throughout America.

The group added a violin to its instrumental repertoire as it mixed rock, popular and easy listening music in frequent performances. Campus events, youth rallies, college and high school performances constituted the main activities of the group.

Performing for various social events such as banquets, youth rallies, civic organizations, and on college and high school campuses, Morningside enjoyed its third year of organization. Playing popular music, the group added an Americana medley along with barbershop music to its performances. The year was highlighted by trips to Texas, Illinois, and surrounding cities in Arkansas.

1. TIME OF DAY. Woodroof, Hicks, Miller. 2. DURING a practice session, Keith Davidson and Kent Smith prepare for an upcoming performance. 3. MORNINGSIDE. Rampton, K. Davidson, Smith, Keith Davidson. 4. TIM WOODROOF, Chuck Hicks, and Don Miller add humor to their popular songs. 5. STRIVING for perfection, members of the Time of Day practice long hours.

Versatile Belles and Beaux entertain with Americana medley

Performing contemporary and popular music along with humorous skits, Belles and Beaux mixed choreography with singing talents. The year was marked with a special patriotic medley in honor of the nation's 200th birthday. Songs such as "This Land Is Your Land," "God Bless America," and "This Is Your Country" highlighted the medley.

In addition to their campus appearances, the Belles and Beaux toured Florida and Alabama in November and performed for Vietnamese refugees at Fort Chaffee in October. Spring activities were climaxed by a six week USO tour of Germany beginning in February and ending in April. Ten members of the group participated and went under the temporary name of The Good Company. The group was directed by Clifton Ganus III.

1. BELLES AND BEAUX. FIRST ROW: D. Ganus, Dooley, Holder, Woods, Haugh, Pounders, K. Curtis. SECOND ROW: C. Ganus, Balcom, Carter, Aly, Jones, Blackwell, Organ, C. ## A Cappella performs Beethoven's Ninth in special concert

A Cappella, under the direction of Dr. Kenneth Davis, presented concerts locally and taped appearances for Channel 7 to air on Sunday mornings for the Sixth and Izard Church of Christ. On October 7 they combined with Chorale and the Arkansas Symphony in a performance of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony. A Cappella also appeared in the Christian College Choral Festival, which was held on Harding's campus in January.

In addition to their fall and spring tours, A Cappella also took a summer tour to Eastern and Western Europe. They were sponsored by the Gdansk Medical Academy Choir in Gdansk, Poland. During the three weeks prior to the tour, approximately half of the tour members worked in International Campaigns. Money for the chorus campaigners was raised by chorus appearances.

This year the places toured by A Cappella totaled 47 states and 77 foreign countries.

1. A CAPPELLA. FRONT ROW: Qualls, Adams, Cannon, Mitchell, Walker, Dillard, Marlin, Wiser, C. Curtis, Balcom, Trombly, D. Smith, Wood, Aly, C. Campbell, Thomas, B. Curtis, K. ## Choral Festival and tours provide groups with experiences

Chorale members participated in the 10th annual Christian College Choral Festival held on campus January 9-10. Nine choruses from Christian colleges performed in the event that blended 430 voices. Dr. George Lynn, a composer from Denver who has written music for Harding's musical groups, was the clinician.

Chorale combined with A Cappella and the Arkansas Symphony for its first performance of the year. The consolidated groups performed Beethoven's Ninth (Choral) Symphony on October 7 before a capacity crowd.

Under the direction of Clifton Ganus III, Chorale toured Arkansas and Texas in December.

Performances during the October lectureship and at the Black and Gold Banquet in December began a busy year for the Chamber Singers. The group, selected from members of the Chorale, traveled to area high schools during the year and took part in the January Choral Festival. The group was directed by Clifton Ganus III.

Because of the large number of singers in Chorale and A Cappella another group, Campus Singers, was formed for anyone interested in singing. Although it was a new group, the members were enthusiastic about their singing, and participation was high. Kenneth Davis directed the group.

1. CHORALE. FIRST ROW: Rodgers, Pennington, Kay, Grevillius, Miller, Gay, Cole, Roberts, Thweatt, Martin, Easley, Smith, Voss, Nance, Davis. ## American Studies hosts variety of noted personalities

Continuing to offer outstanding programs on business, economics and related subjects, the American Studies Program strove to bring noteworthy speakers to campus. Members of the American Studies heard such men as White House correspondent Robert Pierpoint, General William Westmoreland, and G. Warren Nutter, Professor of Economics at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia. Frank Goble spoke at the Management and Economics Seminar in January. Other speakers the program offered were Jack Evans, Bob Bleiberg, David Hale, Dr. John Carroll, and Dr. George Benson.

The American Studies group travelled to Washington D.C. in the spring on a trip during which they toured the area and heard speakers.

1. AMERICAN STUDIES. FIRST ROW: Roberts, Reese, Alexander, Kuhn, Myslivecek, Ferrell, S. O'Keefe, Beck, Peters, Goodspeed. SECOND ROW: Aven, Cerminara, Arnold, Ware, Norwood, Clarke, Metz, Powell, Teffertiller, Smith. THIRD ROW: M. O'Keefe, Frey, Johnson, Simmons, Hinds, Tucker, Ganus, Cone, Langford, Parsons, Marr. ## Business teams represent school, contend for victories

With 1976 marking the first decade of the Emory Intercollegiate Business Competition, the Emory Business Team travelled to Atlanta to compete for its fifth championship. Quality leadership and competent management decisions enabled the team to achieve its high status. This year's competition, based on the marketing of C-B radios, pitted the schools with proven success in one championship industry.

Representing a simulated company, the Reno Business Team competed in the 12th annual Reno Business Games. The 15 team contest began February 14 with the teams sending in each Friday decisions representing a quarter year's business operations. The University of Nevada at Reno sponsored the contest, which ended April 25. Also competing in the games were colleges and universities from California, Nevada, Montana, and Idaho.

1. EMORY BUSINESS TEAM. FIRST ROW: Cone, Wilson. SECOND ROW: Bryan, Tucker, Emerson. 2. WORKING in the computer room, Jim Cone and Mike Emerson, spend long hours preparing business calculations. 3. RENO BUSINESS TEAM. Kirksey, Simmons, Clarke, Lackie. 4. DISCUSSING an upcoming competition, the Emory team meets to make plans.

Debate team wins nationals, educators stimulate students

Kappa Delta Pi, national honor society in education, was open for membership to individuals involved in all areas of teaching, both student and professional. Speakers from the college's department of education helped stimulate student interest in club meetings.

Student debaters and speakers were offered an opportunity to further their speaking interest in Pi Kappa Delta.

Special interest group for accounting majors, Pi Gamma Psi, was also open to all business majors. The group heard several speakers discuss related topics.

History, business, English students honored by societies

Phi Alpha Theta, international history honor organization, held monthly meetings in which students and faculty presented papers and ideas for discussion. The group participated in a national convention in December and a regional meeting in the spring.

Honorary fraternity for business and economics majors, Delta Mu Delta, was open to all juniors and seniors with at least a 3.2 cumulative grade point average.

English honorary society, Sigma Tau Delta, inducted several faculty members as well as students into the group in the fall. Later in the semester the group enjoyed a program on literary criticism presented by Dr. Cleveland of the English department. In the spring, delegates represented the college at the national Sigma Tau Delta convention in Oxford, Mississippi.

Journalists, artists, dramatists work in related honor groups

Members of Kappa Pi, honorary art fraternity, participated in an "exchange show" with the University of Central Arkansas. Art works were taken to UCA and products from UCA were brought to Harding for display. The group sponsored an African art show in November.

Working in all aspects of play production and performance, members of Alpha Psi Omega strove to stimulate interest in drama on campus. The national honor society for dramatists worked for perfection of members in campus productions.

The Society for Collegiate Journalists, a national honor journalism fraternity, recognized individual ability and achievement in collegiate journalistic pursuits. The group worked to promote the welfare of the college through journalism and to promote better relationships between college students and professional journalists.

Campaigners travel abroad, workshops attended by forum

International Campaigns gave students an opportunity to teach the gospel in foreign lands. During the summer months 150 students participated in campaigns in such countries as England, Brazil, Holland, Singapore, Germany, and Italy.

Preparation through the school year was an important duty to the campaigners as they met each week to learn songs and phrases in the languages of the countries to be visited. Work of the campaigners consisted of singing in town squares, knocking on doors, and distributing literature.

World Evangelism Forum members participated in several workshops held throughout the year. A large number of the group went to Lubbock Christian College October 31-November 1 for the World Missions Workshop.

Meetings during the year were highlighted by guest speakers. Parker Henderson, missionary from Bangkok, Thailand, spoke in October, giving his views and experiences in mission work. Missionary from Singapore, Gordon Hogan, visited in February and spoke on the work in Singapore.

1. INTERNATIONAL CAMPAIGNERS. FIRST ROW: Long, Crews, L. Richardson, Wilhite, Cannon, Corlew, Rogers, Reese, Thomas, B. Curtis, Wood, McGee, P. Blair, Mansur, Whitaker, Reavis, J. ## Gospel is spread at home and abroad by devoted students

The Timothy Club, made up of Bible and Missions majors, worked in the community to meet the needs of individuals both on campus and off. Committees were formed to visit those confined to hospitals and jails and other committees worked with new Christians in Bible studies.

Joy, whose theme was Jesus first, others second, yourself last, strived to serve the Lord in many ways on campus and in the surrounding community. The club sponsored devotionals entitled "Be Ye Perfect," "She Hath Done What She Could," and "The Imperishable Jewel." These featured community and college women speakers.

Students gave six to nine weeks of the summer vacation to spread the gospel through 14 Northeastern cities on the Northeast Campaigns. Knocking on doors and teaching home Bible studies constituted the major work of the campaigners.

The Northwest Campaigns, initiated in the summer of 1974, carried the gospel to five Northwestern states. Students worked in the campaigns by assisting congregations during gospel meetings, knocking on doors and holding home Bible studies.

The Conquerors spread enthusiasm and guidance for Christian living to young people by conducting youth rallies in six Arkansas and Oklahoma cities.

Groups serve others, experience debates, show theatrical skill

In their effort to help spread the gospel, Dactylology Club members visited congregations in both Cabot and Cave City, Arkansas each Sunday, interpreting the church services for the deaf.

In the spring the group toured the School for the Deaf in Little Rock, attempting to learn how to increase the effectiveness of their work with the deaf.

Endeavoring to draw themselves closer to their "little brothers," the Big Brothers sponsored outdoor activities during the year. The fall schedule included a camp-out at Wyldeewood in October, a swimming party in early November, and a Christmas party.

Before the fall semester began, the Big Sisters went to work writing letters to the incoming freshman girls. As the new girls arrived on campus, their Big Sisters helped them move in and get settled into the college routine.

In the fall, KHCA introduced a monthly feature program to spotlight popular rock groups. Among the personalities KHCA interviewed were Kurt Klippstatter, Arkansas Symphony Orchestra conductor, Dr. Zelma Green, a noted psychologist, and Robert Pierpoint, Washington correspondent.

The Debate Squad participated in debates at universities and colleges across the nation. The squad won first place sweepstakes at Louisiana Tech and seventh place at Bradley University in Peoria, Illinois.

Members of Campus Players participated in the two major productions, "Annie Get Your Gun" and "The Cherry Orchard."

Opportunity given to science, pre-med students to excel

The Student Nursing Association worked to acquaint future nurses with the many sides of nursing, as well as to promote public interest in nursing. The members participated in the annual blood draw, attended the State Student Nurses Association meeting in Little Rock, and provided a hypertension screening for the general public.

Members of the Pre-Med Club attended the National Medical Missions Seminar in Memphis in October. Dr. Robert Bowling, dean of admissions at the University of Arkansas Medical School, answered questions about Medical School policies at the January meeting.

The Science Club toured labs in Pine Bluff this fall to study the effects of certain chemicals on the environment. Throughout the year, programs pertaining to various aspects of research and science projects were presented to the club by members of the faculty.

The activities of the Behavioral Science Club included sponsoring the Hot Line all year, helping with fundraising for the Mental Health Association this spring, and volunteering services at the Sunshine School, the local institution for handicapped children.

Departmental clubs make trips, enjoy year of activities

Beginning the fall semester with a welcome party for all interested students, Spanish Club members enjoyed a full year of activities. The club sponsored the Spanish film, "Don Quixote" on November 17 and made a trip to Casa Bonita in April.

Highlighting the year with a tour of the quarters in New Orleans, the French Club enjoyed a full year of activity. During meetings, members heard guest speakers, viewed foreign language films and discussed aspects of life in French countries.

Members of the Art Guild held several Third Drawer sales in which products such as ceramics, macrame, and paintings were sold. A booth displaying various art goods was constructed at the Arkansas Arts and Crafts Fair in Little Rock. Senior art majors held shows throughout the year with their art work on display.

The Student National Education Association informed the future teachers of the current educational issues and encouraged Christian professionalism in the field of education. Members of SNEA heard speakers at monthly meetings discuss topics such as writing resumes, filling out applications, and handling discipline problems in school. A Christmas party for underprivileged children was one of the highlights of the year.

A career workshop, sponsored by AHEA, enabled students to hear guest speakers on career opportunities in the home economics and related fields. Members of the group held a Christmas party for the college men and young boys participating in the Big Brothers program and acted as guides for the open house of the Olen Hendrix building.

Beginning early in the fall with a reception for music students, the A Tempo Club was involved in several activities which included attending operas in Little Rock and Memphis and touring a piano factory in Conway. A highlight of the year was the January appearance of Dr. Herman Finkelstein of the American Association of Composers, Authors, and Publishers.

Spelunkers explore caves, PEMM club makes Colorado trip

Exploring caves in several Arkansas counties, the Spelunkers found beauty and excitement underground throughout the year. New members of the group were taught the techniques of rock climbing on Bee Rock at Wyldewood and they used this experience in their many excursions. A February banquet highlighted by guest speaker Mike Warshauer, editor of a publication concentrating on Arkansas caves, added to the group's other activities.

A fellowship in the early fall offered physical education majors, minors, faculty, and staff an opportunity to become better acquainted as the PEMM Club began an active year. An overnight camping and float trip on the Buffalo River was enjoyed by the group. The year's activities were highlighted by a ski trip to Colorado during the Christmas vacation. PEMM Club members acted as guides upon the February opening of the new physical education complex.

1. PEMM club member, Vickie Emery, greets visitors at the opening night of the new gymnasium. 2. COMING around a corner in the Martin Hollow cave is Webster Smith. 3. PEMM CLUB. ## Groups serve dorms, promote freedom, work with retarded

WSRO sponsored many service activities throughout the year for the women students of the college. Dorm projects included supplying a new color television for Cathcart, new drapes for Kendall, and ping pong tables for Stephens. Ladies' Night in the new gym was also organized by the group, highlighting a year of hard work.

Organized in the spring semester, Young Americans for Freedom worked throughout the semester to preserve freedom through education. Members of the group wrote articles for papers, participated in radio programs, a speaker's bureau, and a seminar. The year's activities were concluded with a Bicentennial rally.

The major work of the Civilians was aiding the mentally retarded. The 20 newly chartered members collected for the March of Dimes on Saturday, February 7, and made future plans to work with the Sunshine School for the retarded. The group also worked to develop and promote good citizenship among the student body.

Circle K supports Scouts, Republicans promote politics

Circle K, newly formed this year as a collegiate service organization, held concern for both the college and the surrounding community. Members participated in the March of Dimes and Muscular Dystrophy drives, and were active supporters of the Searcy Boy Scout program. In February, the group hosted the Southern District training session with guest speaker Gary Steffes, Governor of the Missouri-Arkansas Executive Board.

Members of the Private Enterprise Institute Team travelled to Oklahoma Christian College in Oklahoma City in January to participate in a competition sponsored by the American Citizenship Center. In the competition, called "students for Private Enterprise," the relationship of pro capitalism and the community was presented.

The College Republicans of Arkansas worked to further the interests and political beliefs of its members and to promote greater understanding about issues of public policy. The major activity was the carrying out of a campus-wide Citizenship Awareness program. This program was designed to increase the understanding and appreciation of the social, political, and economic institutions of America.

Internationals share customs, business women host dinners

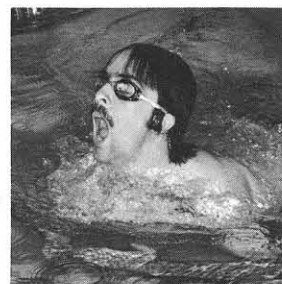

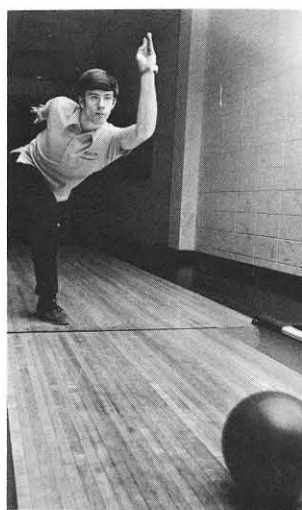

With the theme of "Holiday Highlights with Harding Business Women," the year's programs of the Harding Business Women centered around holidays during the year. Monthly meetings consisted of pot luck dinners, speeches, devotionals and fellowship. "Bosses' Night" in April enabled members to invite their bosses to a dinner in the Heritage Room.

The International Club met to exchange information about customs and life in different countries. At meetings each member supplied a food made from a recipe popular in his own country. A chapel program in the fall and a spring banquet highlighted the group's activities.

SPORTS

1. ENTHUSIASTICALLY leading Bison yells, Becky Sides displays pep and spirit. 2. CROSS COUNTRY member Joe Shepherd runs with endurance to finish the course. 3. TAILBACK J. D. ## Squad encourages athletic teams with tireless enthusiasm

Loyally boosting the Bison athletes, Harding's seven cheerleaders attended all games, away and at home.

The goal of the group this year was to do something for each team member. This involved making signs and favors for the teams' lockers before games and larger banners for the stadium.

The traditionally popular chapel announcements and skits of the girls encouraged everyone to support the Bisons and attend pep rallies.

1. THE CHEERLEADERS: FIRST ROW: Mary Margaret Ramsey, Kathy Florence; SECOND ROW: Joyce Richardson, Becky Sides, Tina Sparks, Dana Adams, Kerry Trotter. 2. ## Bisons claim four Honorable Mention AIC All-Americans

Finishing their first losing season in recent years, the Bison grid team turned in a 4-6 overall record and a 3-4 conference mark. The team, showing much enthusiasm and future potential, placed fifth in the AIC behind Quachita, Henderson State, Southern State, and Central Arkansas.

Four Bisons received the honor of being named Honorable Mention All-American by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics. Those honored were Ted Walters (full back), Mike Black (offensive tackle), Randy Miller (linebacker), and J. D. Smith (returned specialist).

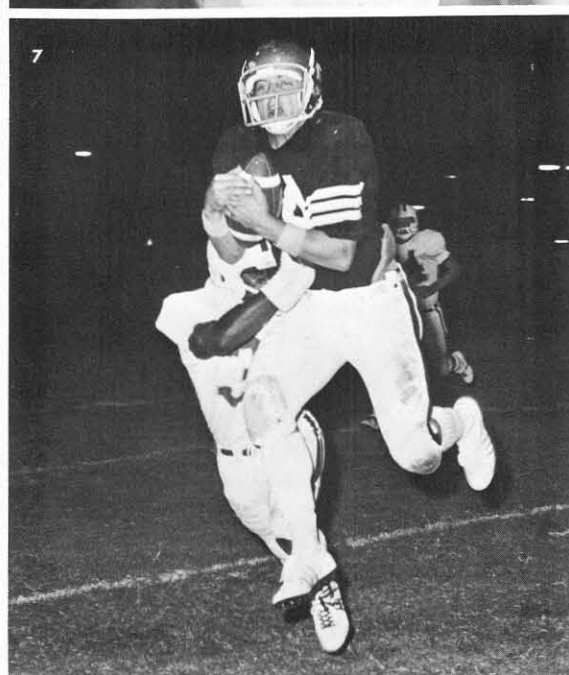

Randy Miller was ranked the number one tackler in NAIA Division 1 with 16.8 tackles per game. J. D. Smith set an individual record for the most total yards gained and most yards gained rushing by running for 284 yards against UA Monticello.

Due to a good recruiting season, several rookie athletes saw considerable action. Coach Prock's 1976 Bisons have a favorable outlook this year with several experienced lettermen returning and new recruits.

1. FOOTBALL TEAM: FIRST ROW: Findley, Shock, Akins, Orr, Stamp, P. Brown, Miller, Nellar, Sexton, Ellzey, Wilson, Wells, Winston, Johnson, Banks. SECOND ROW: Chism, Adams, Ross, Tribble, Ra. ## Thinclads place five in AIC meet, two conference champs

Improvement was evident as the track team went from 7th place with 17 points in the 1974 AIC meet to 4th place with 31 points in the 1975 AIC meet.

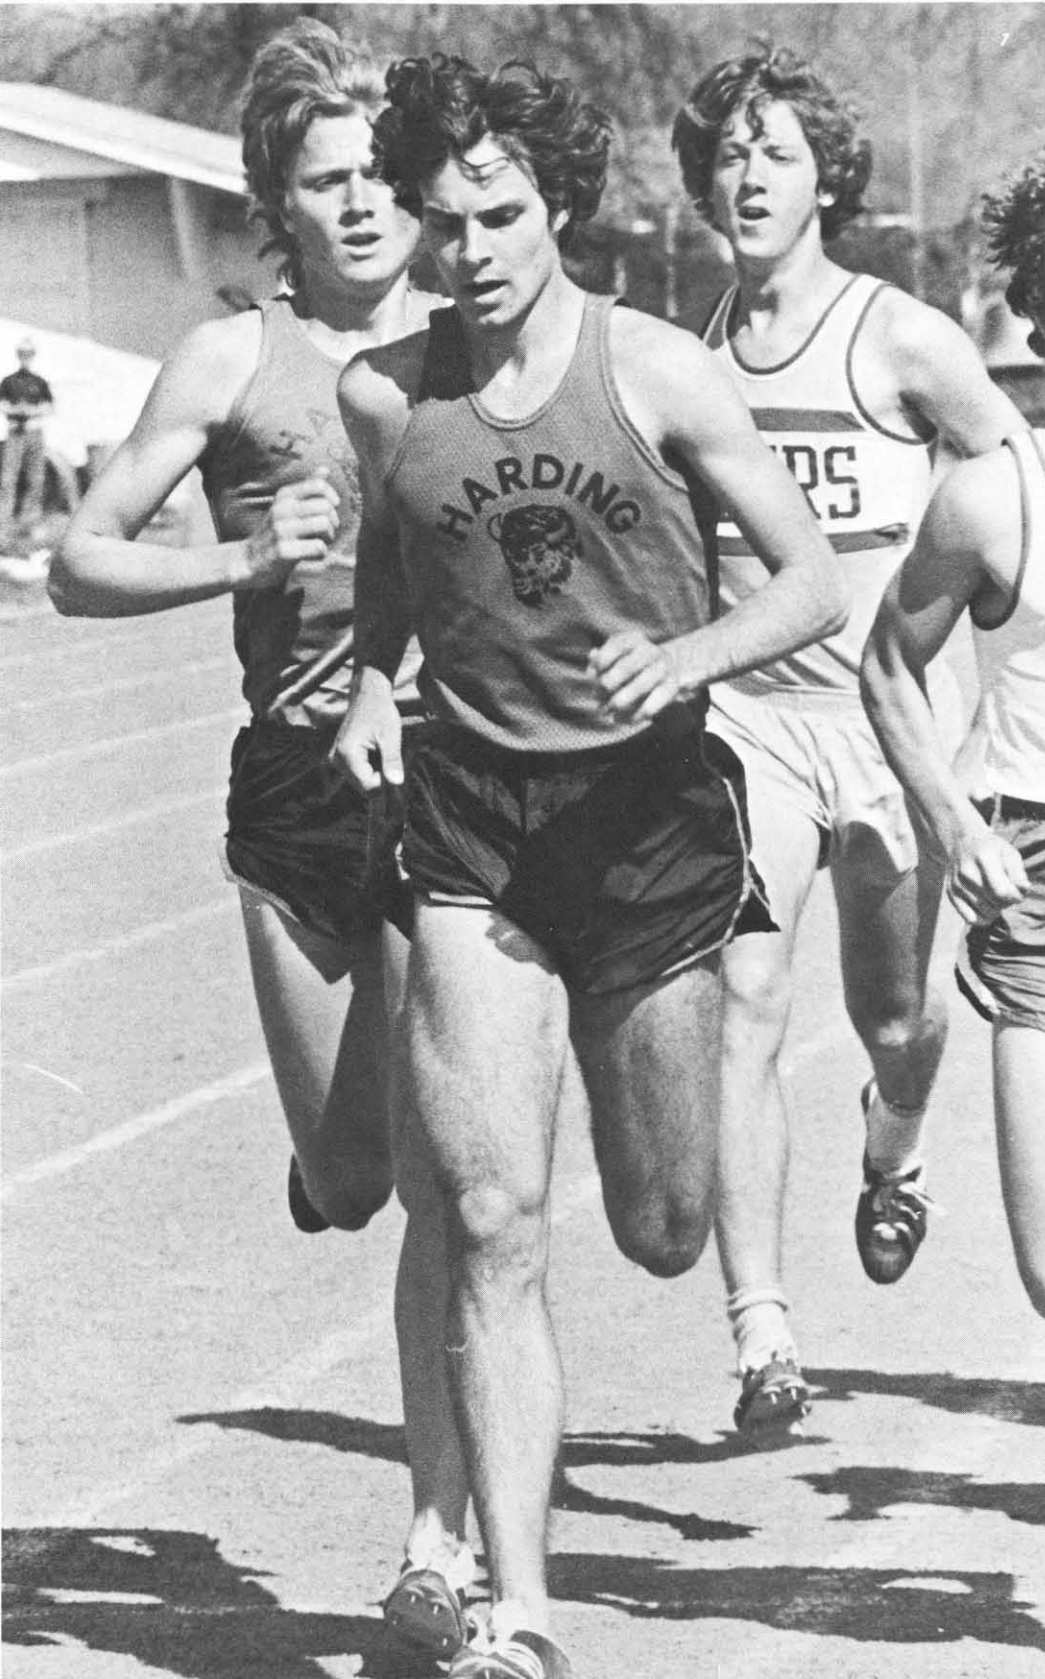

The thinclads had five men to place in the AIC meet. Steve Flatt, a freshman, tossed the shot put 50-4 for a first place conference victory. Steve Celsor also placed 1st in his specialty, the high jump, with a leap of 6'7". Marshall Grate, placing 4th in the mile run, turned in a time of 4:17.2. His best jump of the season, 46'3-1/2", enabled Greg Blake to place 3rd in the triple jump. Leon White placed 3rd in the 440 intermediate hurdles with a time of 53.5, his best of the year. Mark Galeazzi placed 4th in the 3-mile event with a time of 14:38.3.

1. WITH precision, Leon White hands the baton off. 2. CISCO BASSETT blasts out of the blocks for the first leg of the relay. 3. HEAVING the shot put, Steve Flatt wins the AIC title. 4. ANCHORMAN Robert Harper sprints to a decisive victory. 5. MENTALLY preparing himself, Willie Williams waits for the sound of the gun. 6. TRACK TEAM:-FIRST ROW: Hamilton, Grimes, Wiederspan, Mead, Johnson, Dooley, Bassett, Samanie, White, Sewell, Wills, Blake, Rae, Brooks, O'Keefe. SECOND ROW: Coach Sharp, Commotto, Harper, Oliver, Pierce, Shepherd, Galeazzi, Grate, Celsor, Bradford, Nixon, McLendon, Bauer, Bell, Flatt, Deese, Harris, Lambeth, Coach Lloyd. 7. PHYSICAL endurance keeps Marshall Grate and Dave Nixon ahead of the pack. 8. BILL RAE strains to clear the bar.

Buffaloes swim away with AIC title, Kahla high scorer

Defeating the 10 year champion, Hendrix College, the Harding Water Buffaloes won the 13th AIC Swimming and Diving Championships after winning three consecutive AIC second places in the last three years. The Bisons won 7 events and totalled 136-1/2 points to overwhelmingly defeat the distant second place Hendrix with 87-1/2 points.

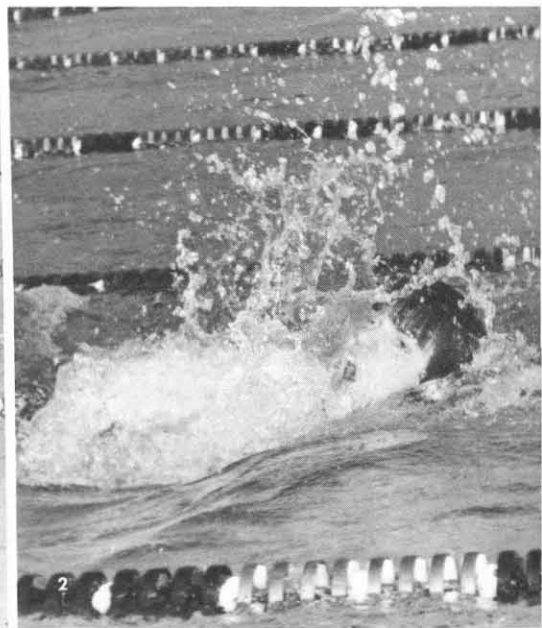

Freshman Norman Kahla led the Bisons winning first place in the 100, 200, and 500-yard freestyle events and anchored the 400-yard freestyle relay team. Kahla defeated the conference champion in the 100-yard freestyle to set a new school record at 52.7. After setting a school record in the 500-yard freestyle with a time of 5:31.2, he anchored the 400-yard relay composed of Wendall Cave, Dan Duclos and Tim Hughes, which finished first with a time of 3:35.2 to establish another school record.

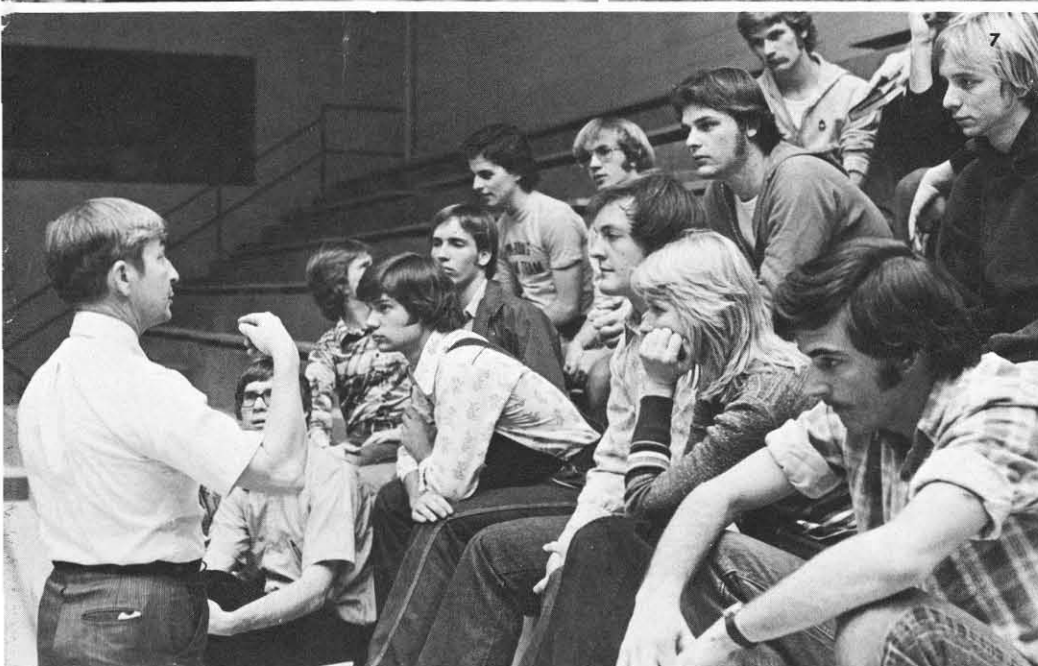

Another Freshman, Steve North, defeated the defending AIC champion to set a new school record in the 200-yard backstroke.

Senior Mark Trotter became the first diver in AIC history to win the one-meter diving championship four years in a row.

Norman Kahla won the high point trophy with 24-1/2 points and Dale Linge was runnerup with 18-1/2 points.

Twenty-seven are All-AIC, two earn All-American rank

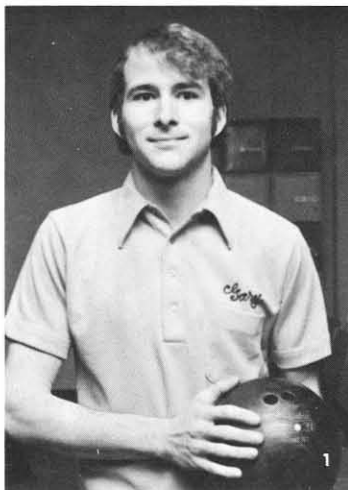

Athletic performances reached a peak as Bison teams achieved some of their best results. Harding finished a close second place in the All-Sports competition for the fourth time since attaining membership in the AIC.

Former track All-American Cliff Clark was inducted into the NAIA National Track and Field Hall of Fame on May 24, 1975. He gained All-American in 1965 by placing 12th in the NAIA national Track and Field Hall of Fame on May 24, 1975. He gained All-American in 1965 by placing 12th in the NAIA national cross country meet and was honored in 1966 as the "Athlete of the Year" by the Arkansas AAU.

Golfer Bill Fowler was runner up for the 1975 AIC Cliff Shaw Scholar-Athlete Award.

Two Harding Athletes were named All-American. Butch Gardner was named to the NAIA Third Team All-America and Steve Celsor was NAIA All-America and the 1975 NAIA high jump champion.

Dr. Mason retires, completes 30 years as Superintendent

PERRY S. MASON, M.A., LL.D., completed his tenure as Superintendent of Harding Academy after occupying the position for 30 years. Appointed by Dr. George S. Benson, Dr. Mason saw the Academy's student body double in size and change from 80 percent dormitory students to over 80 percent town students.

When Dr. Mason began as Principal in September of 1946, the Academy had only two salaried teachers — Dr. Mason and Mrs. Inez Pickens. The 180 students meeting in two Godden Hall classrooms sat through classes on chairs made from apple crates. Realizing that the school lacked extracurricular activities, Dr. Mason installed a traveling chorus and an athletic program. Dr. Mason recently approved plans for a one million dollar—1,254,000 square foot structure to house the Academy in the future.

In retirement Dr. Mason plans to author an American history textbook stressing the free enterprise system's role in the United States' development.

BILL DILES, M.A., high school Principal for nine years, oversaw all academic and extracurricular functions at the Academy. On the recommendation of a North Central evaluation committee, Mr. Diles attended Harding College and the University of Central Arkansas in the summer of 1975, taking advanced courses in school administration and certifying to teach driver education courses. Mr. Diles also gave play-by-play commentaries and kept statistics at football games.

DALE G. GOULD, M.A.T., began his first year as Registrar in the place of Mr. J. E. Berryhill, who retired in 1975. Previously, Mr. Gould held various positions at the Academy, including science instructor, history instructor, and Principal. As Registrar Mr. Gould worked with students in planning their courses of study and facilitated enrollment procedures through an early registration program.

Curriculum expands with fall installation of computer terminal

Expanding its curriculum, the Academy added courses in office practice and computer programming. The compact courses on programming in BASIC computer language, integrated into physics and upper-level math classes, began after a cathode ray tube terminal was connected with the college's central digital computer.

With just under half possessing masters degrees in their fields, the Academy boasted a faculty highly qualified to teach. Instructors in speech, business, and the sciences trained students for competition in forensics at Harding College and in typing, math, physics, and chemistry at Arkansas State University.

1. DRESSED for Halloween, Patti Williams, Tony Felker, and Cathy Vernon entertain the elementary classes. 2. PREPARING a backdrop, Nancy Pierce and LaJuana Case mark off a sheet. 3. FACULTY members receive instructions from Superintendent Perry Mason. 4. PLOTTING the graph of an equation, Algebra II students utilize the Academy's computer terminal. 5. AMERICAN HISTORY teacher Ruth Browning quizzes her students on current events. 6. SEARCHING for a book, Patti McKinney investigates the paperback stand. 7. "SKITCH" Henderson acknowledges a student's question. 8. PHYSICS students determine the buoyant force on a sample of submerged copper.

As we complete one portion of our lives and start to enter into another, we recall times, places, events, and people that have made lasting impressions. We remember those whose influences have shaped our lives.

For six years we have observed your actions and have developed a deep respect for you. We recall our first day in junior high when you made it clear to us how to spell your last name. Through these six years, we have seen you rejoice in victory and accept responsibility for defeat. As our coach in track and football, you have taught us a sense of doing our best that transcends winning or losing.

A tangible honor such as this can do little to repay the debt we owe to you. It can only symbolize the feelings of love, respect, and friendship we have for you. Because of your continual interest in us and because, through your example, you have taught and shown us a more excellent way of life, we, the seniors of 1976, dedicate our portion of the Petit Jean to you, Coach Bill Barden.

When the student body first came together in August, most wondered what the future would bring. As the year progressed, both students and teachers recognized the other's special talents and abilities. Each contributed his native skill, committing himself to do his best in whatever he attempted. Through competition in academics and sports, through cooperation in work and play, students molded a year created from what they themselves had given.

6. AFTER-SCHOOL worker Eddie Gentry replaces a burned out light bulb.
7. LOOKING for a book to report on, Ricky Reynolds checks in the card catalogue.

In a world in which individuals search for their identities, we recognize that our unique community is the place of our beginnings. For many, introduction into the community constituted a social upheaval. Entire families pulled up stakes, moving so their children could obtain a Christian education. Dormitory students faced extended periods of separation from their parents for the first time. As time passed, we formed enduring friendships and became dedicated to the way of life that we have come to value above all else. Today we know that wherever we go or whatever we accomplish, it is here that we have our roots.

Service projects occupy KAT

Early in the year, KAT social club sponsored service projects helping both the school and community. The club bought copies of the Alma Mater, pasted them in the school's songbooks, and collected in the local area for the National Association for Retarded Citizens.

At a tea in Debra Olree's home, ten new members were welcomed into the club. The ten comprised the largest pledge group of the year.

The club beaux coached the girls as they competed in intramural athletics. Closing with a spring banquet and a bunking party, the club elected new officers.

STAR takes softball title

Asserting itself early in sports, STAR social club captured the girls' intramural softball title. After losing the first game to Sub-Deb, STAR came back to win the double elimination tournament with two consecutive victories over Sub-Deb.

Six girls were inducted into the club in initiation ceremonies at Joe Webb's stables. The club held devotionals in members' homes and instituted a prayer sister program in the fall.

Members sent cards and exchanged surprise gifts at various times during the year.

A spring banquet centering around the Bicentennial completed the year's activities.

Sub-Deb initiation adds six

Climaxing Sub-Deb social club's pledge week was the formal initiation of six new members. The candlelight initiation ceremony, held in the home of Karm Beavers, was followed by a devotional led by the club beaux.

Active in the girls' intramural program, Sub-Deb placed second in the fall softball tournament. Pitcher Kim Martin and shortstop Susan Musick were chosen as the club's most valuable softball players.

Work parties in members' homes and in the girls' dorm were held to construct hats and books for pledge week, signs for lockers, and decorations for the spring banquet.

Clubs review pledging policy

Social clubs welcomed new members on October 3. Pledging activities began the day before with pledges rushing to get the halls decorated for the Hazen football game.

In a reevaluation of pledging activities, it was concluded, after initiation festivities and rough night, that the program could be continued because it acquainted girls with the club system.

Completion of softball intramurals resulted in STAR winning the double-elimination tournament. Each club selected two girls as most valuable players. From these six girls, junior Meg Alston was chosen as the social clubs' most valuable player.

1. STRETCHING to reach the ball, Kim Martin returns a volley. 2. PITCHER Meg Alston slides safely into home plate. 3. OBEYING her pledgemistress' orders, Gail McCampbell embraces a tree. 4. PROUDLY displaying her engagement ring, KAT Sponsor Elsie Lynn tells of her wedding plans. 5. CONSTRUCTING programs for Sub-Deb's spring banquet, Beaux Steve Eads and Mark Morris assist Donna Henry and Patti Chastain.

Governor advocates personal involvement in governing process

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE REPRESENTATIVES. David Cox, Jana Altman, Brenda Picker, Charles Murphy.

ON BOYS' STATE: Boys' State was really a good experience. I would say that the greatest thing about Boys' State is the people. The speakers were good, but the advantage of going to Boys' State is meeting the people. There were 800 plus kids on the UCA campus that week. I made some good friends, and I still hear from a lot of them.

French Club assists European missions by designing books

To aid missionaries in France and Belgium, French Club members collected pictures, using them to construct children's Sunday school books in the French language. By stressing simple Biblical themes such as "God loves me," the books emphasized a personal relationship to God. In an effort to expose the student body to French culture, members designed the hall's main bulletin board, showing how to bake French bread and displaying Impressionist paintings.

As one of the Academy's competitive outlets for business and forensic skills, Future Business Leaders of America contests on county, district, and state levels provided members with experience in public performances.

Academy performers approve constitution, form theatrical group

Dropping the national Thespian charter brought about the formation of a new organization, the Royal Academy Players. Miss Patti Williams, the club's sponsor, drafted a constitution which opened membership rolls to all students associated with school-sponsored theatrical production. The Players presented a one-act drama, "The Other Side of the Wall," the first Academy play produced and directed entirely by students.

Superintendent Perry Mason was recognized for 30 years of service by the Future Homemakers of America with the presentation of a handmade patchwork quilt. The club completed the quilt at two fall sewing and piecing parties and presented it in chapel December 10.

Under the supervision of Miss Ruth Browning, the Library Club determined which books and periodicals had the widest circulation among the student body. Members reminded students of overdue books by typing notices and taping them in lockers. By checking in books and keeping magazines in order, the club reduced the librarian's work load.

Visiting one of Arkansas Power and Light Company's generating plants provided the Science Club with the opportunity to observe the production of electricity.

Beta Club doubles membership, assists in NARC fund drive

More than doubling its size, the Senior Beta Club admitted 23 new members in the first half of the school year. The club assisted Sponsor Elsie Lynn on November 11 by collecting for the National Association for Retarded Citizens.

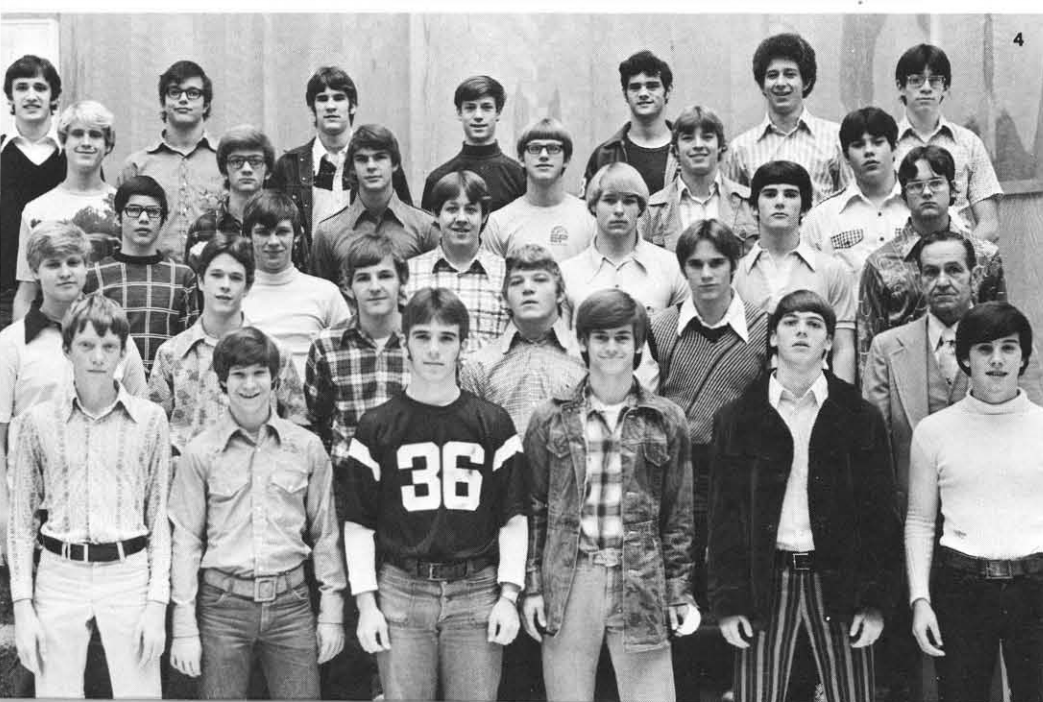

Walking from College Park to the Pizza Hut was the highlight of the Junior Beta Club's September 29 party. In the spring the members spent a day touring Little Rock. Officers were elected in an April meeting.

Members of the Beta Club have achieved and maintained a 90 percent average in all solid subjects for two consecutive six-week grading periods.

1. CONSULTING the school calendar, Sandra Roberts reserves a date for the Senior Beta Club dinner. 2. SEVENTH GRADER Roy Alston receives his entrance certificate from Rees Lloyd. 3. JUNIOR BETA CLUB. FIRST ROW: Wright, Coker, Wells, Pitchford, Yarbrough, Robison, Smith, Pryor. ## Service groups work at club car washes to buy camera unit

Working together on various projects, the Academy's three service groups donated a total of over $200 to purchase a camera and flash unit for student publications. Senior Key Club members earned $115 washing cars on the College Church parking lot.

In a Jogathon to Camp Wyldewood and back, the Junior Key Club raised $50. At the halfway point the club roasted wieners, played football, and swam. The club purchased a new mirror for the boys' restroom, a glass cover for Mrs. Vivian Hyde's desk, and a set of blinds for the science room.

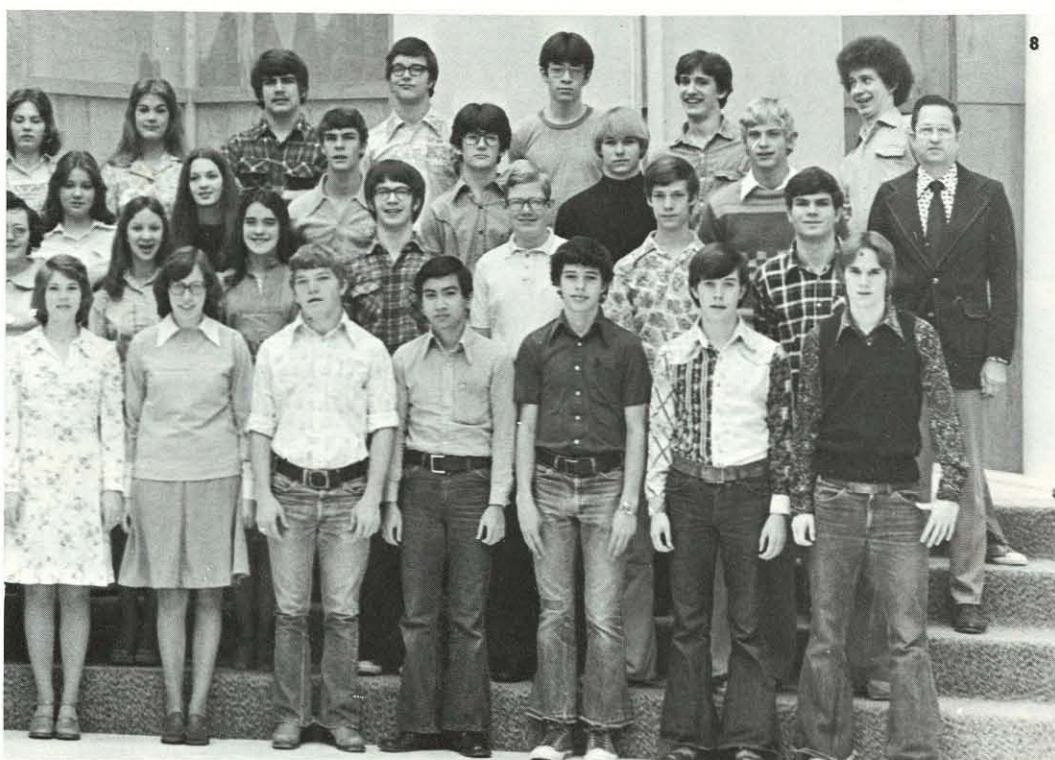

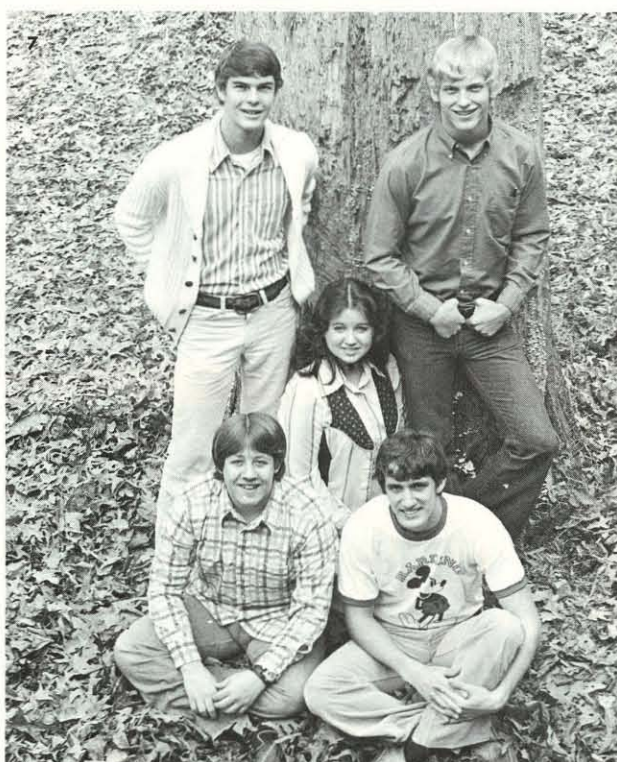

To improve the appearance of Principal Bill Diles' office, the Junior Civitans painted walls pale green, put up new curtains, and refinished old chairs.

Senior chorus shifts to recording studio, tours St. Louis area

Forced out of its old rehearsal room by its doubled size, the 80-member Senior High Chorus moved to the college's recording studio. While touring the St. Louis area, 42 members sang at local congregations and visited the zoo and art museum in Forest Park.

In a combined choral festival with several Christian colleges, the chorus rehearsed with clinician George Lynn on January 8 and 9.

The 40-member Junior High Chorus gave programs for Christmas, parents, and the Booster Club.

Two Academy students played in the 55-member Harding Symphony Orchestra. First violinist Anne Hamilton served as concert mistress, and Melinda Verkler played second violin. The premier performance of the orchestra was the Christmas production of Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite."

Throughout the year, five Academy students performed with the Harding Bison Band. During the first semester they played at football games, at the dedication of the Olen Hendrix building, and at a Christmas concert.

S.A. sponsors mixer to greet newcomers, helps needy persons

With a desire to make newcomers feel at home, the Student Association hosted a mixer for all students August 11. Soft drinks, cookies, and homemade ice cream were served on the playground while students got acquainted with each other.

Throughout the year at random, the S.A. sponsored devotionals at Mr. Joe Webb's barn for both Junior and Senior High students. Mr. Ed Land spoke on the nearness of God, Mr. Willie Franklin and a group of his friends sang, and senior boys shared their thoughts on certain scriptures, each at separate devotionals.

A Christmas party in the library on December 7 raised food for needy persons. Admission to the party was a can of food or some amount of money.

Journalists produce annual, newspapers, attend ASU contest

Making extensive use of line work, the Academy Petit Jean Staff modernized the layout format for the 1976 yearbook. An addition of four pages to the Academy section brought about more thorough coverage of organizations, sports, and the elementary school.

Publishing four issues, the Wildcat Staff provided a forum for the expression of opinion and brought problems to the attention of the student body.

The December purchase of a camera and a flash unit expanded photographic coverage of both publications. Both staffs participated in journalism contests at Arkansas State University in Jonesboro.

Pep groups combine to sell megaphones, finance Homecoming

Throughout football season the Pep Club sold miniature megaphones in addition to traditional buttons and ribbons to raise money for Homecoming. In conjunction with Homecoming, Miss LaJuana Case's art classes constructed a papier-mache Wildcat head and presented it to the student body at a bonfire pep rally.

Erecting matching goal posts and making signs from used computer paper, the Freshman Class won a hall decorating contest sponsored by the Senior High Cheerleaders. The Cheerleaders, collecting on downtown sidewalks, raised $40 on November 1 for the National Association for Retarded Children.

Defenders concede average of 6 points, 127 yards per game

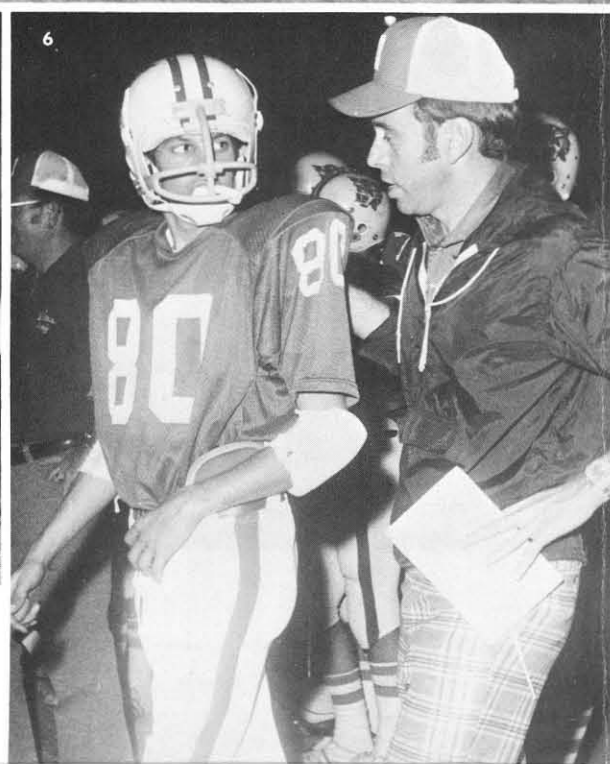

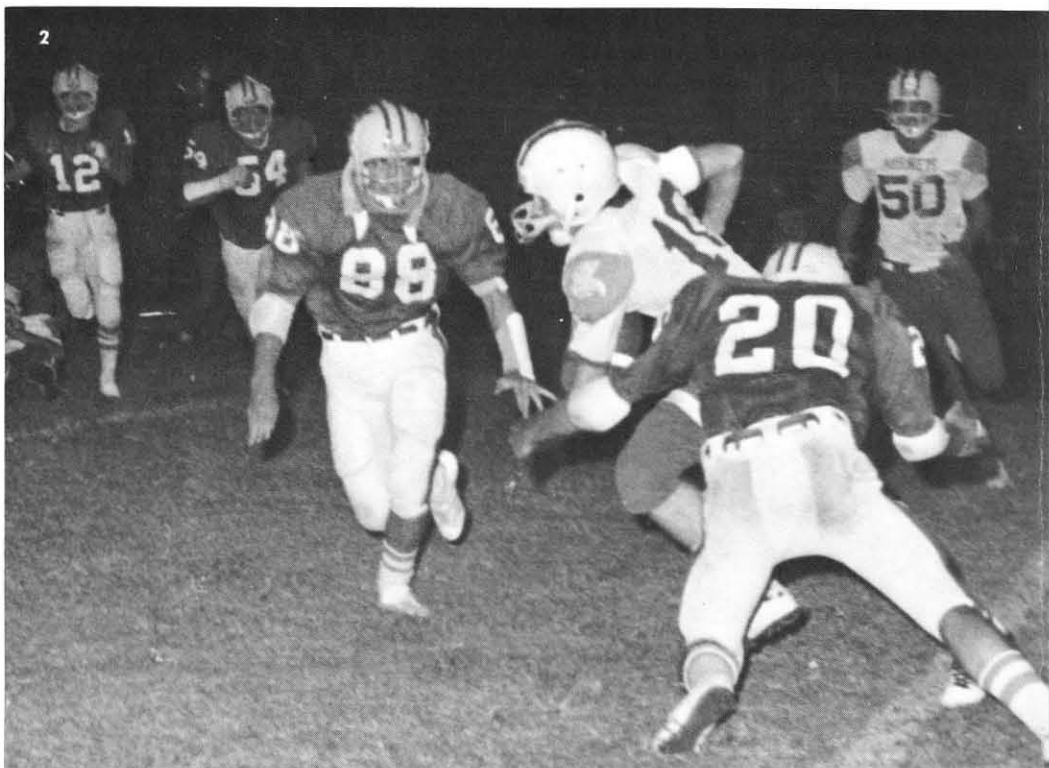

Starting the season with a win over Bauxite, the Wildcats overcame a big upset at the hands of the Arkansas School for the Deaf only to come back and win the rest of their games, finishing 8-1 for the season.

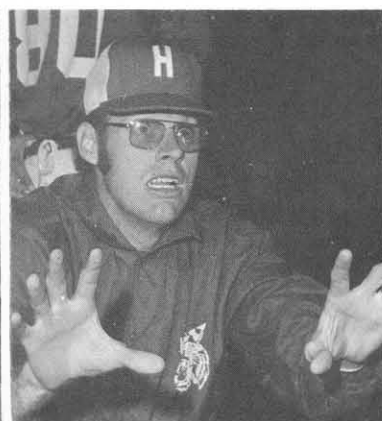

After winning big over Cotton Plant the week before, the Wildcats fumbled seven times in the first half against previously unbeaten Heber Springs. The Wildcats shuffled their offense in the second half, ironing out some of the mistakes, and going on to win by a slim margin of 19-12.

As runners-up in the Grand Prairie Conference, the Wildcats placed six players on the All-Conference team. Four of the six were seniors Eddie Gentry, center; Robbie Shackelford, linebacker; David Woodroof, defensive tackle; and David Woody, fullback. The others were juniors Bret Closs, noseman; and Randy Kiihnl, tight end. Shackelford was also selected to the Arkansas Athletic Association's Class B All-State team.

Each year the Wildcat players select a member of the team who, in their opinion, has exhibited the greatest amount of leadership ability and honor him by giving the Wildcat Spirit Award. Receiving the honor this year was linebacker-tackle Robbie Shackelford.

Erratic playing bars Junior football team from winning season

With only two returning lettermen, the Junior Wildcats were not expected to have a winning season. Plagued with losses when they played away from home, the team finished with a 2-2-1 record.

Head Coach Larry Richmond stated that the team's best effort was displayed by Wildcat defenders against Bald Knob, a Class A school. In that game both teams battled to a 0-0 tie.

The team played through the season erratically, showing both bright spots and places that needed additional work. Defeating Cotton Plant 28-18 in the final game, the Junior 'Cats proved that 1975 had been a year of learning and improvement.

Wildcats start slow, gain skill, overcome inadequacy of depth

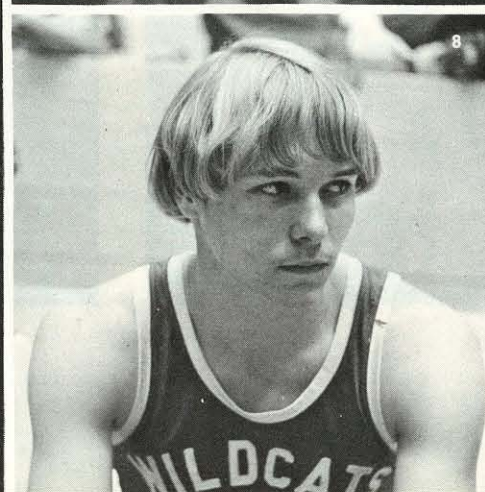

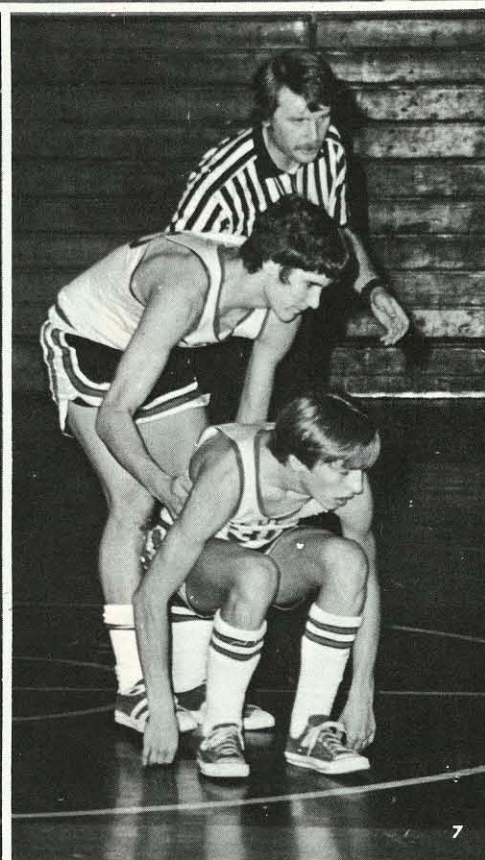

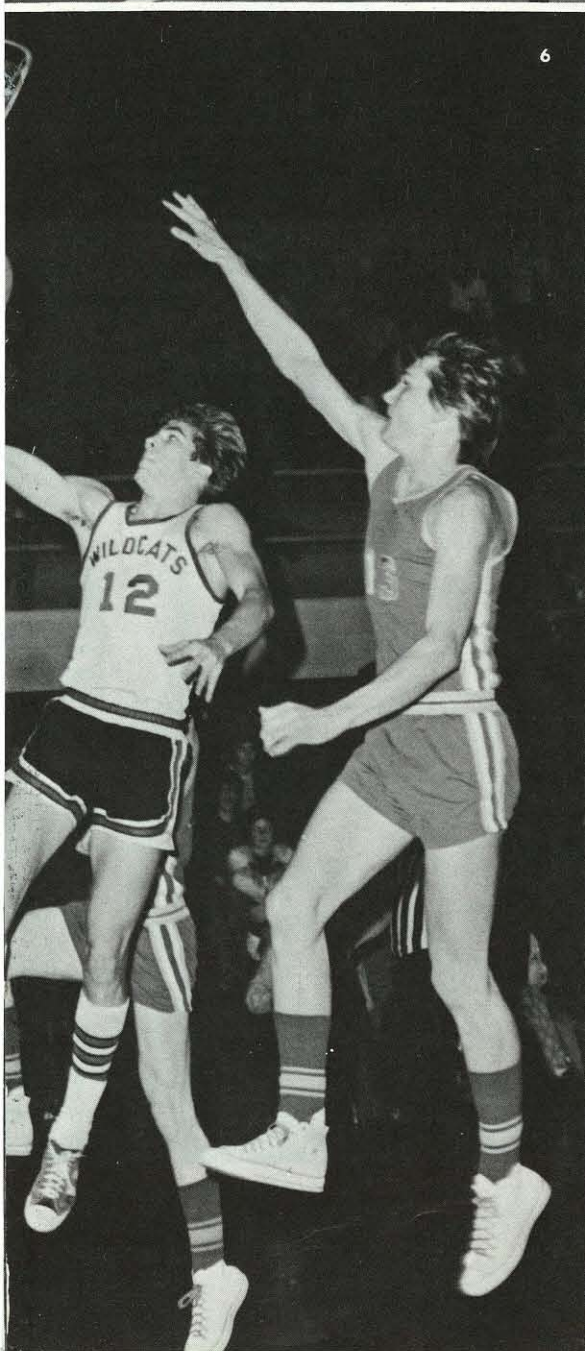

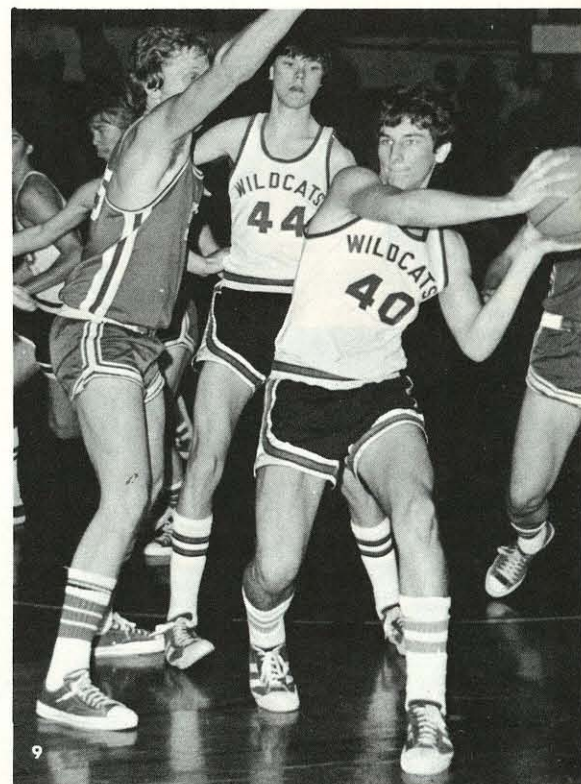

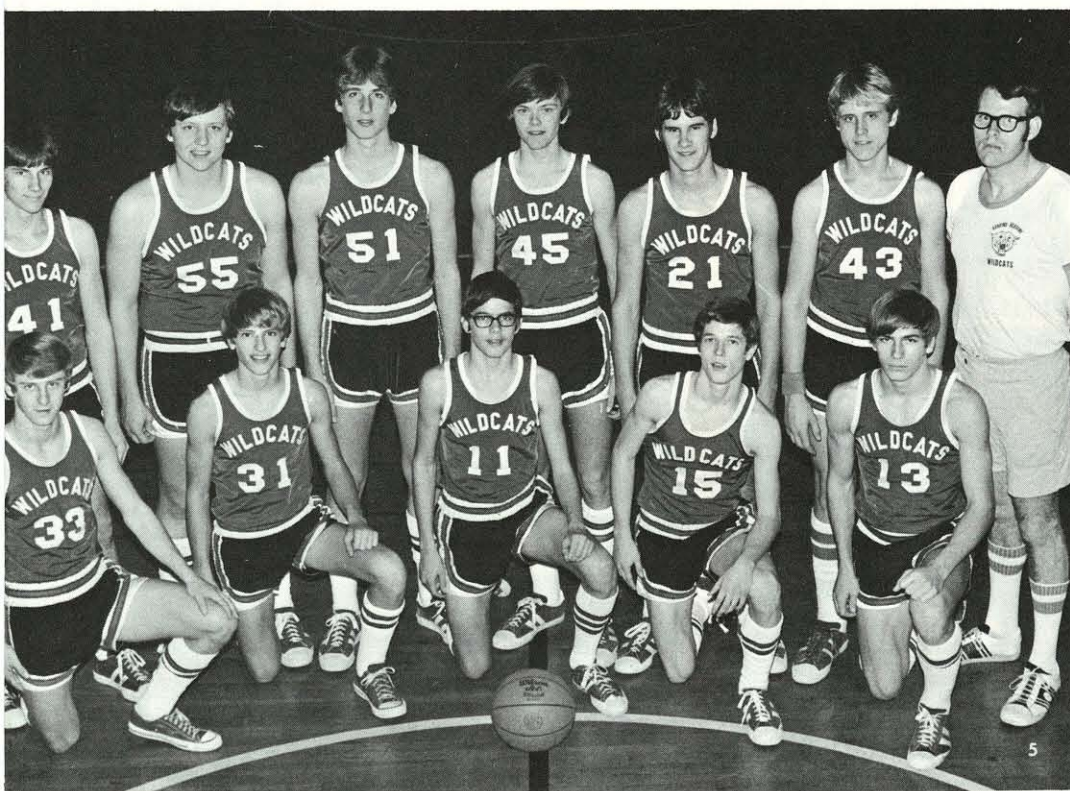

Starting basketball practice as much as two months later than non-football playing schools, Coach Harold Norwood's Senior Wildcats found that inexperience proved to be a hindering factor in the beginning of the season. After losing their first seven games, the nucleus of two seniors and four juniors bounced back to win five consecutive games before losing to Kensett 46-42 in a hard-fought offensive battle.

In the White County Tournament, the Wildcats were eliminated by the host team, McRae. Junior center Randy Wheeler, named to the All-County team, pumped in 22 points in the Wildcats' losing effort. The entire team received the team scholarship award.

Junior 'Cats compile best win-loss record over past 6 seasons

With only one starter returning, inexperience was expected to dominate the Junior Wildcat's basketball season. Countering gloomy predictions, the 'Cats turned in excellent defensive performances and at one time possessed an 11-game winning streak.

The Wildcats received several awards resulting from their play in the White County Tournament. Freshmen John Beavers and Mark White were selected for the All-Tournament team. Rees Lloyd won the individual sportsmanship award, and Mark White tied for the individual scholarship award.

Wildcat Harriers win State Class B meet, train for spring track

For the first time in the history of Harding Academy, the Wildcat cross country team finished as champions in the State Class B Cross Country Meet. The meet, held at the Searcy Country Club, covered a two and one-half mile course. The 'Cats placed four out of their seven men in the top ten finishers, with Charles Murphy placing second.

Lacking depth in the sprints, the Senior High track team was strong in distance races and field events. The distance runners trained through the winter for the first time, building speed and endurance for the spring track season. The 'Cats also fielded participants in the State Decathlon, which was held during the summer.

With nearly all Junior High boys participating, Coach Larry Richmond's track team took part in many invitational relays as well as the County and District meets. The Junior 'Cats competed against Class A and AA schools in order to improve times and distances. Due to a 1973 ruling of the Arkansas Athletic Association, Junior High teams are no longer allowed to compete in State track meets.

Perkins wins award for intramural sports, gridders train for '76

The addition of swimming and flag football expanded the Academy's boys' intramural program to cover a total of 13 sports. Senior David Perkins received the Intramural Athlete Award. Perkins competed in physical education classes for the award, based on points for participation and for finishing places in each sport.

Off-season athletes not involved in intramurals took part in football training.

4. CONCENTRATING on the birdie, Donald Jett serves to his badminton opponent. 5. VOLLEYING, Jeff Payne and David Perkins team up for doubles. 6. SWIMMING the butterfly, Scott Smith and Jon David Yingling come up for air. 7. SOCCER players John Barry and Ronnie Harper try to gain possession of the ball.

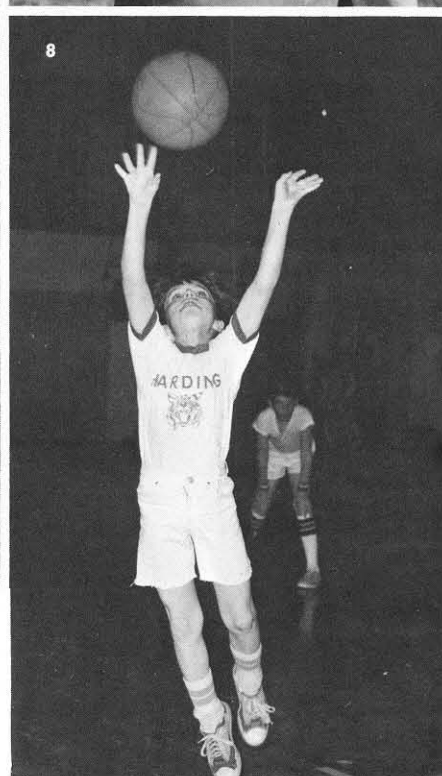

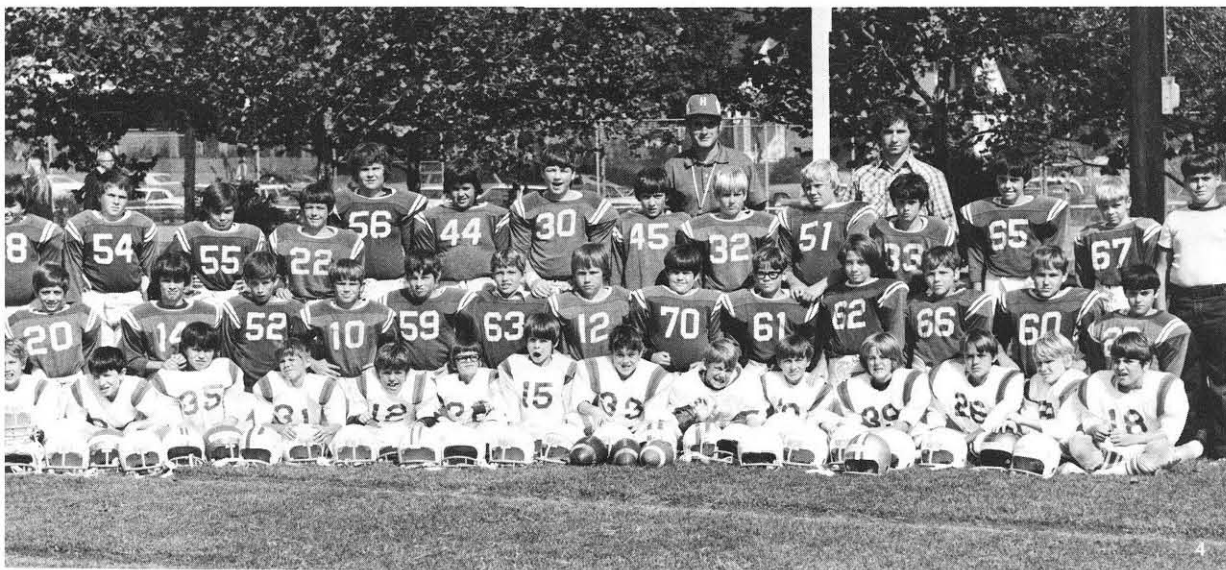

The elementary school added a new sixth grade class taught by Mrs. Charles Baugh and acquired a new first grade instructor, Mrs. David Hurd.

Playground equipment was renovated and repainted by the PTA to accompany the growth. Basketball courts, soccer goals, and a volleyball net were erected also.

The Fall Festival — boasting a spook tunnel, plant boutique, apple bobbing, and a fortune teller — yielded a net profit of $500.

In April the entire school traveled to Little Rock to view exhibits in the Bicentennial Freedom Train. The train contained original government documents, historical displays, and American artifacts. Students also collected and redeemed soup labels for Bicentennial articles and for a gift for Superintendent Perry Mason.

Elementary acquires knowledge of flag during Bicentennial

Stressing patriotism in the first through sixth grades, elementary students participated in a Red, White, and Blue Day. The students learned the history of the flag and donned the national colors.

Bicentennial slogans were coined in a November contest. The annual spring program, performed by the students, maintained the Bicentennial theme.

Entertaining the elderly, the Elementary School sang hymns at Oakdale Nursing Home. A Little Rock historical sites trip was taken by the graduating sixth graders.

YOUR ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

We're here to serve

David Crouch
Executive Secretary

Your Alumni Association is the hub of an ever growing club. And although the number increases by the day, our purpose remains constant . . . we want to serve you.

The office constantly seeks new ways of keeping in touch with the entire group . . . and our files are tabbed for every state and many foreign countries — but we continue to solicit your help. In the fruit-basket-turn-over that we seem to keep playing, we must have your help to keep our information up to date.

And we want to help you. Please permit us to do our job by asking of us any service we can render. If you're not sure, ask us anyway.

The office is located in the John Mabee American Heritage-Alumni Center. Whether searching for prospective students (especially the second and third generation ones), fund raising for the college, accumulating news for the ALUMNI NEWS or recording your latest doings, we want to be an active part of your ties with the Harding family.

Building on a Heritage

It all began so humbly — a handful of students and teachers. Today, seventeen years later, we acknowledge with gratitude the beginnings of Harding Graduate School of Religion as a branch of Harding College.

Much has happened since 1958. Harding Graduate School includes 12 faculty, 214 students, an excellent library and one of the most beautiful campuses in the country. Full accreditation and a curriculum geared to the times are further dimensions of its credibility. But even these facts fail to comprehend the uniqueness of Harding Graduate School.

The Graduate School is more than buildings and books. Harding is people. From its beginning, this school has placed high priority on the personal. Faculty, staff and students form a real community. They move among each other teaching, bearing burdens, sharing joys, and experiencing the benefits of being joint heirs of the grace of God.

Harding Graduate School — just as Harding in all her facets — stands or falls in direct proportion to its faithfulness to the Lordship of Christ and the authority of the inerrant word.

God has been good. He has brought a work into being and has worked through its graduates for many years. Have you considered increasing your skills through dedicated graduate study?

VISUALIZED BIBLE STUDY SERIES

The "Cottage Meeting Filmstrips" by Jule L. Miller and Texas H. Stevens

Tried and Proved . . . Over 40,000 Sets in 20 Years!

Five Basic Bible Lessons To Reach The Lost

These Bible lessons provide the basic doctrinal information needed in today's world to convert and anchor souls in Christ. This five-lesson series is long enough to accomplish a thorough job of teaching. Yet, it is brief enough to sustain a high level of interest in each learner. Available in three cultural editions.

COMPLETE OVERVIEW OF THE BIBLE, NEW TESTAMENT CHRISTIANITY, AND CHURCH HISTORY

This five-lesson series presents a thorough and connected overview of the Old and New Testaments, the Plan of Salvation and the history of Christ's church up to modern times. Literally thousands have been converted to Christ in home Bible studies using this filmstrip series.

AN EASY WAY TO TEACH YOUR FRIENDS

Now Christians everywhere from all walks of life are teaching and winning their friends to Christ and His church. With this proved and easy-to-use soul-winning filmstrip/slide series, many congregations are experiencing a new surge of evangelistic activity among their members. Doors are being opened and many Christians are discovering for themselves that they can share the gospel with their friends, too!

SYNOPSIS OF LESSONS

1. The Patriarchal Age

73 frames; 36:15 minutes

Covers the history of God's dealings with man from The Beginning through the Exodus of the Israelites from Egypt.

2. The Mosaic Age

81 frames; 39:55 minutes

Rehearses the history of the Israelites from the Exodus through the close of the Old Testament; concludes the story of the Mosaic Age with a review of the life of Christ and His death on the cross.

3. The Christian Age

82 frames; 46:53 minutes

Tells of the glorious resurrection and ascension of Jesus, followed by the establishment of His Church or kingdom on the day of Pentecost. Since Jesus built His church exactly as He wanted it, God's church pattern, revealed only in the New Testament, is plainly pointed out in this filmstrip.

4. God's Plan for Redeeming Man

80 frames; 44:08 minutes

Stresses the sinfulness of man and the love of God in sending Jesus as the way out of sin. Five Biblical cases of conversion are studied in detail to find out just how man can be saved by Jesus' blood according to the Bible. In this way each individual can know how near he is to salvation.

5. History of the Lord's Church

82 frames; 39:36 minutes

Emphasizes the fact that man has always tended to leave God's way. Because of this tendency, over the years since Jesus established His church, man has moved from simple New Testament Christianity and the church as Jesus established it, to denominationalism. This filmstrip closes with the Biblical plea for New Testament Christianity.

In Memoriam

JAMES ACTON HEDRICK was in his twenty-fourth year of service to the students of Harding College as a teacher of accounting when he suffered a fatal heart attack in Sherman, Tex., where he had gone to attend the funeral of his only brother. He completed the B.A., M.A., and Ed.D. degrees at North Texas State University and he became a Certified Public Accountant soon after joining the Harding faculty in the fall of 1952. He served as chairman of the Department of Business and Economics for nine years, resigning in the fall of 1974 because of poor health. He was active in the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and several other professional organizations. Dr. Hedrick had held a number of offices in Civitan International, and he was serving as Governor of the Ozark District at the time of his death. He had served almost 20 years as an elder of the College church of Christ and had been treasurer for the last 15 years. He was an ardent supporter of the athletic program at Harding College and frequently served as an official at cross country and track meets. He had served as sponsor of Alpha Epsilon Chi social club since 1956, and he sponsored the local chapters of Pi Gamma Psi and Delta Mu Delta. Born May 13, 1917, in Howe, Tex., Dr. Hedrick died December 6, 1975, in Sherman, Tex.

ROBERT E. STREET was in his thirty-fourth year of service to Harding College as manager of the college farms when he succumbed to leukemia in a Little Rock hospital after an extended illness. In the fall of 1942, he moved from Sharp County to Searcy to manage the 40-acre farm located where Harding Park and faculty row now stand. Subsequently, the farm operation expanded under his capable management until it comprised some 5,000 acres of land and nearly 2,000 head of cattle, including a large commercial dairy operation. Although his formal education stopped with high school graduation, he continued to study and he became well-informed in various facets of farm operation, enabling the college farms to earn money that went into the general operational budget of Harding College. Bro. Street was genuinely interested in students, serving as a counselor to many. For more than 20 years he served as an elder of the College church of Christ. He was primarily involved in mission work and benevolent work. He had directed several summer campaigns to North Battleford, Saskatchewan, Canada, for work among the Cree Indians. Born April 10, 1918, at Evening Shade, Mr. Street died January 10, 1976, in Little Rock.

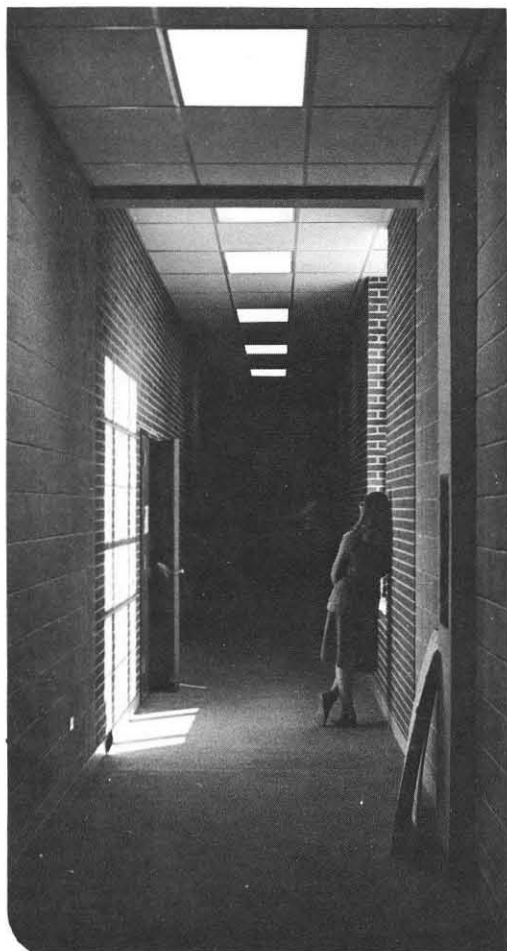

JAMES ALBERT THOMPSON, SR., had served more than thirty-five years as a member of the Board of Trustees of Harding College when he died at his home in Searcy at the age of 90. Shortly after the Thompson family had moved to Searcy to send three children to Harding College, he was appointed an elder in the College church of Christ and had served faithfully in this capacity until his death. At the Sunday morning worship on his 90th birthday, he led in prayer. As a young man he attended Southwest Missouri State College and then served as a teacher and principal in the public schools of southern Missouri. Subsequently, he entered business, operating both stores and cotton gins. In his youth he became a diligent student of the Bible and he continued a systematic study of the scriptures until his death. He began preaching the gospel soon after he began teaching school, preaching primarily in localities where no church existed or for small congregations that were not able financially to employ a preacher. He was well known throughout Arkansas and Missouri as a minister, educator, and businessman. His daughter, Eva, and daughter-in-law, Elaine, are members of the home economics faculty at Harding. Born August 24, 1885, in Dora, Mo., Bro. Thompson died September 15, 1975, in Searcy.

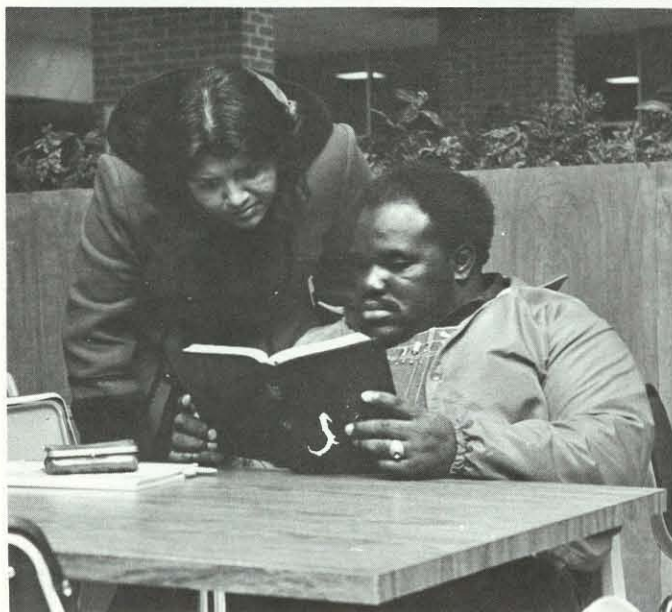

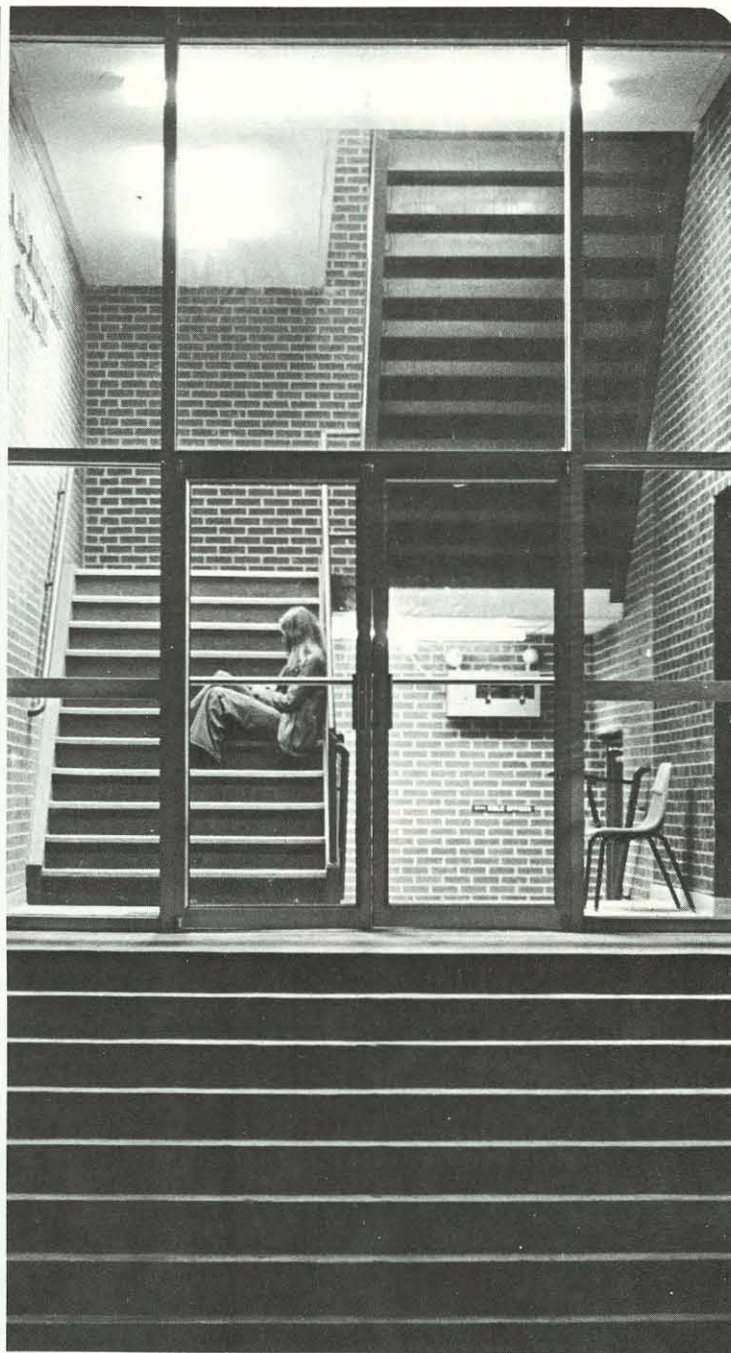

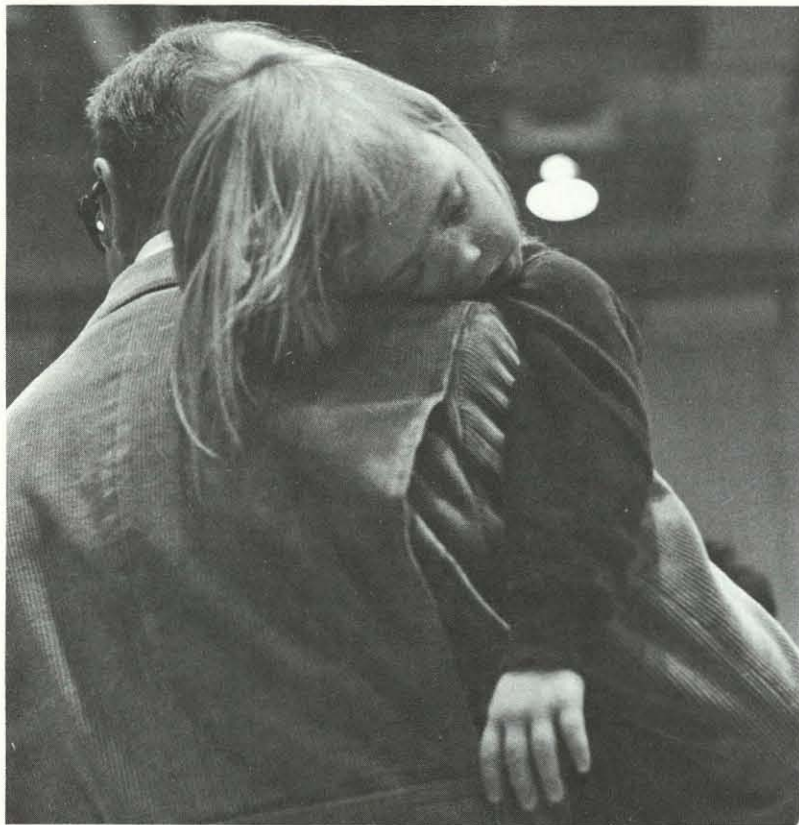

NANCY ELISABETH WATTS, a sophomore in Harding College, majoring in art, died from accidental drowning during a swimming practice period Sunday evening, February 8, 1976. Nancy had hypoglycemia (low blood sugar) and apparently suffered a seizure therefrom while swimming. Artificial respiration was immediately applied by the life guard and other friends but to no avail. Nancy was the youngest daughter of C. Lee and Kay Watts who live at Route 1, Searcy. The Watts family moved to Searcy from Georgia in 1965 to place their three daughters in Harding College and Harding Academy. Her mother is a piano teacher at the college and her father is a widely-esteemed portrait painter. Nancy graduated from Harding Academy in 1973. In the Academy she was a member of Beta Club, the A Cappella Chorus, Junior Civitans, the Pep Club, FHA, FBLA, and the KAT social club. In college she was a member of the Chorale, JOY and the Regina social club. She was a member of the College church of Christ. Nancy lived an exemplary Christian life and radiated the Christian graces. The Nancy E. Watts Memorial Scholarship Fund at Harding College has been established in her honor. Nancy was born November 24, 1954, in Euclid, Ohio.

Courage is required to launch out into unknown beginnings and carry through until the adventure is completed. As the zenith of the task is approached, new strength will revive us and allow completion of the job. If we are righteous, as Proverbs 4:18 states, our paths will shine brighter and brighter until full day under difficult as well as simple circumstances. Because work and endurance were put forth, the end of the path can be successful and fulfilling.

*Many lives at Harding started
"New Beginnings" in 1975-76.
They proceeded to "Rise and Shine" in various aspects and will continue, because of their growth and experience, to illuminate the future.*
