Harding to Share in Waltons' $3.6 Million Gift

Sam and Helen Walton of Bentonville, Ark., announced May 20 they are donating $3.6 million to Harding University and two other private Arkansas Colleges for scholarships for Central American students.

At a news conference at the Excelsior Hotel in Little Rock, the board chairman of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., said he was donating $1.2 million each to Harding, College of the Ozarks in Clarksville and John Brown University in Siloam Springs.

"The confidence in Harding that the Waltons have expressed by selecting us to take part in this worthwhile program is a compliment to our administration, our faculty, our staff and our entire program," President Clifton L. Ganus Jr. said.

The Walton gift is the first private donation to be matched with funds from a program sponsored by the United States Agency for International Development, a branch of the Department of State. AID will match the Walton's donation with $3 million, so the three institutions will receive about $2.2 million each.

The goal of the program, Walton said, is to provide the students with a spirit of entrepreneurship, democracy and free enterprise. It also is being made to offset an aggressive scholarship program of the Soviet Union. He called his donation "a real investment" in democracy.

The concept for the program began, Walton said, when he and his wife met Gabriel Lewis, the Panamanian Ambassador to the United States, and had a chance to visit Panama. He eventually got the idea to offer a scholarship program for the country's students. Initially unaware of the AID program, Walton called the agency's involvement "icing on the cake. We're glad to be partners with such a program."

The $1.2 million donation to Harding is the largest ever made by an Arkansan, said President Ganus. Also at the news conference were Fritz H. Ehren, president of College of the Ozarks, John Brown III, president of John Brown University and Michael Stone of the AID.

Sam Walton, founder of Wal-Mart stores, speaks informally with reporters following a news conference in Little Rock, May 20 where he announced Harding is one of three schools to receive $1.2 million from him. (photo by Brad Watson)

Students will be recruited to study in Arkansas from Belize, Guatemala, Honduras, Panama, Costa Rica and El Salvador. At present Nicaragua is not included in the program.

The scholarship funds will provide a four-year education for approximately 180 low-income students over the next four years. Recruitment of students in Central America will begin immediately with the first students expected to enroll in September. AID will bring the students to the U.S. for a summer orientation program, including any necessary language training.

Each school will provide a program coordinator who will work directly with the students.

Stone, the head of the AID scholarship program, said Congress had appropriated $25 million to his agency for fiscal 1985 to match donations. The program, called Central American Peace Scholarships, was proposed by a commission headed by former Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger that studied peace initiatives in Central America. That commission recommended setting up $10,000 scholarships for Central Americans over five years, Stone said.

Presidential Search Committee Appointed

A search committee to identify candidates for the presidency of Harding University to succeed Dr. Clifton L. Ganus Jr. has been formed. The announcement was made by Board Chairman James H. Cone.

Dr. Ganus, who has served as president of the University since 1965, has announced to the Board his desire to retire from the office in May, 1987.

Cone, a Little Rock contractor and an elder in the Pleasant Valley Church of Christ, will serve as chairman of the search committee. A Harding alumnus and a member of the Board for 20 years, he has served as chairman since November, 1984.

Other Trustees appointed to the committee are Richard H. Gibson, past Chairman of the Board and businessman from Longview, Texas; Roy Sawyer, a 20-year Board member, past Chairman and a physician in Shreveport, La.; Jim Bill McInteer, a 35-year Board member and minister of the West End Church of Christ since 1950 in Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. Russ Burcham, a two-year Board member who had served 10 years on the President's Development Council and a Kennett, Mo., dentist; and Don Shores, a 10-year Board member and a Cave Springs, Ark., businessman.

Cone said, "It is the desire of the search committee to have input from the entire Harding Board, her administration, the faculty and staff, the President's Development Council members, alumni and all friends and supporters of the University. Dr. Ganus, to our disappointment, elected to retire at 65. He has served the institution in some capacity since his student days beginning in 1939. His service has been magnificent and it is imperative we select a successor who will continue this sterling leadership. Our debt to Dr. and Mrs. Ganus is profound."

Dr. Ganus led the University in its highly successful Decade of Development which significantly expanded the campus facilities, with student enrollment more than doubling since 1965.

During his administration 12 new buildings have been completed, including the George S. Benson auditorium, Hammon Student Center, the recent Mabree Business Center and five dormitories. Six other buildings have been expanded or completely renovated, such as the recently completed Science Building addition.

Currently, a $50,000,000 Endowing A Destiny campaign is underway.

Cone said several meetings have been held by the search committee to formulate qualifications and ideas expected to be found in Harding's next chief executive officer.

Composer and Longtime Educator Awarded Honorary Doctorates

Harding University awarded honorary doctorates to L. O. Sanderson of Memphis, Tenn., and Irene Johnson Gatewood of Vienna, Austria. The degrees were conferred at Commencement ceremonies.

Sanderson, who wrote the Harding Alma Mater and about 400 other hymns and songs, is a 1928 alumnus of Harding who retired in Memphis after preaching for more than 60 years. He has served congregations of the Church of Christ in Searcy and Little Rock, Ark.; Tulsa, Okla.; Springfield, Mo.; Nashville, Tenn. and Atlanta, Ga.

He entered school at age four, completed grade eight when he was 10 years old and by the age of 15 he had earned over 120 hours in music. He has conducted singing schools and lead singing throughout the United States. In 1927 he married Rena Raye Woodring, who was fatally injured when hit by a car last August.

Mrs. Gatewood, a native of Missouri who grew up in Biggers, Ark., was a missionary in Germany from 1948 to 1957 and from 1963 to 1981. She taught at Harding in 1947-48 and 1957-63. In 1981 she was married to Otis Gatewood and now resides in Vienna, where she teaches English and history in European Christian College.

She started a daily Bible program for children in Germany which is still in operation and she has a five-day Children's Bible program now in Lilienbrunnsgasse in Austria. She was instrumental in establishing a camp in the Taunus Mountains of Germany for children and adults.

Economics Team Captures Fifth National Title

The University Economics Team captured their fifth National Championship in the Students in Free Enterprise (SIFE) competition at the International Exposition in St. Louis, Mo., April 28-May 1.

The student team and faculty sponsor, Dr. Don Diffine, were awarded a first place trophy and a check for $4,000 by the Holiday Inns, Inc. at the awards banquet. College of the Southwest (N.M.) was runnerup and Rio Grande College (Ohio) was third.

Harding team members include Glenda Collier (co-chairperson) of Memphis, Tenn., Debbie Garrett of Brookston, Ind., Bruce Picker (co-chairperson) of Searcy, Ark. and Kevin Thompson of San Diego, Calif.

The competition, which was hosted by the National Free Enterprise Center in Bolivar, Mo., involved 165 colleges and universities and some 4,000 students during 1984-85.

The national SIFE competition brought 25 regional winners together for two days of intensive competition. Forty judges from business and industry across the United States evaluated each collegiate finalist.

"The overall quality of the teams was the strongest we've faced," Diffine said, "and the actual competition was the keenest I've ever seen. Our major concern coming into the nationals was their past success. We felt to win we would have to win big and the team did the job."

Harding's entry was entitled "Free Enterprise — An American Revolution." It included a display booth, printed materials, a multimedia slide show and Eco Nomics, a talking robot.

The team produced and promoted 68 different projects during the 1984-85 period of competition. Fourteen on-campus and 43 civic, professional, employee and educational groups were specifically reached; a market audience of more than four million people was exposed to Harding's enlightenment projects.

"The opportunity to participate in this kind of competition has been a great experience for me," Picker said. "The competition was the toughest we've run into. But we put the pressure on ourselves to go for the championship."

Three of the team's projects drew special mention — the 1985 Free Market Calendar, a daily chronicle of Enterprise; the Personalized Employee Economic Program (PEEP), which was designed to assist employees to become more knowledgeable and aware of the American Incentive System in which they work; and Locating in Searcy, Arkansas — A Facts Book for Business and Industry — Individuals and Families, a joint project with the Searcy Chamber of Commerce.

"The Fact Book played a major role in the competition," Diffine said. "The judges were tremendously impressed with its depth and coverage of the material."

This year's championship, combined with national trophies in 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1984, establishes Harding's "Capitalism Corps," according to Diffine and makes Harding the winningest Economics Team in the country. The University was national runnerup in 1979 and 1983.

University Brochures Win CASE Awards

Harding University received two awards of excellence in honors competition of the Southwest District of the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education (CASE).

The announcement was made by awards chairman, Gayle McNutt of the Baylor Medical Center at the annual conference in El Paso, Texas, April 17.

Harding received a Grand Award in the design series category for a two-piece set of admissions materials and a Special Award in institutional identification programs for a letterhead and envelope design for the School of Biblical Studies Alumni Association.

The admissions materials were designed by Stan Green, director of public relations. Bruce Cook, former director of information and Alice Ann Kellar, assistant director of information and publications, wrote the narrative copy and the full color photography was produced by Mike James of the Department of Communications and Yo Kurabayashi, student photographer.

The matched folders serve as the primary recruiting publications for the University Admissions office. "One Thousand Days," is a 12 page folder used as the introductory contact piece with prospective students. "Discover the Harding Difference," is a 24 page brochure which includes a more comprehensive description of the Harding program and activities.

"The brochures introduce a strong color concept and convey a family look to our publications," Green said. "Through the photographs and the written copy we attempted to convey a sense of the quality and tradition of the school and the beauty of the campus."

The School of Biblical Studies stationery was designed and produced by Darrell Truitt, art director, and Green.

Harding began its participation in SIFE on a regional level in 1976. National competition was started in 1978.

In 1979 the student-staffed Belden Center for Private Enterprise Education was established on the Harding campus. The aim of the Center is the mass communication of economics. Using the Center, which is a library of private enterprise literature and audio-visual materials, as the nucleus, Harding students attempt to multiply their message to a broad public.

The efforts of the Center have received national recognition, not only in the Economics Games, but from the Freedoms Foundation of Valley Forge, Pa. Since 1976, Dr. Diffine, the Harding Economics Team and their projects have received 14 awards in the category of private enterprise education, advertising and public affairs, non-profit publications and platform addresses.

Write-In Candidate Elected SA President

Ten University students were elected to serve as Student Association officers for the 1985-86 school year.

Mike Gist was chosen by write-in vote to serve as S.A. president for the coming year. Vice-president will be Wes Henderson; secretary, Joel Reed and James McCreary was selected treasurer.

Student Association officers for the 1985-86 school year are: (from left) Joel Reed, secretary; Mike Gist, president; James McCreary, treasurer and Wes Henderson, vice president.

"I think we'll have a very good group of officers working next year," said Jerome Barnes, S.A. faculty advisor. "These students have more experience than others have had in the beginning, over the past few years."

Gist is a senior management major from Racine, Wis.; Henderson is an accounting senior from Mountain Home, Ark., Reed is from New Haven, Ind., and is a junior economics major and McCreary is a senior from Brentwood, Tenn., majoring in accounting.

"Working on the Student Association is going to be a new experience for me," said Gist. "I'm looking forward to the opportunities I'll have to work with the administration and students."

"We hope to have more people involved with the S.A. and also to be very visible to the students so that they'll know who we are and will take part in the planning and organizing of our events," said Gist.

Class representatives were also chosen for the sophomore, junior and senior classes. The sophomore men's representative will be Coby Cathey from Enory, Texas and women's representative will be Cara DuVall from Leitchfield, Ky.

Dave Finley of Lowell, Ohio will serve as junior men's representative and Amy Moshier of Fresno, Calif., will be junior women's representative. The senior men's representative will be Darren Findley of Jonesboro, Ark., and Angela McDonough will represent the senior women.

'Jesus Calls US' Chosen As Theme 62nd Lectureship Set October 6-9

"Jesus Calls Us" will be the theme of the 62nd annual Harding University Bible Lectureship scheduled for Oct. 6-9, according to Eddie Cloer, lectureship director.

This year's date marks the beginning of the lectureship being permanently scheduled for the first weekend of October each year. This should make it easier for those interested in attending the lectures to both remember and make plans for the event, Cloer indicated.

Four theme lectures will focus on the call of Jesus, what he calls us out of and what he calls us to. The theme lectures will be presented nightly at 7:30 in the Benson Auditorium on the Harding campus.

Sunday night's speaker will be Willard Collins of Nashville, Tenn., who will speak on the theme "Jesus Calls Us." Jeff Walling of El Toro, Cal. will deliver the address Monday night with the title of "Jesus Calls Us Out Of The World." "Jesus Calls Us To Unity" will be the title of the Tuesday night talk to be delivered by Ronnie White of Oklahoma City, Okla. Cline Paden of Lubbock, Texas will end the lectureship with his theme lecture Wednesday night, titled "Jesus Calls Us To World Evangelism."

"The theme 'Jesus Calls Us' reminds us of a vital aspect of our Christian life," Cloer commented. "It reminds us that Jesus calls us to more than simple acceptance of his saving grace and that his call is one we hear beyond our conversion. Jesus calls us throughout our lives and in all aspects of life."

Presenting the multi-faceted aspect of the call of Jesus will be the goal of this year's lectureship. The title of each night's keynote talk will also be that day's theme for special classes.

Reflecting Monday's sub-theme of "Jesus Calls Us From The World" will be lectures by Mike Cope of Searcy, Ark. (The Call Of The World), J.L. May of Bentonville, Ark. (The Danger of Materialism), Richard Jones of Edmond, Okla. (What Is Worldliness), Jack Gray of Ft. Worth, Texas (The Essence of Spirituality) and Martel Pace of Montgomery, Ala. (Victory Over The World).

"Jesus Calls Us To Unity" will be stressed Tuesday in talks given by Richard Pectol of Searcy (The Evils Of Division), Walling (Pursue Peace), Jones (Faith And Opinion), Harold Hazelip of Memphis, Tenn. (Hindrances To Unity) and Jimmy Allen of Searcy (How To Have Biblical Unity).

Wednesday's lecturers will focus on "Jesus Calls Us To Evangelism." Those speakers will be Bill Lambert of Searcy (The Great Commission Analyzed), Hazelip (What The World Really Needs), Paden (Hindrances To Evangelism), Robert Scott of Abilene, Texas (Mass Media Evangelism) and John Paul Blankenship of Lubbock, Texas (Youth And The Great Commission).

Topical and textual classes will also meet each day from 9:45 a.m. to 10:35 a.m. and from 1:00 p.m. to 1:50 p.m. Class titles and the class leaders are: Five Suggestions For Parents (Neale Pryor), A Christian's Mental Health (Dr. Travis Jenkins), Restoration History And The Call Of Jesus (Robert Hooper), Youth Ministry (John Paul Blankenship), Christian Home Building (Judy Miller);

Hebrews (James Thompson), Philippians (Avon Malone), I Corinthians (Norman Gipson), Ephesians-Grace In The Church (Nick Hamilton), Ephesians-Unity In The Church (John Lawrence), Ephesians-Relationships In The Church

Hebrews (James Thompson), Philippians (Avon Malone), I Corinthians (Norman Gipson), Ephesians — Grace In The Church (Nick Hamilton), Ephesians — Unity In The Church (John Lawrence), Ephesians — Relationships In The Church (Leon Barnes), A Fuller View Of The Woman's Role (Patsy Loden).

Additionally, special music programs will be presented by the Harding University Chorale, by Harding's A Cappella Chorus and by the Harding Academy Chorus. Also, the traditional "open forums" and the Preacher-Elder-Deacon Dinner will be held. On Wednesday afternoon will be a reunion dinner for past members of the Dr. Jack Lewis Tours.

Dr. Benson Receives 50-Year Pin

President Emeritus George S. Benson received a 50-year pin for his half century of association with Harding and 62 other faculty and staff members also were honored at the annual appreciation dinner held April 12 at the Heritage Cafeteria.

In receiving the pin, Dr. Benson, who was president from 1936-65, told the 550 guests, "I plan to wear this every day until I earn another one just like it." Benson retired as president in 1965, but continues as a member of the Board of Trustees.

Dr. Jack Wood Sears, professor of biology and retired chairman of the department, was recognized for 40 years of service. Evan Ulrey, chairman of the department of communication, and W.T. (Shorty) Pearson, construction superintendent, received 35-year pins.

Others include the following: 30 years — Lois Lawson, Academy; Ann Sewell, music; Herman Spurlock, engineer; Lourelia Word, bookstore.

25 years — Don England, chemistry; Ed Higginbotham, Academy; Virgil Lawyer, history; John Prock, physical education and football coach and Bill Rushton, biology.

20 Years — Carrie Brewer, Heritage cafeteria; William Bridges, bookstore; Floyd Daniel, Vice President; W.C. Evatt, electrician; Bill Platt, Memphis Dean; Stan Green, public relations; Allan Isom, Bible; Tom James, carpenter; Joyce Johnson, student personnel; Alice Ann Kellar, public relations; Clarence McDaniel, laundry; Wilt Martin, physical education; Monteen Roberson, Heritage cafeteria; Bernie Vines, buildings and grounds; Charles Walker, business; and Earl West, Memphis.

10 years — Louise Bradford, nursing; Lou Butterfield, communication; Travis Cox, music; Doris Dalton, dormitory director; Martha Daughety, custodial; Nancy Davis, Heritage cafeteria; Fran Dugger, bookstore; Joann Eads, admissions; Tom Eddins, Bible; Glendol Grimes, Memphis development; Anita Hamilton, Academy; Frank Hayes, library; Rex Johns, campus maintenance; Joe Jones, School of Biblical Studies; Wyatt Jones, Graduate director; Margaret Layden, Heritage cafeteria; Bob McKelvain, psychology; John Nunnally, computer director; Mike Plummer, biology; Guilford Rice, transportation; Herman Smith, security; Suzanne Spurrier, library; Van Tate, Bible, psychology; Gene Ward, computer technician; Glenda Woodall, Pattie Cobb cafeteria.

Admissions Advisors Promoted

Chris Dell and Dawn Zoller have been promoted to Assistant Directors of Admissions at the University, according to President Clifton L. Ganus Jr. The appointments are effective immediately.

Dell, 26, joined the admissions staff as an advisor in 1981. Zoller, 26, joined the staff in 1980, also as an advisor.

"Dawn and Chris have shown remarkable professional growth in the past year. I feel that their contributions to the admissions office and Harding will be even more substantial in the years ahead," said Durward McGaha, director of admissions. "With this promotion will come some added responsibilities, particularly in the areas of church visits and programs and the recruitment of transfer students."

Dell received his bachelor's degree in psychology from the University in 1981, and is presently pursuing the master's degree in applied psychology from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock.

His responsibilities on the admissions staff include recruiting students in 14 north central states, scheduling and sponsoring of the Time of Day, co-directing Youth Forum and directing High School Bowl. He is a member of the Arkansas Association of College Admissions Officers.

Zoller earned the bachelor of arts degree in public relations. She is a member of the Arkansas Association of College Admissions Officers, the Arkansas Association of College Registrars and Admissions Officers, Southern Association of College Registrars and Admissions Officers and is an American College Testing (ACT) council member.

Her responsibilities with the University include advising and recruitment of students in 15 southwest and western states, admissions office publications, and sponsor of V.I.S.A., a student organization of volunteers to aid recruitment.

England Receives Appointment As Coons Endowed Professor

Dr. Don England, distinguished professor of chemistry, has been selected as the first recipient of the Robert Roy and Callie Mae Coons Chair of Biomedical Science. The five year appointment was announced by President Clifton L. Ganus Jr. at graduation ceremonies.

Mrs. Irma Coons Terpenning of Frenchtown, N.J. and Harding University established the chair to provide salary and expenses for one faculty member in the allied health sciences area. It provides the recipient with funds for personal library acquisitions, research, professional development and teaching aids.

"I am honored and grateful to be the first recipient of this endowed chair especially in view of the fact that there are so many outstanding teachers in science and mathematics at Harding University who deserve recognition," said England. "Harding's reputation in the biomedically related sciences is excellent because her science departments are excellent. Resources available through the endowed chair will help strengthen these programs even more."

England joined the Harding faculty in 1960 as an assistant professor of chemistry. He was promoted to associate professor in 1963 and professor in 1966.

He received the Distinguished Teacher Award in 1968, 1973 and 1983, making his permanent title Distinguished Professor. He was the first individual faculty member to receive the award for a third time, the maximum possible.

He has been active in the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Chemical Society and the Arkansas Academy of Science. England is the author of numerous articles and books; is well-known for his work in the area of science and the Scriptures and has recently had two books published entitled A Christian View of Origin and Faith and Evidence.

England has been chairman of the Premedical and Allied Health Committee for approximately 20 years and has been the Liaison Officer between Harding and the President's Science and Premedical Advisory Council since its inception. He is president of Region II Alpha Chi Honor Society.

"Mrs. Terpenning has made a contribution to Christian education that can only be measured in terms of eternity for the good it will accomplish," said England.

Student Publications Take Honors

University student publications received several honor awards at the Arkansas College Publications Association meeting in Clarksville with the Bison newspaper winning the sweepstakes award for the highest total points.

The Petit Jean won first place in the categories of coverage and concept and received second place in overall general excellence. The yearbook placed second in the categories of photography, art and graphics, copy and display.

With the sweepstakes award, the Bison received a check for $100 from the Arkansas Gazette. The newspaper was selected for first place in the categories of writing and editing and design and second place in advertising. The Bison was given honorable mention for photography, art and graphics.

Individual contest winners were Eddie

Madden of Newport, Ark., second in straight news and interview and honorable mention in editorial; Rebekah Davis from Rockford, Ill., and Jodee Hobbs from Fayetteville, Ark., honorable mention in in-depth news; Liz Herrel from New York, N.Y., first in sports feature and honorable mention in feature story;

Linda Ford from Crawfordville, Fla., second in general column; Jo David Keith from Oak Ridge, Tenn., third in interview; Wendell Hudson from Bedford, Ind., second in sports feature and sports column; Bobby Davidson from Judsonia, Ark., second in sports news, third in sports feature; Tami Kerr from Sharpsville, Pa., second in news photography, and third in sports photography and Angela Kays from Benton, Ark., honorable mention in feature photography.

Dr. Don England explains the capabilities of new equipment in one of Harding's science labs.

"The Endowed Chair is an appropriate living memorial to honor Mrs. Terpenning's parents and I personally hope that others will be encouraged to follow her unselfish example and establish other endowed chairs through the University."

Robert Roy and Callie Mae Coons were professors and department heads at Harding. Mr. Coons, noted for his research in analytical chemistry and for his teaching methods for freshman chemistry, served as chairman of the chemistry and physics department from 1924-26 and from 1933-

37. Mrs. Coons, who earned recognition with her studies of metabolism and dietary analysis, headed the home economics department from 1924-26. She also served for several years as director of the Human Nutrition Research Division in the United States Department of Agriculture and as a member of the advisory committee for the White House Conference on Family Life.

The recipient is selected by the University president and the dean of the College of Arts and Sciences from those nominated by members of the appropriate departments.

The original of the pen and ink drawing "Memories," reproduced above, was auctioned recently on behalf of AWH.

AWH To Sell Limited Edition Print

Under the auspices of the Associated Women for Harding, a limited edition print by Jerry Harris, "Memories," is now available.

A pen and ink rendering of a Harding University campus landmark, the Bell Tower, "Memories" is a signed and numbered 11 x 14 reproduction suitable for framing. Only 2,000 prints were produced and they will be available for $25 each.

Harris of Shreveport, La., produced the drawing for the National Council of AWH. Kay Reiboldt of Shreveport, coordinated the project. The original rendering was sold at auction to Swaid Swaid of Birmingham, Ala. during the Harding President's Development Council meeting April 22.

"This project is a tremendous opportunity to assist the University," Mrs. Reiboldt said. "It is a beautiful piece of art and we think our alumni will be very supportive. It would make the perfect gift for anyone who has ever attended Harding or visited the campus."

Harris is an accomplished artist who has owned his own advertising agency for 20 years in Shreveport. A member of the Airline Drive Church of Christ in Bossier City, La., he is a frequent speaker at religious workshops and seminars. He also is a member of the Harding President's Development Council.

Orders for the prints can be made by writing Dr. Jimmy Carr, Station A, Box 1224, Searcy, Ark. 72143. Checks should be made payable to Harding University — "Memories."

Three Recognized With Distinguished Teaching Awards

Recipients of Harding University's 1984-85 Distinguished Teacher Awards are Rod Brewer, assistant professor of English, Dr. Wilt Martin, professor of health, physical education and recreation and Dr. Dean Priest, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Announcement of the awards was made by University President Clifton L. Ganus Jr. during spring commencement ceremonies. Each of the three was presented a check for $1,000, along with a framed award certificate.

Finalists for the annual awards are selected on the basis of written evaluations by students, and by recommendation of a committee of faculty members.

Brewer, 37, joined the Harding faculty as an instructor in 1983 and is a native of Memphis, Tenn. He received his bachelor's degree from Harding in 1970. While a student, he served as student association president, junior men's representative and dorm wing counselor and enjoyed intramural baseball, softball, table tennis and intercollegiate baseball.

He received the master's degree from East Texas State University, Commerce, Texas. Brewer has done doctoral study at the University of Missouri at Columbia.

He is married to the former Grace Stroup and they have two children, Rachel and Joshua.

Martin is a native of Obion, Tenn. He attended Freed-Hardeman College from 1960-62 and received his BA degree from Harding in 1965, his MAT in 1967.

In 1977, he earned the doctorate of education from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville.

Martin, 43, was employed as a teacher and basketball coach at Harding Academy from 1965-71. He was then chosen as assistant basketball coach at Harding University and was promoted to associate professor in 1979. He was chosen teacher of the year at the Academy in 1971.

He is married to the former Judith Daniel and the couple has two children, Monya Deane and Eric.

Priest, 46, earned his bachelor's degree in 1961 from Harding, his master's in 1962 and his doctorate in 1969, both from the University of Mississippi in Oxford. While attending Harding, he was a member of the Belles and Beaux and the A Cappella Chorus.

He also presently serves as chairman of the Math Department and was chosen as a distinguished teacher in 1969 and 1974.

Priest's award marks the second time a faculty member has received the award a third time, the maximum possible. Upon receiving this award, the permanent title of "Distinguished Professor" was bestowed on him. Dr. Don England of the physical science department was Harding's first Distinguished Professor.

Priest joined the faculty in 1962. He has served as a teaching assistant at the University of Mississippi and as a one-fourth time instructor for the University of Arkansas at Little Rock in-service mathematics classes sponsored by the National Science Foundation.

A native of Columbia, Tenn., he is married to the former Carolyn Pogue and they have five children, Teresa, Cheryl, Matilda, Laura and Dean Jr.

Cleveland Creative Writing Contest Winners Cited; Works Published

"Because of Love" and "My Father's Daughter," both written by journalism major Karen Roseberry, captured first place in hymn lyric and essay respectively in the Jo Cleveland Creative Writing Contest, sponsored by the Harding University English Department. Roseberry, a junior from Fort Worth, Texas, joined other contest winners in reading their winning selections at the awards banquet.

English major Sherry Daniel, a junior from Westfield, N.J., won first place in poetry with her entry, "Sharing a Coke." Eddie Madden, a senior English and French major from Newport, Ark., won second place for "I, Icarus." Receiving third place in poetry was Fran Coon, a senior public administration and political science major from Santa Rosa Beach, Fla., for "Winged Freedom."

In the fiction category from Gahanna, Ohio, E. Alan Rogers, a senior computer information systems major, won first place with his entry, "All in a Knight's Work." David A. Smith from Searcy, Ark., won second place for "Hanauma Bay." Smith is a senior history and political science major.

Melanie Mathis, a junior English major from Little Rock, Ark., won second place in hymn lyric for her entry "hymn lyrics." No third place was awarded in fiction, essay, or hymn lyric.

Charles Pittman, associate professor of English, was chairman of the contest. Judges were members of the English department faculty.

Rod Brewer and Dr. Larry Long judged the poetry; Alice Jewell and Dr. Eugene Underwood judged fiction; Duane McCampbell and Ed White judged the essays and Dr. Dennis Organ and Betty Ulrey judged hymn lyrics.

Colleagues, friends, and former students of Dr. Jo Cleveland, who retired from the University in 1983, have contributed to the Creative Writing Endowment Fund. Selected entries are published in an anthology titled Shapes and Names which is available through the University English department.

FACULTY FILE

Helen Lambert

Helen Lambert — Assistant Professor of Nursing. B.S.N. (1977) Mississippi College, Clinton, Miss.; M.S. (1980) University of Southern Mississippi.

"I always wanted to teach in a Christian school," beamed Helen Lambert, who reached that goal when she joined the nursing faculty in 1982, after teaching for several years in Mississippi. With her, too, was husband Bill, who teaches English and Bible, and who is minister of the Cloverdale Church of Christ in Searcy.

The vivacious assistant professor was already familiar with the University, with two children as students. Carter is a 1982 graduate and his wife is the former Becca Shackelford. Daughter Joanna has completed her junior year. Joanna's husband, Ken Berry, is a May graduate. Another son, Bud (William Jr.), is a preacher in Raymond, Mississippi and a recent graduate of Mississippi College. Bud and Cindy are also the parents of her only two grandchildren, William III and Susanah.

Like many other members of the faculty and staff, Helen attends numerous campus functions such as athletic events, club and student entertainment programs and has a constant flow of guests in her home for meals and overnight stays.

Later this summer she will spend five weeks in Nassau as part of the Harding School of Biblical Studies — Nassau staff. While Bill is teaching in the preacher training school, she will teach a ladies class on Romans and participate in other efforts of the congregation there.

Her involvement with the students and their appreciation for her came to light in a carefully-calculated plan toward the end of the semester. As Helen opened her office door one morning, she found 300 water-filled paper cups placed carefully in a circle around her desk and chair. An accompanying note read "High Tide in Nassau."

With a warm smile, she shook her head and admitted, as she poured the liquid into a big bucket, "I short-sheeted some beds when we went to a nursing convention earlier this semester. This is the revenge."

As she cleared away the clutter she emphasized again what is very obvious in her manner: "I just love people."

Outstanding Scholars In Arts and Sciences Receive Top Honors

Eddie Madden of Newport, Ark., Greg Lindstrom of Midland, Mich., and Thomas Cox of Lebanon, Va., were declared winners in the Evening of Scholarship sponsored by the College of Arts and Sciences.

Madden read a paper entitled "Thematic Significance of Time in Absalom, Absalom!" and Lindstrom and Cox presented a research paper on "Computer Solution to the Rubik's Cube."

Presentations were made in two sections during the evening, and a winner was named from each group. They received plaques supplied by the Arkansas Eta chapter of Alpha Chi national honor scholarship society.

Dr. Dennis Organ, who along with Dr. W. D. Williams and Dr. Evan Ulrey coordinated the program, said, "We were very pleased with the high quality of the student research demonstrated in the papers, and with the professional way in which they were delivered. This is an excellent way for students to share their scholarship with their peers from all disciplines and to bring our academic community together."

Judges for the event were faculty members Don Robinson, Bob McKelvain, Ken Johnson, Larry Long, Sharen Crockett, Earl Cobill, Don England, Arthur Shearin, Nancy Clark and Randy Maddox.

Also appearing on the program were Becha Evans of Searcy; Carla Thompson of Mexico, N.Y.; Mel Sansom of Pensacola, Fla.; Tracy McRee of Fort Sill, Okla.; Fran Coon of Destin, Fla.; Greg Kays of Benton, Ark.; Carol Trevathan of Louisville, Ky.; Lisa Antczak of Batesville, Ark.; and Kathy Rogers of North Little Rock, Ark.

James Ard

John Meadows

Max Reiboldt

Development Council Names Chairmen

Three members of the President's Development Council have been appointed by President Clifton L. Ganus Jr. to serve as regional chairmen. James Ard of Richardson, Texas, John Meadows of El Dorado, Ark. and Max Reiboldt of Shreveport, La. will serve as chairmen of three of the Council's 11 regions.

Ard is chairman of the central Texas region. He is president of Ard-Knox Insurance, Inc. in Richardson. A graduate of the University of Tennessee, Ard is a member of the national and Texas Associates of Life Underwriters, the National Association of C.L.U. and the Society of Certified Insurance Counselors.

Ard is also a member of the board of Dallas Christian Schools and the board of the Canyon Creek National Bank. He is an elder of the Waterview Church of Christ in Richardson.

He and his wife, Sarah, have a son, Wayne, who is a 1982 Harding graduate.

Meadows is serving as chairman of the Southern Arkansas region. He is president of Arkansas Specialty Company in El Dorado. He has served as a member of the El Dorado School Board for 11 years including a term as president.

He is a past member of the Civitan Club and the Toastmasters organization. Meadows has also served on various committees for the El Dorado Boys' Club and the Chamber of Commerce. He is a former elder for the Hillsboro Church of Christ.

His wife, the former Elaine Robertson, is a Harding alumnae. The couple has five children: Mike, Rusty, Scott, Laura and Kathy. Mike (BA'75) and Rusty (BS'78) are both Harding alumni.

Reiboldt is secretary-treasurer of Beall-Ladymon Department Stores, a regional chain in Louisiana and Arkansas. He is also a member of the company's board of directors. He is chairman of the Louisiana and East Texas region of the Development Council.

He is a member of the Texas and Louisiana Societies of CPA's as well as a member of the American Institute of CPA's.

Both Reiboldt and his wife, the former Kay Antley, are Harding alumni. He received his B.A. degree in accounting in 1973. She received her B.S. degree in sociology in 1972. The couple has two sons, John and Mark.

The family attends the Airline Drive Church of Christ in Bossier City, La.

Summertime Offers Variety of Workshops and Activities

Two summer sessions and a variety of workshops and special offerings have been scheduled at the University, according to Dr. Larry Long, director of summer school.

The summer sessions will include two five-week offerings June 10-July 12 and July 15-Aug. 16.

Recreation will include two float trips on the Buffalo River, movies, a watermelon cutting and four dinner theatres.

The third season of the Searcy Summer Dinner Theatre (SSDT) will include "Blithe Spirit," June 27-29, "Barefoot in the Park," July 11-13, "Peg O' My Heart," July 25-27 and "Ten Little Indians," Aug. 8-10. Ticket prices are $9.50 per person per show, or two for $18. A single season ticket sells for $36, while a season ticket for two is $62. Children under 12 receive a discount. Dinner is served at 6:30 p.m. and showtime is 7:30 p.m. in the Hammon Student Center.

The 29th Annual Youth Citizenship Seminar is scheduled for June 9-14, with several hundred high schoolers expected to attend sponsored by Tennessee, Alabama and Arkansas Farm Bureaus, Civitan and the Harding American Studies program. Speakers will include Dr. Walter Judd, Charlie Plumb, Oddvar Berg, Col. Joe Hickox, Dr. Clifton Ganus, Dr. Don Diffine and Dr. Bob Reely.

Two early orientation sessions are scheduled for new students and their parents to visit the campus. The first will be June 13-15 and the second is July 18-20. Last year some 500 students took advantage of this unique opportunity to complete registration, visit the campus and make housing arrangements.

Two Elderhostel sessions are also planned for June 9-14 and June 23-28. This program is open to anyone 60 years and over and their spouses and features three classes per session.

There will be a Diagnosis and Correction of Reading Difficulties Workshop June 10-26 which will provide for extensive diagnostic testing of individual students from grades 1-9, with reading disabilities. The testing will be followed by a plan for correction and remediation.

The Department of Physical Education, Health and Recreation will sponsor two workshops in driver safety June 10-26 and June 27-July 12. The workshop will include instruction for those who teach driver education and those learning to drive. The workshop will also include actual driving practice for learners.

A Clinical Reading workshop June 27-July 12 will emphasize laboratory practice in reading improvement.

Offering intensive training in basketball, two sports camps will be conducted on the campus by University coaches for boys in grades 8-12. July 14-19 will be the Senior High Basketball camp for boys in grades 10, 11 and 12 in the 1985-86 school year.

There will be three sessions for boys and girls ages 8 to 17 to attend the Tahkodah Christian Youth Camp. The camps, to take place June 23-July 5; July 7-19 and July 21-

Aug. 2, include riding horses, fishing, swimming, and outdoor fun as well as in-depth Bible study and encouragement in spiritual growth.

A beginning course in Microcomputers in Education (Grades K-12) will offer hands-on experience with various computers, software evaluation techniques and basic programming. The course will be offered July 1-12.

Those with a fundamental knowledge of microcomputer operation will be eligible to take Microcomputers in Education, II July 15-26. This course deals with major software such as Word Processing, List and Cataloging, Graphics and Spread Sheet Analysis.

A music camp will be offered Aug. 16-22 for high school graduates interested in instrumental and vocal music at Camp Tahkodah. The week-long session will be directed by Harding's music faculty.

For more information about summer school program write to Summer Sessions, Box 898, Harding University, Searcy, Ark. 72143 or call (501) 268-6161, ext. 421.

Risinger Goes From Classroom To Board Room

By David Crouch

It's a long way from the Harding University classrooms to the corporate board room of W. R. Grace and Company in New York City. Harry Risinger ('68) made the trip in just nine years after joining the company in 1972.

Harry, vice president of finance for the agri-chemical group of W. R. Grace, is the youngest vice president in the group's history. He regularly leaves his Memphis office and travels to New York City with the other agri-chemical executives to brief the company's chief executive on the financial standing and operating results of the agri-chemical group.

Never in his wildest imagination did Harry think that his career would progress so rapidly. He has already achieved career goals that take others a lifetime to achieve. Under his supervision are accounting, treasury services, business planning/reporting, credit, internal audit and design of business information systems.

After graduating from Harding, serving three years in the Army, and working on his MBA degree at Memphis State University, Harry began his career at W. R. Grace as an auditor. "I've had a wide variety of experiences — from auditing to budgeting to industrial development and financing to capital expenditure analysis to business planning. I've been vice president of finance for three years. Right after I got this job, we really went into a recession — not only the national economy, but particularly the fertilizer business. We had to make a major cutback in personnel and had to restructure the way we did things. So my level of experience went up quickly.

"Harding played a big part in my success. My major was in accounting, so I learned the basics of general accounting, cost accounting and financial statement analysis. This preparation helped me to pass the CPA exam quickly and to be recognized in Grace. But as far as I'm concerned, the most important traits that Harding helped me to develop are a respect for hard work, for Christian ethics and for the abilities of other people. I think the key to being a success is to put God first, to work hard and to treat people with dignity and respect."

His job carries him throughout the United States and to the Caribbean. The agri-chemical group has operations in most states east of the Rockies plus Trinidad, Jamaica and Puerto Rico. The group is not only one of the leading fertilizer producers in the United States, but it is also a major competitor in the international market.

"Internationally we're competing primarily against government-owned fertilizer companies: Russia, Mexico, Morocco, Tunisia and other North African countries. Fertilizer is an international commodity, and factors and circumstances affecting the market can change rapidly," he said.

"One of the major problems that we face in our business is over-supply. Any time the supply/demand ratio gets out of balance, the prices of our products drop dramatically. We're competing in the world market against non-market economies like Russia's. These non-market economies are interested in moving their product to obtain foreign currency, principally U.S. dollars and to provide employment. They don't have the same regard for the rate of return on their investment as we do in our country. That creates some real problems in our business."

A typical day in Harry's world of corporate finance is best described as "atypical." He just laughs when asked to describe his day. More often than not his workday begins before 7 a.m. and runs well past the normal 5 p.m. quitting time. Meetings, analyzing and acting on reports, planning and preparing presentations to other corporate executives, and even negotiations with a foreign government on a joint venture project are just part of his busy schedule.

Harry's weekends are atypical for the average corporate executive. While he served as a bus captain in the bus ministry of Millington (Tenn.) Church of Christ, 400 to 500 children were brought to worship services on the buses.

"If you're a bus captain, it's a husband and wife team effort. No, it's really a family effort. We started in the bus ministry in 1974, and our sons (Matthew and Adam) literally grew up on the bus, participating in the teaching that occurred on the way to and from the church building. Jan ('69) and I are no longer bus captains, but the boys still work on a bus route every Sunday.

"After we got into the bus ministry, we saw how productive it could be in terms of reaching out to the families of the children. We have been successful in Bible studies with many of these families. This program is an integral part of the evangelism effort of the congregation."

Harry is now a deacon for the congregation and for the last four years has been responsible for leading and encouraging the congregation in evangelism.

"Jan teaches young children, primarily from the bus routes, and I teach young adults as well as special classes on evangelism and discipling. The spirit of love and evangelism is wonderful at the church in Millington. Because the Naval base provides a constant flow of new people into the city, we've been given excellent opportunities to share the Gospel with others."

Even though business takes up much of his time, Harry knows business is not everything. He realizes that the corporate world is a place to earn respect, not a deity to be worshipped.

Risinger is a member of the President's Development Council and serves as chairman of the Endowment Investment Advisory Committee.

Harding Experiences Record Fund-Raising Year in '84

Significant increases in the top three categories of donors in 1984 resulted in a record fund-raising year for Harding, according to Floyd Daniel, Vice President for University Relations.

During 1984, donations by individuals, corporations or organizations reached a record $3,652,228. In 1983 the contributions were $3,395,842. The 1984 donations represent 4,020 different donors or donor units as is the case of a husband and wife who are both alumni.

There were 2,935 of these 1984 donors who qualified for membership in Harding's Donor Recognition Program. Participation in these seven gift clubs accounted for $3,628,081 in gifts.

The Donor Recognition Program includes the Founder's Fund, Trustees' Circle, President's Forum, Heritage Fund, University Fund, Century Club, and Harding Friends.

Fifty-two donors were members of the Founder's Fund in 1984. Their contributions totaled $2,290,504. Membership at this level is for individuals or organizations contributing $10,000 or more during the calendar year. In 1983 there were 44 members contributing $2,024,270.

The Trustees' Circle enrolled 49 donors during the year. This group contributed $305,786. In 1983 there were 44 donors contributing $275,842. Membership in the Trustees' Circle requires gifts between $5,000 and $9,999 annually.

Membership in the President's Forum reached 304 in 1984. Donors in this group contributed between $1,000 and $4,999. In 1984 donors at this level contributed $544,481. In 1983 President's Forum members contributed $498,870.

Members of the Heritage Fund gave $143,533 during 1984. There were 230 donors at this level giving between $500 and $999. Donors giving between $200 and $499 were designated as members of the University Fund. Those in this gift club gave $197,538. There were 743 members in this club during 1984. In 1984 there were 855 participants at the Century Club level. Those giving between $100 and $199 are members of the Century Club. In 1984 this group contributed $103,495.

Harding Friends is the designation for those giving $50 to $99 annually. This group gave $42,040, and there were 702 members in 1984. In addition to the gift club members there were another 1,085 individuals or organizations in 1984 who contributed $24,147 in gifts between $1 and $49.

The purposes of the Donor Recognition Program are to encourage an active interest in the University by alumni and friends, to increase Harding's recognition of devoted financial supporters, and to maintain and to increase substantially the level of giving by alumni and friends.

Alumni Gifts Exceed $800,000

Contributions by alumni in 1984 dipped slightly to $862,889 according to the annual report made by David Crouch, Director of Alumni Relations.

It was the third consecutive year that alumni contributions had topped the $800,000 mark. In 1983 alumni had contributed $892,691 and in 1982 $835,303 was given.

During 1984, 3,707 alumni donors were recorded. For the year, 19 percent of the University's active alumni made a gift to their alma mater. During the year 25.4 percent of all graduates and 11.9 percent of all non-graduates contributed.

National statistics for 1984 alumni giving have not been compiled yet, but Harding's 19 percent should rank the school slightly above the national average.

The average gift in 1984 was $233 which was a significant increase over the 1983 average of $183.

Since 1982 a special effort has been made to have 30 percent of the alumni in each class make a contribution to Harding. In 1984 two classes had 30 percent or more

Editor's Note: Alumni contributions provide vital support to Harding. Each year a list of donors is published for the previous year. The following is a list of those who contributed to Harding University in 1984. Every effort has been made to ensure an accurate and complete listing. However, if for some reason your name has been excluded, please contact the Development Office, Station A, Box 932, Searcy, Ark. 72143.

members of the class making a contribution. Those reaching the goal were the classes of '25 and '37. It was the third consecutive year for these two classes to surpass the 30 percent mark.

In 1984 there were 18 other classes which topped the 20 percent mark. Included in this group were the classes of '30, '31, '32, '33, '34, '35, '36, '40, '41, '42, '43, '45, '46, '48, '49, '50, '52, and '59.

Gordon Gerbholz

Outstanding Senior Accolades Go To Football, Softball Athletes

Harding University athletes Gordon Gerbholz and Karen Mason have been named the outstanding senior athletes of 1984-85.

Gerbholz, an NAIA Academic All-American and co-captain of the 1984 Bison football team, was selected to receive the M. E. Berryhill Award. A native of Omaha, Neb., he was a four-year letterman and an All-Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference honorable mention honoree. He compiled a 3.5 grade point average while pursuing a major in computer systems.

A two-time All-AIC softball player, Mason also earned a varsity letter as a member of the volleyball team. She was elected to membership in Alpha Chi Honor Society while compiling a 3.61 GPA with a physical education major. She is a native of Tabernacle, N.J., and transferred to Harding from Northeastern Christian College (Pa.).

Athletes in all sports were recognized as Bison coaches awarded trophies to outstanding members of the Harding athletic teams for the 1984-85 school year.

Golfers Second in AIC Competition

The Harding University golf team placed second in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference May 3-4, scoring 327 and 329 in AIC rounds five and six.

Two members of the Bison squad, junior Didier Villard and Kevin Wise, were selected to the All-AIC team.

The AIC season finale at the Cortez Country Club in Hot Springs Village also served as the NAIA District 17 tournament. The Bisons finished the district competition in third place with 656 strokes for the two rounds, behind Henderson State University (622) and Arkansas Tech University (653).

Only Henderson State topped coach Phil Watkins' team in conference competition. The Reddies compiled 40 team points compared to the Bisons' 34.

Junior Bob Pittenger of Shawnee Mission, Kans., paced the Bisons in the next-to-last

Van der Kaaij Places in Nationals Earns NAIA All-America Honors

With a 15-9 vault, Harding junior Edwin Van der Kaaij captured fourth place and All-America honors in the NAIA Track and Field Championships at Hillsdale, Mich., May 25.

Van der Kaaij's outstanding effort was his best of the 1985 outdoor season, according to Bisons' head coach Ted Lloyd.

"Ed really competes well," Bison assistant Cliff Sharp said. "His qualifying mark may not have been as good as he would have liked, but when it gets down to head-to-head competition, that's when he gets going."

A native of Badhoevedorp, Netherlands, Van der Kaaij has a personal best of 16-4, set last year in the European championships. He will return to Europe and compete in 12 meets during the summer months.

Van der Kaaij cleared 15-0 on an injured ankle in the conference meet to qualify for the nationals. Teamwise, Harding placed sixth overall with first place points coming from miler Al Bates 3:51.46 victory in the 1500 meter run and Doug Ogburn's 155-10 3/4 throw in the discus. Bates is a senior from Nashville, Tenn., and Ogburn is a senior from Warren, Mich.

Ed Van der Kaaij

The Harding women's team, competing in its first AIC meet ever, placed third and won the 4 X 400 meter relay in 4:16.81. Members of the winning foursome were Dawn Mason of Tabernacle, N.J., Mindi Williams of Salado, Texas, and Joanna Berry and Kellee City of Searcy, Ark.

Lloyd Named to International Staff

Harding track coach Ted Lloyd has been named to the United States staff for the World University Games competition Aug. 29-Sept. 4, in Kobe, Japan.

The appointment from the International Competition Committee of The Athletic Congress (TAC), through its World University Games Selection Subcommittee, was made by Berny Wagner, national coach/coordinator.

"It's an Olympic-type competition," Lloyd said. "At the international level it's right behind the Pan American Games and the Olympics. I feel very fortunate to have a chance to fulfill one of my lifetime goals as a coach."

Lloyd will be one of a nine member coaching staff to direct the U.S. men and women track athletes.

The World University Games is a multi-sports competition under the jurisdiction of the United States Olympic Council.

Lloyd has more than 25 years of coaching experience in intercollegiate and international competition. In 1969-70 he served as national coach for Panama in the Caribbean Games and coached teams for the NAIA (Brazil in 1974) and the AAU (Mexico in 1979).

The 49-year-old Lloyd is a past president of the NAIA Track Coaches Association (1978-80) and served as meet director of the NAIA National Championships in 1973 and 1974. He is a 1957 graduate of Harding and earned the M.S. degree in 1964 from the University of Mississippi.

Lloyd is a native of Spring Hill, Kan., and is married to the former Marcie Crawford of Mountain Home. The couple has two children, Rees, a 1984 graduate, and Melissa, 16.

Lady Bisons Win AIC

Despite some unusual circumstances, for the second straight year the Harding Lady Bisons are champions of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference Women's Softball.

"Unusual is hardly the word," said coach Ted Altman, who directed the Lady Bisons to a 3-5 season record.

At the beginning of the year three schools plus Harding had indicated they would field a softball team. However, as the countdown for competition came, only Harding had a certified, official school team.

"It is a different kind of feeling to be declared conference champion by default, but that's essentially the way it happened," Altman said.

The season had its highlights, however, as the Lady Bisons counted victories over NCAA member Arkansas State University and Northeastern Oklahoma.

Eleven team members were named all-conference. They were Lisa Baker of Horn Lake, Miss., Shelma Collins of Searcy, Lois Goodin of Roselle, Ill., Sue Hainzinger of Bartlesville, Okla., Amy Hall of Burkburnett, Texas, Sandra Hammtree of Spanish Fort, Ala.,

Gina Huffman of Parkersburg, W.Va., Dawn and Karen Mason of Tabernacle, N.J., Debra Phillips of Capshaw, Ala., and Linda Phillips of Royal Oak, Mich.

Bisons Win District Baseball Crown, Place Second in Area

By Stan Green

With a never-say-die mind set, Harding baseballers won the 1984 NAIA District 17 Championship and placed second in the NAIA Area V Playoff in Searcy, May 15-17.

Outstanding pitching, timely hitting and a tenacious defense propelled the Bisons to their most successful season in school history with a 23-18 record.

In addition, second baseman Greg Thompson of Decatur, Ill., was named Co-Player of the Year and Dick Johnson earned Coach of the Year in NAIA District 17.

The Bisons earned a berth in the Area V Tournament by sweeping through the NAIA District 17 playoff undefeated. With route-going pitching performances from Randy Allman of Columbus, Ohio, James Mayes of Searcy, and Steve Pilkington of Heber Springs, Ark., the Bisons won their first-ever District 17 baseball title.

"In all my coaching career I've never been prouder of a bunch of kids," Johnson said. "We showed some folks that Harding has a class baseball team with some class youngsters who just wouldn't give up."

Harding drew Georgia College, the NAIA's fourth ranked team, in the area opener and lost 3-2 despite a masterful pitching performance by Allman. Falling into the losers bracket, the Bisons rode the strong left arm of Pilkington to come back and defeat Birmingham Southern 4-0.

Playing again the same day, Mayes pitched a four-hitter as the Bisons eliminated Union University (Tenn.) 9-2. (Union had come into the tournament as the NAIA's 12th ranked team.)

Pilkington, who allowed only four hits in his win over Birmingham-Southern, had six hits in eight trips for the day to pace the Bison hitters.

Harding moved into the finals against Georgia College. Since Georgia College had not lost, Harding had to defeat them twice to win the tournament.

Freshman Marty Spears earned his spurs with a gutsy performance to defeat the Colonials 6-5. Going all the way, the Searcy lefthander scattered 12 hits and made a diving catch of a pop fly to win his fifth game of the season.

Playing their fifth game in three days, the Bisons were unable to hold on to an early lead and fell 11-5 in the final game.

"We had four straight complete games from out pitchers," Johnson said. "It was just too much to ask them to come back on one day of rest, but the kids gave it their all. They were tremendous."

Despite the loss Johnson was enthusiastic about the season. "We've made a lot of progress in the last two years. Last season we won the AIC, this year the district and we should have all of our players back next year except our senior captain Randy Hindman. And he'll be a graduate assistant."

Johnson indicated no small share of the team's success has been due to the dedication and effort of the assistant coaches, Steve Smith and Tony Finley. "Without those fellows, we couldn't have made it," Johnson said. "They mean a lot to me, to the players and the program." Smith is a professor of math and Finley is an assistant professor of education.

The AIC in 1984, the NAIA District 17 Championship and runnerup in the Area V in 1985 — maybe, the NAIA World Series in 1986?

Netters Share AIC, Record Outstanding Season

For the second straight year, Harding has claimed a share of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference tennis championship and the runnerup spot in the NAIA District 17 Tournament.

Bison freshman Vernon Lewis won the district singles title and, then teamed with senior Nigel Liverpool to sweep the doubles championship. Their victories qualified them for the NAIA national tournament in Kansas City, Mo., May 19.

Closing out the AIC season in a three way tie with Arkansas Tech and Southern Arkansas, coach David Elliott's squad finished with an outstanding 21-8 match record.

Elliott, with his seventh AIC title now on record, said, "We had an excellent year playing one of the hardest schedules since I've been here. We had really good team balance."

Lewis and Liverpool, both natives of the West Indies, were named All-AIC and they were joined by Searcy junior Donnie Wallis on the District 17 team. In three playoff tournaments, Wallis has not lost a district match.

After a first round bye at the national tournament, Lewis and Liverpool defeated doubles teams from Northern State College (S.D.) and Lasker College (S.C.) before falling in the fourth round to the top-seeded team from Southwest Baptist (Mo.).

What this year's team lacked in experience, Elliott is quick to point out the unity and determination that brought his

Nigel Liverpool

Bisons a share of the AIC title.

"This year, our team really played a total team concept," Elliott remarked. "It took everyone's total commitment to winning to come through our season so well."

Elliott's teams have won outright AIC titles in 1968-70, 1976 and 1981.

New Opponent Added For Football Season

A new opponent will highlight the 1985 Harding University football schedule announced by Bison head coach John Prock.

The University of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, now a member of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference, has been added to the Harding schedule after a break of 13 years. The two schools last played in 1971.

Harding will have only four home games this fall. The first home date, traditionally the Parents' Night, is set for Sept. 28 against Southeastern Oklahoma State University. After an open date the Bisons will host Arkansas Tech University Oct. 12, the University of Arkansas-Monticello Nov. 2 (Homecoming) and Ouachita Baptist University Nov. 16.

The Bisons will open with consecutive games on the road. Harding will play Lane College at Jackson, Tenn., Sept. 14 and Evangel College at Springfield, Mo., Sept. 21. Other out-of-town opponents will be UAPB on Oct. 19, Henderson State University at Arkadelphia, Oct. 26, Southern Arkansas University at Magnolia, Nov. 9 and the University of Central Arkansas at Conway, Nov. 23.

Harding University BULLETIN

Harding University admits students of any race, color, and national or ethnic origin. Also, in compliance with Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, and section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Harding University does not discriminate on the basis of sex or handicap in its educational program, activities, or employment except where necessitated by specific religious tenets held by the institution and its controlling body.

Clockwise: Longtime missionary and educator Irene Johnson Gatewood receives her honorary doctorate hood from Vice President for Academic Affairs Dr. Neale Pryor and University President Clifton L. Ganus, Jr. After graduation ceremonies, Keynote Speaker Roy Orr, chairman of the board of the First National Bank in DeSoto, Texas, talks with some of the graduates. Composer L.O. Sanderson shakes hands with President Ganus as he accepts his honorary doctorate and Dr. Pryor prepares to present his hood.
